State Rests in Ward Murder Trial-- Motion for Dismissal of First Degree Indictment is Denied

The audience at the trial of Walter S. Ward, millionaire baker's son, for the murder of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor, is as fashionable as any to be found at a first night in the theatre. Matrons and flappers of White Plains, N. Y., and neighboring residence colonies attend in great numbers. Here you see spectators in line waiting for the "show" to begin.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Supreme Court Justice Wagner today denied a motion made by Isaac N. Mills, chief defense counsel in the trial of Walter S. Ward for the murder of Clarence Peters, for dismissal of the first degree murder indictment against the son of the millionaire Brooklyn baker. The motion, the third to be made by Mills and denied by Justice Wagner, was put before the court after Attorney General Sherman had rested the state's case. In order to hear arguments on it,

Decides to End Fight Against the Occupation of Ruhr District

Immediate Resumption of Work Ordered in All Fields of Activity

BERLIN, Sept. 25 (By the Associated Press).—Germany has decided to end unconditionally her weaponless and moral fight against the occupation of her economic stronghold, the Ruhr, and immediate resumption of work has been ordered in all fields of activity affected by the policy of passive resistance. Chancellor Stresemann, making this

U. S. Represented By Three Seaplanes

PORTSMOUTH, England, Sept. 25.—The American reserve seaplane piloted by Lieut. Frank W. Wead will be substituted in the Schneider cup race for seaplanes on Sept. 28 for the plane wrecked yesterday near Portsmouth during a trial flight. The United States will thus be represented by three machines, the original number but the chances of England for retaining the cup are regarded by the experts as greatly increased owing to the fact that the wrecked plane was America's most powerful entry, said to be capable of making 170 miles an hour.

Willard Favors R. R. Consolidation

CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

Bail of Autoist Charged With Reckless Driving Increased From $100 to $300

Man Fined for Operating Auto Without License—Liquor Nuisance Case

Carrying into execution the proposed crusade against drunkenness on the city's public parks and commons, Judge Enright this morning ordered George F. Wright, arrested on the South common yesterday afternoon by Officer James H. Boyle, committed to the house of correction for a period of two months, a suspended sentence to that effect being revoked when Wright pleaded guilty to the offense.

Bailed for $100 when arrested for driving an automobile in a manner to endanger the lives and safety of the public, Joseph F. Carter was forced to recognize in the sum of $300 when he asked for a continuance, the court increasing the bail with the remark, he couldn't understand the action of the bail commissioners in dealing so lightly with such a serious offense. The case was continued until Oct. 5.

Joseph M. Shamas was fined $10 for operating an automobile without a license. He was arrested in Bridge st. last night by Officer Owen Conway, who took him to the police station and then allowed him time to go home and get a license which he claimed to have. He didn't return, but showed up in court this morning with the necessary certificate. A charge of driving without rear light showing was placed on file.

George J. Skalkeas, charged with maintaining a liquor nuisance, was continued until Oct. 3, bonds being fixed at $300. Continuances were granted also to Adam Nastowicz for being drunk and operating while under the influence, and to Rosemarie Landry, for assault and battery on Sarah E. Lamothe.

NOT READY TO DISCUSS NESMITH FUND

Until he has opportunity to study the supreme court decision by which the city is ordered to rehabilitate the Nesmith fund to its original amount of $25,000 and to continue to administer it as a trust fund for the worthy poor of the city as stipulated in the original will of Thomas Nesmith, City Solicitor Patrick J. Reynolds does not wish to discuss the probable method of procedure which will result in complete restoration of the fund.

The matter was being generally discussed at city hall today, however, and a number of suggestions were made informally as to possible ways and means of restoring it.

In the opinion of James J. Gallagher, president of the city council, the city can borrow the necessary money for the restoration of the fund. Other suggestions were that the money might be secured by direct appropriation and again, that a sinking fund might be established whereby the full amount of the fund would be secured in five years. This last suggestion, of course, would need the approval of the Nesmith heirs.

By the court decision, handed down yesterday, it is up to the city to rehabilitate the fund in full and although the text of the order has not been received here, it is not believed that the court stipulated how the restoration should be effected.

EDWARD J. COONEY PRESIDES AT FIRST DAY'S SESSION OF N. E. ADVERTISING CLUBS

EDWARD J. COONEY

(Special to The Sun)
PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 25.—Edward J. Cooney, president of the Lowell Ad Club, while presiding at today's session of the New England Advertising Clubs' annual convention, held in this city today and tomorrow, offered to the convention a proposition to petition the governor of each New England state to appoint a representative who would meet in official session to determine ways and means to show the rest of the country just what New England offers in the way of industrial supremacy and as a vacation land.

In assuming the duties of presiding officer at today's session, Mr. Cooney said:

"I feel honored to be called upon to act as presiding officer of today's session of the New England Advertising Clubs' annual convention. While I am the president of the youngest advertising club in New England, the Lowell Advertising Club, I am a charter member of one of the oldest, the Town Officers of Providence. I am an advertising man clean through. I love it, it is the greatest force of modern business. If advertising should cease, this country of ours, would slide backwards so rapidly that the result would astound all of us.

ORDER OF THE SONS OF ITALY TO BE INSTITUTED HERE WITH MEMBERSHIP OF 200

Next Sunday afternoon Lodge Alessandro Nanzoni, No. 1240, Order of the Sons of Italy, will be instituted in Lowell, with a membership of more than 200 and with exercises of institution and installation that will be as colorful and unusual as any within the city's history.

Lowell Italians are giving this event their every thought and this morning obtained a permit from Mayor John J. Donovan for a street parade which will precede the exercises to be held in the large hall in Odd Fellows building, Middlesex street. The mayor also accepted an invitation to march in the parade and a platoon of police will head the line. It will form in Middlesex street and will pass through Middlesex, Thorndike, Dutton, Merrimack, Central and Gorham streets before disbanding at the I.O.O.F. building.

From all over the state will come representatives and high officers of the society and big delegations from lodges in Lawrence and Haverhill will conduct the installation ceremony. The order at present has 300,000 members in this country and has established itself as the leading fraternal organization among people of Italian birth.

The program of institution will be featured by the installation of the officers of Lowell lodge, headed by Angelo DiDomenico, president.

The committee in charge of all preliminary arrangements which waited on Mayor Donovan today included president DiDomenico, chairman; Michael Roberts, Donato Marzullo and Antonio Pallotta, treasurer of the new lodge.

The parade will form at 1:30 p. m. and will get under way at 2 o'clock, to be followed by the installation exercises immediately after dismissal, which probably will be about 5 o'clock.

PIT FLOODED, 70 PERISHED

Water Broke Through Wall of Adjoining Pit and Miners Were Trapped

Had No Chance to Get to Pithead—Only One Man in Mine Escaped

Frantic Relatives of Victims Rush to Scene of the Disaster

GLASGOW, Sept. 25. (By the Associated Press).—Seventy lives are believed to have been lost early today, in one of the worst colliery disasters in the history of the Scotch mines, when a deep pit at the James Nimmo company's colliery near Falkirk, was flooded.

The water which flooded the pit broke through the walls of an adjoining pit which had not been used for many years. The active pit was flooded so quickly that there was no opportunity to warn the miners. They had no chance to get to the pithead and only one man escaped after the rush of water began.

Frantic relatives of the victims rushed to the pithead, at which rescuers hastily began work, but little, if any hope, was entertained of saving any of the unfortunates.

DECISION ON MURDER CASE AGAIN DELAYED

CAMBRIDGE, Sept. 25.—Judge McLeod of the superior court said today that his decision on the motions of counsel for Dr. William under indictment in connection with the death of Mrs. Alice M. Wolschendorf, would not be announced before tomorrow or Thursday. Counsel, he said, had filed a supplementary brief and there was a possibility that another would be filed today. The motions in question ask for a jury trial on questions of fact involved in the request of the defense that the indictments be quashed.

Charges which the state police investigated yesterday in the hope of finding missing portions of the woman's body proved worthless. Parts of the body in two suitcases were found in the Merrimack river at Tyngsboro, early this month.

City of Amoy on Verge of General Strike

AMOY, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) Held by Sun Yat Sen troops and besieged by the north China forces of Gen. Chen Chung-Ming, the city of Amoy is on the verge of a general strike as a protest against the landing of Japanese sailors and marines Sunday. If the strike becomes a reality it will mean the complete tieup of all business here.

To Stamp Goods "Made in Ireland"

DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—In consequence of representations by the United States customs authorities who point out that the American tariff act requires imports to be marked in English, the Free State government has notified Irish exporters to cease stamping goods "Deanta in Eirinn" and substitute the English equivalent "Made in Ireland."

$100,000 Fire in Woburn Business District

WOBURN, Sept. 25.—Loss estimated at $100,000, was caused early today by fire which destroyed the factory of the Tribble Cordage Co., on Union street and a business building at Union and Main streets. For a time the whole business section in the center of the city was threatened and aid was summoned from nearby towns. The business building contained several stores, with tenements on the upper floors.

First Telephone Girl on Job 45 Years Tells of Operators' Trials in the Olden Days

MARY BEATRICE KENNEDY, FIRST TELEPHONE GIRL IN NEW YORK, AND (BELOW) PICTURE TAKEN IN INTS OF THE OLD NASSAU EXCHANGE, WHERE SHE GOT HER FIRST JOB

CONVENT, N. J., Sept. 25.—The original "hello girl" hasn't said "good-bye" yet. After 45 years at the switchboard, she's still on the job listening in on the world asking the same old questions, receiving the same old answers, in much the same old way.

But Mary Beatrice Kennedy, the first girl to put the smile in the voice, no longer sits in a bustling office at an old-fashioned switchboard in the New York "Nassau" exchange. She's now plucking in at a desk in the College of St. Elizabeth, where she is telephone operator and chaplain.

"The times have changed," she says, "and the telephone has improved, but not so the people's temper."

"Why, I got my job because the telephone company was tired of firing its boy operators for swearing at the subscribers who grew irate at the poor service."

"If you think you're getting poor service today, you should have tried it in the eighties."

"Near riots were almost daily happenings in the outer office of our exchange. Subscribers came down to fight the operator who had sworn at them and had given directions as to where he wished they would go. The boys soon made it impossible for them to hold the jobs as operators and girls took their places. I was the first to get the job and went to work just 45 years ago this month. The boys were all jealous of me, but I didn't mind. They were soon all fired."

Alexander G. Bell, inventor of the telephone, often came down to the exchange where Miss Kennedy worked. Sometimes he was accompanied by Thomas A. Edison.

"But we didn't pay much attention to him," she says. "He wasn't famous then."

The favorite questions of the old days?

"What's the weather prediction?" said Miss Kennedy, "used to be most frequently asked. And how much are eggs selling?" was another favorite.

"What time is it, Central?" and "Where is the fire, please?" hadn't come into vogue yet.

"And nobody asked for the baseball score or prizefight results."

"Calling a number was unheard of in the early days. Subscribers simply called for Smith's drug store or Jones' grocery or this or that building on Broadway, at such and such a cross street. When they didn't get their party at once, of course, they blamed poor Central—just as today."

Miss Kennedy got $3 a week for her work when she first began.

"When I think of the comforts in the office today," she says, "I realize that we girls in the 'dark ages' had virtually nothing. I went to work at eight in the morning and remained on the job until six at night. To get to work I had to take a horse car from my home in Jersey City, then a ferry across to Manhattan and then another street car, drawn by horses. And when I got to my office I had to walk up six flights of stairs."

"My friends thought I was crazy to take the job. But after 45 years I'm not sorry."

SULLIVAN BROS. BUY DURKIN PRINTING CO.

Sullivan Brothers, printers, of 233 Central street, who since entering the local commercial printing field five years ago, have enlarged their plant five times are to again expand as the result of the purchase of the business and equipment of the Durkin Printing company of Market street.

The passing of the Durkin business to the Sullivan brothers makes the third firm that has been absorbed by the Central street printers, and the added facilities will enable them to better handle their rapidly growing business.

The Sullivan plant was founded upon two fundamental principles of successful endeavor—service and satisfaction—and the progress and expansion already enjoyed indicates that their policy has met with popular favor in the local business field.

The transfer of the Durkin equipment of the Sullivan plant will entail no delay and orders placed with both firms will be finished at the time promised in every instance.

Hearing on Saco-Lowell

Petition Resumed Today

was made in a room in the American House here on the evening the strike vote was taken by the union members. He had been summoned to the hotel by Mr. Pendergast, he said, to see if something couldn't be done to avert trouble, but he made it clear to Mr. Pendergast that he did not go in an official capacity, as he had no right to do so.

The witness said that he went to the hotel early in the evening prior to the vote, and he asked if the strike was going to be put into effect. Both Pendergast and Murphy said that it was going through. Mr. Saxon then said he told the union representatives that he had talked with the men and they did not want to strike, that they were satisfied with their wages, their hours and working conditions, which were better than ever. He also asked them if they meant to disregard the long fight that had culminated in conditions perfectly satisfactory to the men, and they replied that they knew conditions were better than they ever had been, but that was not the issue, it was an issue between Franklin street, Boston, and Cincinnati. We are going to insist on a closed shop."

Mr. Saxon said that he has been foreman at the plant since July of 1922, and he first heard strike talk last December, but the first definite knowledge he received that a strike was to be called was about one week before the strike, when some of the men told him about it.

A Mr. Grenier, a union member, told Mr. Saxon that he did not think much of the strike and he did not want to go out. A Mr. Hill also said he felt bad about it, and hoped it would not go through. Witnesses also quoted several others whose stories were similar.

Shortly before the strike actually went into effect Mr. Saxon asked Mr. Hill if he was going out on strike, and the latter replied he didn't want to, but he was afraid to stay in, and if he did stay in his life would be made miserable for him.

The witness identified a table of statistics showing that the average hours of work were 50, and that the average pay for the week of April 11 was $50.10, and for the week of May 12, after a voluntary increase had been granted, the average pay was $56.55. This was offered as evidence.

When the hearing was opened Supt. Hansen of the Saco Lowell foundry was recalled to the stand. Supt. Hansen had offered considerable testimony at a previous hearing.

Supt. Hansen said that the company began feeding and housing men in the plant on June 5, and because of the strike he said that about that time the plant was running 50 per cent below normal. Up to the present time he said that the number of men sleeping in the plant had been as high as 65, but at the present time there were only 13 of the workers sleeping in the plant.

The witness was questioned regarding picketing, and he said that he had noticed pickets in the vicinity of the plant, and that this morning he counted 12 pickets on the lines.

The only other witness heard this morning was William M. Strong, who is connected with the Kilsen foundry, which is controlled by the Saco-Lowell company. He said that the places of the strikers had all been filled and that his plant was now running normal.

Attorney Howard of Kna, Howard & Rogers, counsel for the respondents, did not cross-examine any of the witnesses this morning by agreement with Attorney Wilson, counsel for the petitioners, but cross-examination will be taken up at a future hearing.

The next hearing will be held Oct. 5.

LARCENY CHARGED

George D. Blight of Gosham street was arrested this morning by Lieut. Martin Maher for the larceny of $7 pairs of shoes, valued at $2 per pair, from the Foster Shoe company. The shoes were found in Blight's room in Gosham street, but he denied that he had stolen them, saying they had been left there by an unknown man. He was booked at the station on charges of breaking and entering and larceny and will be arraigned in district court to-morrow morning.

MOST CARS ARE BOUGHT ON WOMEN'S ADVICE

Look over the improvements made on the automobile in the last 25 years and what do you find the most marked trend in its progress?

Ease of operation. That includes everything designed to make driving easy for the motorist.

And the individual for whom most changes have been made in the course of this advancement is—woman.

For proof, here is the conclusion of the Cleveland sales manager of a high-class car, who has had experience in automobile sales throughout the various stages of progress. It is that three-fourths of the cars bought now—always have been sold on the decision of woman.

She's Pleased

And it is in recognition of this important fact that automobile manufacturers have sought more and more to please the woman, even more than the man, in selling their products. Beauty, comfort, ease in driving—all make their appeal to the feminine, while every effort has been made to reduce inconveniences on the road.

Of course, men would not like to feel himself eliminated from consideration when it comes to beauty, comfort and driving ease of a car. For he is interested in these attributes—but not so much as his wife or sweetheart, say auto salesmen. Besides, if they could show the husband that low purring motor, the sturdy chassis and the easily handled controls, they've done enough to sell him. While Mrs. Motorist must be sure she'll ride in comfort and that her car is more beautiful than her neighbor's.

Classes of Buyers

According to this Cleveland manager's observations, the men who buy automobiles may be divided into four classes:

1. Those who say that whatever car suits their wives is satisfactory to them.

2. Those who consult their wives before buying.

3. Those who buy cars without consulting their wives.

4. Unmarried men.

Estimating the number in each group, this salesman concludes about 75 per cent of the men who buy cars do so after having consulted the woman in the case. He puts nearly half the purchasers in the first category. And those who buy without considering their wives' feelings are as few as those who do the buying for the family table.

And even the unmarried men include many who consult their sweethearts before buying.

WILL MAKE CHANGE IN CALENDAR SUNDAY

The Greek Orthodox church of the East, with which the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox church of this city is affiliated, will drop the Julian calendar and adopt the Gregorian calendar next Sunday, Sept. 30. This will be in accordance with a vote taken at a meeting of the Holy Synod of Greece held a few months ago at Constantinople. The adoption of the Gregorian calendar will only affect the feasts of Christmas and Easter and a few minor feasts of the church. In fact, the Greeks have been making use of the Gregorian calendar.

In the year 753 of Rome Julius Caesar brought about a reform in the Roman calendar, and the new calendar was named the Julian calendar. Five centuries later, in 1582, instituted the so-called Gregorian calendar, which was adopted by most countries of Europe and the Christian people all over the world excepting the Russians, Greeks and Turks.

ORGANIZER REGAN BACK IN LOWELL

Thomas J. Regan of this city, general organizer for the United Textile Workers of America, has returned from a trip to North Adams and Pittsfield where he conducted a special investigation of textile conditions for the organization he represents.

Mr. Regan stated this morning that in North Adams there are four woolen mills and one cotton mill and work in the woolen plants is practically at a standstill. The cotton mill, he said, has just reopened after the regular annual two weeks' vacation and is now operating on a full-time schedule. He stated that the Braytonville mill, a plant located on the outskirts of North Adams which employs over 200 operatives, is closed tight. For the past year the plant had been in the hands of a receiver, but three weeks ago all operations were suspended and within a short time the building and contents will be sold to the highest bidder.

In Pittsfield, said Mr. Regan, the three woolen mills are running full, while the Doan's mill, another woolen concern, is operating day and night. Pittsfield is the only place in western Massachusetts where the textile industries are running on a full-time schedule.

CLOTHING FOR THE DESTITUTE IN JAPAN

The first response to the Salvation Army's appeal for clothing for Japanese relief was from Tewksbury Centre, where the Women's Missionary League of the Congregational church had gathered together quite a number of parcels of clothing and other relief essentials.

Haste is necessary as the Japanese winter will soon close down upon the stricken refugees who have no wool light summer clothes. The Salvation Army headquarters forwarded $115,000 upon receipt of the news of the disaster, but money is not enough. Clothes must be had, and the appeal for bundles of old clothes is being made throughout the whole country this week.

For the benefit of those who are not able to deliver their parcels to the Salvation Army headquarters on Appleton street, Commandant Abbot will send a collector upon receipt of a postal or telephone request.

The whole relief situation may be summed up in the following message which was received recently from Tokyo: "The need for clothing in the devastated region is urgent. Many persons are in a serious condition as a result of exposure."

STATE TROOPS ORDERED TO USE ALL FORCE OF ARMS IF NECESSARY TO BAR LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Gov. Walton of Oklahoma Issues Instructions to Adj. Gen. Markham—"Shoot to Kill" Orders if Necessary to Disperse Legislators—Solons Laying Plans to Meet in Defiance of Executive

(By The Associated Press)—State troops, with orders from Governor J. C. Walton to use all force of arms if necessary, are being marshaled here to prevent the impeachment session of the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature called for noon tomorrow.

Determined legislators are gathering, meanwhile, to lay final plans for attempting to meet in defiance of the executive.

Irrevocably pledged to his course, Governor Walton last night issued instructions to Adjutant General B. H. Markham to draw upon all the military forces of the state if necessary to block the proposed assembly.

"Shoot to Kill" Orders

Expressing the hope that no excessive measures would be required, Gov. Walton asserted nevertheless, "shoot to kill" order would be given the troops should such drastic action be necessary to disperse legislators.

With the crisis approaching, the executive commanded all male citizens of the state between the ages of 21 and 45 years, to hold themselves in readiness "to come to the assistance of the sovereign state of Oklahoma" when summoned by the governor or the adjutant general. "Citizen soldiers" were ordered to prepare to bear such arms as they possess or are able to obtain.

The governor's orders declared that the proposed house session would be an unlawful assembly, and that the K. K. K. which organization under his martial law proclamation is declared to be an enemy of the state. Furthermore he charged the meeting would be "in defiance and violation of the statutes of the state of Oklahoma, now under military law, and laws contrary to the constitution and laws of the state." It would be a direct attempt to break the peace, he asserted.

If the legislators attempt to hold the session at any place in the state other

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MISS GILLESPIE WILL NOT RUN AGAIN FOR THE SCHOOL BOARD

Word has been received in this city of the sudden death of Miss Mabel Gillespie, pioneer organizer of women workers in New England, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 234 Royal street, Boston, in the dress-making establishment of which deceased was manager.

MARTIN E. CLOUGH

The funeral of Martin E. Clough took place from his home, 34 Columbus ave., this morning at 9 o'clock. The funeral cortege composed of 22 limousines bearing sorrowing relatives and friends and preceded by a car filled with floral tributes, wended its way to St. Patrick's church. At the church door the bearers were met by a delegation of the Sanctuary choir boys of which body the deceased was a member. At 10 o'clock a solemn high funeral mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., pastor, assisted by Rev. Joseph Curran, deacon, and Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, sub-deacon. Seated under the canopy were Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, O.M.L., and members of the Sanctuary choir.

The choir, under the direction of Michael J. Conboy, rendered the Gregorian mass. The voice during the mass was sustained by Daniel S. O'Brien and Miss Frances Tighe. At the offertory James King sang Leysach's "The Lord," and after the elevation Paul Cummings rendered "Domine Jesu Christe." As the body was being borne from the church the choir sang "De Profundis." The solos being sustained by Joseph Egan.

The ushers at the home and church and who also acted as honorary bearers were: John Delahanty, Blawie Herbert, Edward Saunders, Henry Cassey, Frederick Lynch and Andrew Livingston.

The bearers were John Grady, James Rourke, John Donohue, Thomas Scanlon, Edward Appleton and James Keefe.

The Knights of Columbus were represented by John P. Golden, Peter Gill, John P. White, William O'Brien and Thomas A. Delmore.

Assisting at the services were relatives and friends from Lawrence, Boston, Saratoga Springs, Clinton and Worcester.

Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., Rev. Dennis Sullivan, O.M.L., and Rev. Joseph Curran. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker William A. Mack.

FUNERALS

BROPHY—The funeral of the late John J. Brophy, for the past 37 years a resident of Lowell and a valued employee of the Gage Ice Co., took place this morning from his home, 29 Walker street at 8:30 o'clock. The cortege proceeded to St. Patrick's church where at 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Curran, assisted by Rev. Cornelius J. Cotter of St. Columba's church as deacon and Rev. Thomas J. McDonough as sub-deacon. The church was well filled as the deceased was well and favorably known. The choir under the direction of Mr. Michael J. Johnson rendered the Gregorian chant, the solos in the mass being sustained by Mr. Daniel S. O'Brien and Miss Frances Tighe. The bearers were Messrs. Daniel Gorman, James T. Gorman, William E. Gorman, Daniel J. Crowley and John Ruelledge. There were many floral and spiritual offerings. The burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery where the committal prayers were read by Fr. Cotter. The funeral was under the direction of Undertakers Jas. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

WILL ATTEND JOINT POSTAL CONVENTION

Postmaster X. A. Delisle and several clerks and carriers of the local post office will attend the joint postal conference-convention for Massachusetts and Rhode Island, which will be held at Faneuil hall, Boston, on Oct. 17. The meeting had been scheduled to be held on Aug. 14, but was postponed to Oct. 17.

First Assistant Postmaster General John H. Bartlett and Third Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover as well as postoffice employees and representatives of chambers of commerce and business men of Massachusetts and Rhode Island will be in attendance. The details of the convention, it is announced, are being worked out and proper notices as to plans will be mailed to postoffices at a later date.

ward 4, now represented by Councilor Frederick A. Sadlier.

If elected again to the school committee, Mr. Mullin would serve for a term of three years, but in announcing his plans today he stated he preferred service in the city council, if fortunate enough to be elected from his ward.

BARRY'S MARKET HAS THIRD ANNIVERSARY

W. A. Barry, manager of Barry's market at Bridge and French streets, is receiving congratulations this week on the third anniversary of the establishment of his popular market.

In speaking of the success which has come to the market, Mr. Barry says that when it was first opened the decisions were made that only the best grades of meats and provisions should be carried and those at reasonable prices, that money should be refunded whenever a customer was dissatisfied and that the principle of square dealing should be the keynote of all transactions.

Mr. Barry feels that the market has been conducted along lines that have appealed to the public, and as proof of this during the past year the store has been enlarged and a new delivery truck added to care for increased business.

A special anniversary sale is being held all this week at the market.

TABERNACLE FEAST USHERED IN BY JEWS

The opening services of the Succoth, the Feast of the Tabernacles, were held last evening in the 4 local synagogues. The holiday was observed this morning. The holiday will be observed for eight days, the first and last days being the most important and on these days services are held in the houses of worship.

The last day of the holiday is known as Simchat Torah, "Joy of the Torah," in this day the reading of "Torah" is finished and immediately begun for another year.

QUESTIONS THE RIGHT OF LOWER COURT JUDGES TO SIT IN SUPERIOR COURT

The right of district-court judges to sit temporarily on the superior court bench, as well as the right of Chief Justice Walter Perley Hall to make such appointments, was questioned by Attyrs. Francis R. Burns of Natick and Martin Hays of Brighton, counsel for defendants on trial in superior criminal court in Cambridge yesterday.

This is of interest in this city because of the fact that Judge J. J. Mahoney of the Lawrence district court, who is at present sitting on the superior court bench, opened the fall term of superior court in this city and sat here for three days.

In the motions filed yesterday the attorneys contend that the proceedings before petty judges on the superior court bench are irregular and void and that alleged verdicts returned by juries are of no force and effect. The attorneys further claimed that the appointments should have been made by the governor.

The statute in question provides that: "A justice of a district court, except the municipal court of the city of Boston, shall, at the written request of the chief justice of the superior court, sit in the superior court at the trial of disposition, with or without jury, in any part of the commonwealth, of any violation of a by-law, order, ordinance, rule or regulation made by a city or town or public officer, of any violation of the liquor law, or of any provision of section 44, of chapter 272 of the General Laws, or of chapters 99 or 273 of the General Laws, and during the continuance of such request shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which a justice of the superior court has and may exercise in the trial and disposition of such cases; provided, that no justice so sitting shall act in a case in which he has either sat or held inquest in the district court or otherwise has an interest."

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

A routine meeting of the board of health was held at 4 p. m., yesterday, with Dr. Francis R. Mahoney, chairman, presiding.

The matter of snow removal from the road leading to the Isolation hospital was discussed with Harry D. Litter, superintendent of streets. The latter suggested the board engage a farmer living nearby to plow out the road. Chairman Mahoney felt the job was one for the street department, but the matter was dropped without definite action. After granting one or two licenses for the collection of garbage the board adjourned at 4:30 o'clock.

WANTS WORLD TO KNOW ABOUT HIS CASE

Mr. Chas. R. Bräwster of Collingville, near Lowell, Mass., relates:

"There were times when I thought that it would be better for me to die. I felt tired and worn out. I had no appetite for food, and ate with fear of the pains and suffering that I always endured afterwards from indigestion and gastritis that bloated my stomach, burned up my insides and made me hoarse."

"I had terrible pains in my back and my insufferable condition wore down my strength until I was but a shadow of my former self. I grew thin and pale with my cheeks hollow and rings under my eyes.

"My liver was sluggish and at times I would have dizzy spells when I felt faint and would feel like a drunken person. I took many different kinds of medicine without a sign of improvement in my condition.

"At last I found the one remedy that my system needed, that was Dreco. This wonderful remedy quickly put me back in good condition. It drove out all traces of my pains and suffering. I have no more stomach trouble, my liver seems to be working fine, and I feel a hundred per cent better. All my thanks to this wonderful remedy that I hope every one suffering as I did will be benefited by it."—Adv.

Dreco is being specially introduced by and sold by druggists everywhere.

FRECKLES AND HIS FRIENDS

This Little World

BY GEORGE BRITT
NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Uneducating a parrot is as hard as educating him, according to the city editor of a Chicago newspaper who happened to own one.

This parrot, called Rhummy and smallest in the city, and the depth is not Polly, was allowed to strut about the house in pretty complete freedom. To prevent him from getting lost, he was taught:

"My name is Rhummy Washburne, I live at 3442 Wayne avenue."

The family moved from that address several years ago. But Rhummy refuses to learn a new number or forget the old.

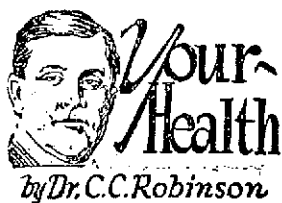

A wolf, full grown, wild and ferocious, was killed the other day at the edge of Chicago. Wolf hunting probably is better here than within the limits of any other American city. Wolves, supposedly, steal rides on freight cars at frontier sidings and are brought into the yards in Chicago. "Wolf, wolf!" isn't an obsolete cry.

The theory that the smallest houses shelter the largest families is exemplified in a shop facing the County building in the heart of the Loop. It has a scant five feet frontage, perhaps the smallest in the city, and the depth is nothing to boast of. But the occupant, the proprietor of a theatre ticket brokerage business, has sub-leased space to a magazine vendor. Both are flourishing.

If you give a panhandler a dime, you receive a "Thank you," but if you save a life you get nothing. Such is the conclusion of a life guard, Oliver Vinnette, who put in the summer bathing season on patrol at the Main street beach, Evanston. "I dragged forty persons out of the water this season, and only two thanked me," he says. "The grateful pair were two German girls who had to get an interpreter to express their sentiments."

A man "who possesses sufficient character to refuse tips," is advertised for by a large Loop movie theatre. If he qualifies, he will be given an admiral's uniform and a living wage and stationed on the sidewalk to say hail and farewell to patrons who ride in automobiles. Footmen at cafes and hotels customarily receive tips as they open doors for patrons. The company operating the movie theatre, however, has built a reputation for attentive service on a non-tipping basis. If the footman accepts a gratuity, he will be ousted from the sidewalk into the street.

DRINKING WATER

This is by no means an attempt to solve the prohibition question. It is the advocacy of H<sub>2</sub>O as a drink pure and simple, without any other question being taken into consideration.

The person who thinks that water is a glorious thing when a fellow wants a swim is all right, but please bear in mind that water is just as good internally as externally.

The Japanese have a rule which requires the soldiers in their army to drink at least two quarts of water each day. Statistics show that the Japanese army uses more water and less medicine than any other. Maybe that's the reason.

Persons who go to spas or watering places to drink the water receive great benefits. This is accounted for, in a large part, simply because they drink more water than they do at home and as a result receive a decided tonic and health renewal.

Water is an absolute necessity for the body and we must get it in some form or another. The purer the better for our health. Naturally then we ask the question: Why, when and how much should we drink?

The reason for taking a sufficient amount of good drinking water every day is obvious. The body is constantly giving off moisture. In some form, during the whole 24 hours. Sometimes more during the night than in the day time. In the secretion of urine, the loss of moisture in the breath, by sweat during the working period and also often at night, the loss is always going on and must be renewed.

There is no hard and fast rule about

RADIO CONCERT CONTEST

Great Nation-Wide Contest
to be Held Monday,
Oct. 15

What purpose is to be the biggest nation-wide contest ever held will occur on Monday evening, October 15th, when twenty-nine U. S. postal bands situated in all the principal cities in the United States will hold a radio concert contest. This was decided at the convention of the National Letter Carriers' Association held last week at Providence when Henry Johnson, the motion picture producer and the Film Booking Office of America offered a cash prize of five hundred dollars and a beautiful silver cup to the best mail band in America.

With the decision to hold the contest the radio was immediately accepted as the best means of reaching the public for their decision. In the United States there are twenty-nine large postal bands scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast. The plan calls for the contests to be held on Monday evening October 15 simultaneously all over the country.

PART OF MUSCLE SHOALS PLANT IS SOLD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Henry Ford's much controverted offer to buy Muscle Shoals was wholly upset yesterday when the government sold to the Alabama Power Co., the Gorgas steam plant—a part of the property—at a price of approximately $3,500,000. This development forces a revised offer from Mr. Ford if he wishes to bid for the remainder of the project. He previously had informed congress that unless the Gorgas plant were included in the sale his bid did not hold.

Political observers who have professed to see some connection between Mr. Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals and the presidential boom which bears the manufacturer's name, predicted yesterday that the next development would be reconsiderations in the coming session of congress, which possibly might develop into something bearing a relation to the coming pre-

WAS GRADUALLY LOSING STRENGTH

Mrs. Lemire Checked the Decline and Tells Others How She Recovered Her Health

A constant loss of weight is a serious symptom and should never be neglected. When in company with it there is thin blood, nervousness, loss of appetite and ambition and a disordered digestion there is need of tonic treatment for the condition is one of debility. The blood must be built up before health can be restored.

Mrs. William Lemire of No. 34 Iowa street, Lowell, Mass., suffered from nervous debility for a number of years. She says: "I had a terrible pressing down pain in the top of my head, like a weight on it. I had a sour stomach all the time and gas spells which would choke me. My complexion was sallow. I had no desire to eat and was losing strength gradually."

"After reading about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the paper I gave them a trial. After the second box I noticed that I was quite a lot better. My nerves were more normal and I did not feel as if I would fly to pieces. Soon the pressing pain in my head went away, my stomach symptoms were relieved and I found that I slept better. I am glad to tell others what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a body-building tonic. They increase the power of the blood to carry new life and energy to every part of the system. If there is no organic trouble this is almost sure to result in benefit that the patient quickly notices in increased appetite, better digestion, sound, refreshing sleep and good health.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Send for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

Progress and Expansion

Based Upon Service, is the Story Of

SULLIVAN BROTHERS' PRINTERY

A Splendid Record of Achievement

Starting in the printing business Feb. 9, 1918, in a small room in the old B. & M. Station we founded our business upon two fundamental principles of successful endeavor—SERVICE and SATISFACTION. A customer for the first time has always been a permanent, satisfied customer, otherwise no expansion would have been possible, and we would not have found it necessary to enlarge our printing facilities five times within such a brief period.

Success and progress are not founded upon chance. If the first job from the standpoint of quality and price did not please we would have no permanent customers on our books today. When a firm or individual continues a business relation month after month with us, it is for no other reason than that SERVICE and SATISFACTION are assured.

DURKIN PRINTING CO. of Market St. Purchased by Sullivan Bros.

The purchase of the entire equipment and good will of the Durkin Printing Co. is the latest advance made by us and provides increased facilities for the handling of a rapidly growing business. Durkin's equipment has been recognized as up-to-date and of sufficient variety to meet the most exacting demands. The customers of the Durkin Printing Co. will find the same care and attention to detail afforded them at Sullivan Bros. Printery as they formerly enjoyed, and their patronage is respectfully solicited. With enlarged facilities, greater floor space, up-to-date equipment, we solicit the patronage of everyone in need of printing—reasonable prices—high-grade work—prompt service.

Including this recent acquisition we have seven job presses and a Miller automatic-fed job press, a large cylinder press, a Kelly press ordered and enroute. (The Kelly press is the greatest step forward in the printing world since Mergenthaler invented the linotype.) In our composing room we have a model 14 linotype and the best assortment of hand type in the city. We are, thereby, enabled to give you 24-HOUR SERVICE—just order your job and 24 hours later it will be delivered.

Women Appreciate It

YOU will be delighted with the wonderful lustre your curtains and all household fabrics have after being starched with Linit, the remarkable new starch discovery.

Linit penetrates the fabric, prolongs its life, and gives a soft, cool, pliable finish that makes even the most ordinary cotton goods look and feel like expensive linen.

THIS remarkable starch is made by an improved process that keeps it fluid after it cools.

After Linit is thoroughly dissolved, according to directions, and ready for use, you will notice it is THIN and FREE-RUNNING LIKE WATER—with a "milky" appearance. Be sure to use Linit according to directions, and unlike other starches, you will not find Linit stiff or jelly-like. This is one reason why Linit goes much further than the old-fashioned kind of starches and is easy to iron with.

Linit costs 10¢ at all grocers

Aged Man Dies While Playing Golf

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The death of A. R. Smith, secretary of Dover college, who passed away while playing golf, has revived the discussion of the age at which golfers should retire. Mr. Smith was 65 and was the 12th English golfer past middle life to die on the links this year. Some British physicians contend that 50 is the danger mark at which devotees of the game should put by their clubs. Those who hold this view say that the arteries have become rigid at this age and that club swinging is likely to be fatal.

Salem Man Discovers Relief for Stomach Trouble

Four Bottles of O'Brien's Thwarted Case of Years' Standing

George E. Morrison, 11 Pope st., Salem, Mass., contributed the following letter—another one from among the thousands who have been benefited by that time-tested stomach remedy, O'Brien's for Dyspepsia.

"I give me great pleasure to write these few lines. I have suffered for a great many years with stomach trouble and have tried many doctors in this section; also one specialist without results.

"I was advised to try O'Brien's by a friend, and the first bottle helped me so much that I took three bottles more, and am now completely recovered.

"I hope this may reach everyone who is suffering from Stomach Trouble."

Whatever stomach ailment you are troubled with—Dyspepsia, Indigestion, Colic, Heartburn, Gas-trouble, Ulcerated Stomach, Flatulence, Nausea, or whatnot—O'Brien's is sure to give relief. If it doesn't, and you have used it consistently after meals and before bed-time according to directions, you can get your money back from the druggist from whom you purchased.

We guarantee it, without question or quibbling, for O'Brien's for Dyspepsia is a time-tested preparation compounded after the prescription of a Massachusetts doctor since 1898.

Even though yours may only be a slight case, take it in time. Nip later sufferings in the bud. What helps a severe case will surely benefit you. O'Brien's deserves a place on every medicine shelf for use in sudden attacks.

Today is none too soon. Get your bottle of O'Brien's now.—Adv.

Working Hours Seem Shorter When You Feel Full of "Pep"

In the middle of the afternoon lots of people feel tired, "headachy" and can't work. Yet, it isn't the work they do so much as the run-down condition of their nerves, stomach and blood.

Build yourself up, and you'll do twice the work in half the time. Win back your strength, energy and "pep." Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has proved to countless numbers of people in this state that it increases the apper-ite, stimulates digestion, tones the blood pumping through the veins.

Take a delicious tablespoonful after meals and see what a difference it makes in the way you eat, sleep and work. It is sold with the understanding that your money will be returned if for any reason you are not completely satisfied. Get it in Green's drug store, Frye & Crawford Drug Co., A. W. Dows & Co., Noonan's drug store.—Adv.

COMMANDER TAKES ALL BLAME FOR DISASTER

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 25 (By the Associated Press).—A tale of the Honda disaster, told by the destroyer squadron commander, who two weeks ago saw seven of his ships impaled on rock near Point Arguello and 23 of his men go down to their death, took up yesterday's session of the naval court of inquiry, investigating the wreck.

Capt. Edward H. Watson, chief of the 11th squadron, was the commander who told the story, and in it he took upon himself full responsibility for the catastrophe. He asked that none of the blame be allowed to fall on his "able and loyal subordinates."

That the court was not entirely satisfied with Capt. Watson's testimony taking upon himself all of the responsibility, however, began to be evident late yesterday when Admiral Wm. V. Pratt, presiding member of the investigating body, asked him to state whether he had ever objected to his division commanders asking independently for radio compass bearings with which to check their squadron commander's navigation, or in whether he had ever objected to their taking soundings for the purpose of making sure that the squadron flagship was right in its dead reckoning. To these questions Capt. Watson answered that he had not ever objected to such independent soundings or requests for bearings and that he did not object to his division commanders checking his navigation for errors or reporting such errors to him if they discovered them.

In carrying out his announced desire to make clear that he accepted full responsibility for the fatal change of course that buried his ships on the rocks, Capt. Watson hesitated in his answers only when they appeared likely to implicate one of his subordinates.

He said that he himself had made the decision to turn east at 9 o'clock on the night of Sept. 5, five minutes before his squadron crashed.

He admitted that he steered his course by dead reckoning only, paying little regard to radio compass bearings which just prior to the wreck showed his ships were too far north to swing eastward into Santa Barbara channel.

But of the officers and men who faced death with him off Honda, he said he only had words of commendation and testimony concerning brave deeds that liquor was in any way responsible for the disaster.

This denial came in response to a question from his counsel, Capt. T. T. Craven, who explained that it "was customary in disasters such as this one, for certain critics to charge that the use of alcohol was responsible."

YORICK CLUB CLAMBAKE

The Yorick club will hold a clam-bake for members at the Martin Luther grounds on Thursday of this week. Gardner Macartney is chairman of a special committee on arrangements and it is expected the bake will be one of the most enjoyable social gatherings of the club year.

British balloon Margaret is reported to have fallen into the sea off Denmark; race for Gordon Bennett cup develops into international disaster.

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM TRUSTEES MEET

At a meeting of the trustees of the Memorial Auditorium last night Albert Stelner of Stelner & Sons Co. was granted the use of the Auditorium on Wednesday evening, Oct. 31, for the presentation of the Sistine chapel choir of Rome, the most famous ecclesiastical singing organization in the world. The choir recently has arrived in this country for a concert tour and Lowell is fortunate indeed to be given an opportunity to hear it.

The trustees held a brief conference with members of the citizens' committee appointed to co-operate with them in the matter of proper tablets and memorials for Trophy hall and there was some discussion over the amount of work of this nature the trustees will be able to afford right away. Flags will be purchased as rapidly as possible and the matter of tablets to contain the names of heroes who died in battle will be decided upon shortly when the entire committee has a meeting.

Four consecutive Sunday evenings will see popular priced concerts by a band, instrumental and vocal soloists from Boston. These will be Oct. 25, Nov. 4, 11, 18. They will be under the auspices of John J. Quigley of Boston and will fill a long-felt want in Lowell for a Sunday evening concert of first grade, without the element of cheapness that many times characterizes these entertainments. The prices will range from 25 cents to $1.

The Y. M. C. I. was granted the date of Feb. 2 for a concert and dance and the Organized Reserves have engaged Liberty hall for a meeting on Oct. 4.

NO GROUND FOR ALARM

There seems to be a feeling in the public mind that something very unusual in the line of curtailment or business depression is about to happen. Some people are always in this state of mind and occasionally the disease spreads until it affects a large proportion of the community.

At the present time there is no justification for any such assumption. There is nothing in the economic situation to support it. The price of steel has been quite as firm for the past few weeks as at any time during the past year, and this is taken as an indication of a stabilizing of prices in other commodities.

The textile industry has perhaps as many difficulties to contend with as any other, with the exception of the shoe business and yet, nearly all the factories are working at normal capacity. The fall business is just beginning to get well under way, and there is no real indication of an interruption and no cause for taking a pessimistic view of the situation.

It is true, that many disconcerting problems are awaiting settlement, such for example as the railroad question, the matter of getting our merchant marine in operation, and the problem of what shall be done to bring prosperity to the farmer. None of these questions are of such serious moment as to justify any feeling of alarm. There are always problems of this kind awaiting settlement and they will all receive attention in due time.

In the meantime business will proceed normally as usual, provided the people do not give way to a feeling of pessimism that will cause them to shrink before imaginary evils and thus produce the very results that they wish most of all to avoid.

Business has nothing to fear under the direction of men of courage and resourcefulness. The Federal Reserve system stands as a safeguard against financial stringency and depression; and while it is well always to spend money wisely, there is nothing to justify a policy of hoarding under which the people refuse to spend their money freely for the things they need. The vast banks deposits of the country and the heavy payrolls passed out weekly to millions of employees, afford ample assurance of the stability of business not only in the near future, but in the years to come.

A CABINET TIP TO FARMERS

The disastrous condition of the wheat farmers has at last attracted the attention of the republican administration cabinet. As usual with republican cabinets no conclusion was reached.

The report of the cabinet meeting however, is interesting as an illustration of how the "best minds" of the administration discussed the matter at issue. The outstanding feature of the discussion seems to have been that the farmers should raise less wheat, and produce other crops for which there is a big demand. Just what those crops are is not stated. Presumably, in view of the popularity of the reigning topical song, one of them would be bananas. Other crops that would obviously suggest themselves in the wheat belt are oranges, pineapples, lemons, guavas, grapefruit and alligator pears.

The cabinet decided that the cotton industry was O. K., except where the boll weevil had administered a K. O., so that perhaps some of the agriculturists of the wheat belt might plant a part of their acreage in Sea Island long staple cotton.

The cabinet seemed to be of the opinion that the livestock industry was looking up because weavers in a few protected industries were eating more meat, but even this rose had a thorn, for they figured out the more meat that was eaten the less cereal would be consumed, so that the discussion went back to where it started, that the solution of the wheat-growers' problem was to raise less wheat.

This idea is not altogether new. It originated, we believe, with Mr. Law Dockmaster of Dockmaster's Ministrels, who, in making public the rules to govern a new hotel he was about to start, included the following:

"To prevent guests from taking fruit from the table, there will be no fruit."

It does not seem to have occurred to the great minds of the cabinet that if the extortionate prices of the things the farmers have to buy were lowered by reducing the tariff rates, thereby increasing the purchasing power of the agricultural products, that the condition of the agriculturists generally, including the wheat farmer, would be greatly improved, for in the last analysis the farmer is more interested in the purchasing power of his products than he is in the current prices.

N. Y. PRESSMEN'S STRIKE

It was really pitiful to see the apology for a newspaper issued the past week by the combined New York morning papers, eight in all, condensed, as it were, into eight pages. That represented the combined efforts of the eight New York papers, the titles of which were arranged in order at the top of the front page as follows: New York American, New York Herald, New York Tribune, The World, Daily News, New York Times, Staats Zeitung and Il Progresso Italia-Americano. All this was the result of the pressmen's strike, which, partially out of necessity for nearly a week and caused incalculable loss not only to the papers but also to the merchants and general business interests of the city which depend to a very great extent upon advertising to maintain the normal volume of business. What the merits of the demands made by the pressmen were, we know not; but it is significant that the strike was declared illegal by the International union on the ground that sufficient notice was not given and that it violated the tripartite agreement to arbitrate when the

"Hello, hello!" said the excited voice. "Can you fix me up with a box for tonight? I know it's short notice, but I have just got to have one."

"What size?"

"There's six of us."

"You'll have to get individual boxes. What happened, a race riot?"

"Say, is this the Lowell Opera House?"

"No, this is George Realey, the undertaker."

A Thought

"Passing away" is written on the world, and all the world contains—Mrs. Hemans.

On Second Thought

They had had a slight difference of opinion, but he acknowledged his error quite generously by saying: "You are right and I am wrong, as you generally are. Goody, dear, and he hurried off to catch his train. "So nice of him to put it like that," she said to herself. And then—well, then she began to think about it.

Told Her Secret

The newly married pair were seated in easy armchairs in front of the fire. "Dearie," said the young bride, "have you any secrets to hide from your wife?" "None, my pet," replied hubby, proudly. "Then I, too, will have no secrets from you," said she in heroic tones. "What, have you a secret?" he asked in a startled voice. "Only one," she said firmly and slowly. "And I am going to tell it to you." "Go on," he muttered hoarsely. "For some weeks I have had a secret longing for a fur coat for a birthday present." She got it.

The Whole Truth

"Do I understand you to say," angrily questioned the judge, "that when you heard a noise you quickly got out of bed, turned on the light and went to the head of the stairs—that a burglar was at the foot of the stairs and you did not see him? Are you blind?" "Judge, must I tell the exact truth?" asked the witness as he mopped his perspiring face and blushed furiously. "Yes, sir, the whole truth and nothing but the truth," he replied. "Well," slowly replied the judge, "my wife was in front of me."

Had an Interpreter

A man wandered into a New York magistrate's court on a day when a local battle was due between some Turks and some Arabians. The dinky room was filled with partisans jabbering in various dialects while awaiting the arrival of the judge. In vain the stranger tried to get some information. In despair he finally exclaimed: "Does no one in this court speak English?" "We have an interpreter," said an attendant civilly. "If you wish to converse in that language."

Two of a Kind

A certain celebrated doctor hated to pay his bills and get out of doing so whenever he could. One day the doctor employed a workman to mend some pavement just outside his house. Afterwards he exclaimed: "Why, you rascal! Do you expect to be paid for such a piece of work? Why, you have spoiled my pavement and then covered it over with earth to hide the bad work!" The workman winked knowingly. "Doctor," he retorted slyly, "mine is not the only bad work the earth hides."

Dressed for the Occasion

Hadly had spent about an hour in dressing that evening. This was unusual for him. He was not known to have any aspirations to shine as a Beau Brummel. Accordingly his sister was somewhat curious to know what all the dolling up process was about. Certainly she was not prepared for the appearance he presented when he came down the stairs. "Why, brother, what does this mean?" she asked with a dress suit. "I think I'm about right," replied the respondent breezily. "I am going to a society prize fight."

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

The ever-present dangers of traffic congestion in business sections were manifested the other day. It was about mid-afternoon. The first alarm had just rung. The street sprinkling car was stopped near John street where it was red-lighting. An outward bound Pawtucketville car was stopped on the neighboring track and a crowd of motorists were lined up behind both cars. The fire chief came along in his car at a rapid rate apparently not expecting a blockade. It was not until he had reached the spot that he was able to stop and the quick application of his brakes forced his car to skid to the right and then to the left on the wet pavement. He succeeded in stopping but only after much risk both to himself and others. "Make way for the fire apparatus" should be the slogan whenever a fire alarm rings and for this purpose drivers should know in what direction the department is called so as to get out of the way if necessary and not otherwise.

For example, if you go to bed at 11 o'clock, set your clock at 10 and you'll arise on schedule time next Sunday, or if you should go to bed at 1 o'clock the next morning just stop your clock for an hour or turn it backward for the length of time with this admonition:

The following extract is taken from a letter sent by the officer in charge of the New York Naval Training Station to Lt. Commander Gulliver, chief of naval recruiting in the Boston district: "Gulliver (Paul 'Red') is a fine football player and is showing up well at practice. We will no doubt get a better line on him when the playing season starts." Lt. Commander Gulliver is the chapman to the local naval recruiting officer, C. W. T. R. Frederic with the following P. S.: "Here is some good dope we got from the training station on your man Gulliver. That's encouragement." "Red" is a brother of "Hank" Gulliver, pitcher in the eighth league, well-known locally in athletics himself.

Local football enthusiasts who braved the drizzle of last Sunday afternoon to watch the Ponies and Cadets perform at Alumni field, saw a veteran pitcher stand on the sidelines in the person of "Bill" Crossland, former high school track and football player, now acting in the capacity of coach of the local high school and later went to a nearby prep school in his high school days. He distinguished himself as a classy performer on the gridiron and was one of the school's best bats in the high jump at its track meets. "Bill" is now in the automobile business.

Since the streets in the downtown section have acquired their distinctive white marks, motorists are becoming more respectful of pedestrians. Persons standing in the space designated by the white lines may well feel that they are in a safety zone. Fortunately one might stand on the sidewalk for a number of minutes and then run a small chance of getting across to the other side. Now, if one walks across, keeping to the marked spaces, he is sure to get to the other side without much ado. Those white lines are a source of safety if observed by motorists and pedestrians alike.

CHARGES FRAUD IN ALIEN PATENTS SALE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The sale of enemy-owned patents to the Chemical Foundation, Inc., by the alien property custodian was accomplished through a "combination, scheme and conspiracy," the government charges in a brief filed yesterday in the federal district court at Wilmington, Del. in its suit to set aside the sale.

Former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, Francis P. Garvin, former alien property custodian and now president of the Foundation, and others are assailed in the brief which is signed by Attorney General Daugherty, Henry W. Anderson of Richmond, Va., special assistant to the attorney general, and other government counsel.

The evidence adduced at the trial of the case before Judge Morris at Wilmington some months ago is reviewed and authorities quoted at length to support the major contentions of the government which are: "That President Wilson could not delegate to Assistant Secretary of State Polk his authority to order a private sale of seized enemy property." "That President Wilson's order of Feb. 13, 1920, did not attempt to ratify the orders of Mr. Polk authorizing private sale of the property." "That the sales were invalid because of the combination of substantially all of the prospective purchasers into one organization."

LOWELL MEN AT DISTRICT CONVENTION

Harold Scott, Neil Douglas, Archie Grant, Joseph Hollingsworth and Norman F. Farnum, social secretary of the Y.M.C.A., attended a district convention of the Y's Men's clubs of Massachusetts and Rhode Island at the City Club of Boston last evening.

Paul Alexander, president of the International Y's Men's club of the United States and Canada was the principal speaker. Outlining the aims and aims of the organization, he set on foot a movement to start a number of clubs in New England.

The charter club of Toledo now has a membership of over 100 young men representing various walks of life. Similar to the Lions and Rotary clubs, membership in the Y's Men's club is restricted to two members from each trade or profession. These men are primarily younger business men, who some day may be eligible for membership in the Rotary club. The club meets for luncheon regularly and in addition to listening to addresses, organizes itself for service in the assistance of Red Cross, Y.M.C.A., Salvation Army, etc., drives and promotes various activities for boys and younger men.

The men who attended the conference last night returned to Lowell enthusiastic for the formation of the local organization. Steps were taken to secure 15 men so that a charter might be secured.

DRUGGISTS GATHER FOR CONVENTION

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Thousands of druggists from all over the country gathered here yesterday for the opening sessions of the convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists, which has a membership of more than 25,000. The sessions are being held in Mechanics building, where there is a big exhibit of goods sold in drug stores.

There is a complete drug store at one end of the big hall, fitted out with everything that greets the eye of a customer when he enters the modern pharmacy. The convention will continue through five days.

Gov. Cox and Mayor Curley extended the welcome of the state and city to the delegates. Prof. Herman C. Lithgoe of the State Health Commission and E. Mark Sullivan, corporation counsel, represented the governor and mayor. They addressed the gathering in Paul Revere hall in the evening.

Berton Bralley's Daily Poem DESIRES

A little chance, maybe,
To find in Love a little glow,
In Youth a little glee;
A little time for frivolous
Before the years are shriveling
A spirit glad and free.

Man gets but little here below,
Nor keeps that little long;
A little hour perhaps to know
A little mirth and song,
A little strength for laboring,
A little time for neighboring
With friends among the throng.

And little does he get,
Save, now and then, a little show
To earn, by work and sweat,
A little cash for squandering
On pleasuring or wandering
To ease the heart of fret.

Man, hoping little here below,
Wins even less, it's true,
Most of his little visions go,
Quite swiftly up the flue!
Life has a heap of stings to it,
Yet, golly, how man clings to it
Until his time is through!

DOG'S WEAPON IN HIS JAW
The power of a dog's jaw is of the greatest consideration when that dog is used for running down and killing some other animal that fights with its teeth. A dog has little or no chance against one of the larger felines or the bigger bears. There is more power in the smile of a lion, leopard, tiger or bear than there is in the danger of his teeth; that is to say, the lion and the bear use their mighty forelegs and cruel claws as their first line of offense and defense. Thus is the reason the dog bays the sharp-clawed animal, and worries or uses his teeth on such animals as foxes, coyotes, wolves, jackals, etc. The bite of a fox, coyote and jackal has little terror for single coursing dogs such as greyhounds, deer-hounds, Russian hounds, Afghan hounds and the greyhounds of Persia, Arabia and Syria. But all of these dogs are very careful when they run up to a full-grown European or American timber wolf. The strength of the wolf's jaw is such that it will break a domesticated dog's leg, while the power of the jaw of the hyena is said to be capable of cracking the leg bone of a horse. Bearing in mind the fighting powers and methods of certain animals—generally of the predatory kind, and a menace to the flocks and herds, man—even primitive man—set about breeding dogs that would be of service to him, not only as hunters, but as companions and watch dogs. —Field and Stream.

18 REFUGEES BANNED

Without Country After Suffering Untold Hardships and Horrors in Russia

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—After suffering untold hardships and horrors as the result of the Russian revolution, during which they remained loyal to the monarchy; after fleeing Vladivostok when the "Red" army invaders assumed control; after drifting thousands of miles from country to country, trying to find a landing place, being battered by the elements, starved and facing plague and disaster at every turn 15 men and three women are being held at Ft. McDowell here for deportation, making them literally men and women without a country.

These men and women are part of the 528 Russian refugees party that landed here from Manila last July on the transport Merritt, and the 528 were the remnants of more than 8,000 men, women and children who remained loyal to the late Czar Nicholas of Russia and joined the anti-Soviet government faction. They remained at Vladivostok until the Japanese evacuated the Far Eastern republic, and the "Red" forces assumed control. In order to save their lives, the 8,000 monarchists fled in 15 ships, under command of Admiral George Stark, and started in search of new lands.

The 18 awaiting deportation here have been barred from Japan, China, and the United States, and, they state, their loyalty to the late Czar makes it impossible for them to return to Russia.

"We are not allowed to land in any country, and if we are sent back to Russia we will be shot," is their constant statement to the U. S. Immigration authorities here.

Among the 18 Russians ordered deported is Mrs. Luba Shulgovskiy, who with her husband, Alexander, her daughter, Vera, and son, Nicholas, sought a haven of rest under the Stars and Stripes. Husband, son and daughter have been admitted to the United States, but the mother has been ordered deported by the immigration officer "because of her radical views." However, a grief-stricken husband, son and daughter vehemently protest that Mrs. Shulgovskiy is not radical, and they picture her as a mild, loving helpmate and mother. An appeal taken on the deportation order by Mrs. Shulgovskiy, and the other 17 refugees, has been denied by the department of labor, and the mother today awaits the

Two of the others in the group are being sent back because of their criminal records, one because he is mentally deficient, and the others because of their radical views, the records show.

However, the actual sailing date of the unwelcome refugees is problematical, army officials say. The law, according to the immigration officers, requires that a deported alien "must be deported on the first available steamer." The U. S. Army brought the refugees from Manila, and therefore, must take them back. The next available transport is due to sail December 6. Under the law, the army must return these people to Manila, where its jurisdiction will cease. What will happen to them after they arrive in Manila is up to the Bureau of Insular Affairs, government officials here say.

Of the 403 Russian refugees admitted to this country, many of whom were army and naval officers, society leaders and members of the royal court in the days of monarchy pomp, many are working in the most menial positions in this country. Former doctors, lawyers, and at least one count, are employed as laborers in a railroad repair gang in Washington. Another count is operating a taxi, and practically all of the women are employed as house workers.

They brought to this country the eyewitness stories of the fall of the Russian dynasty. They told of the horrors of the Russian revolution and stated that the revolutionists cut off the heads of the czar and the members of the royal family, and burned the bodies. These heads, they assert, are being preserved in alcohol in the Kremlin at Moscow.

The same fate awaits them if they are returned to Russia, they assert.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES MEET

The Christian Endeavor societies of Lowell and vicinity met at the First Congregational church last evening in the first union rally of the season. The rally was under the direction of the Lowell Northfield club and the evening program consisted for the most part of reports from various delegates who attended the Northfield conference during August.

Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock in the vestry of the church under the supervision of Miss Frances McLeod and Miss Lillian Killpatrick, who were assisted by Mrs. Rome Wood, Mrs. Fred Milne, Mrs. Charles R. Brigham and Mrs. Albert Livermore.

Following the supper the new members of the Lowell C.E. union were introduced to the delegates as was Rev. John T. Ulom, who has recently taken over the pastorate of the Lawrence Street Primitive Methodist church. Merton C. Flemings, president of the union, made the introductions.

At the conclusion of the introduction a number of conferences were held and interesting talks given. A new course in music was inaugurated under the direction of Edwin Wells. Other courses of instruction were started by Mrs. George Sturtevant, Miss Dorothy Morris and Mrs. Marion Rawlinson.

The rally was opened in the church at 8 o'clock by the president, Edwin Wells, who after brief remarks introduced Miss Lillian Killpatrick, president of the C.E.S. of the First Congregational church, who welcomed the visiting delegates. Leonard Wilcox responded to the welcome.

The musical part of the rally was turned over to Edwin Wells, and after a number of Northfield songs and hymns were sung Rev. George Sturtevant, at the request of the president, Mr. Flemings, unfolded and dedicated stars to three of the members of the Northfield club who had openly professed God during the conferences at Northfield.

The prayer service was in charge of Miss Elsie Perrin, secretary of the union, assisted by Miss Hazel Tutbill, soloist.

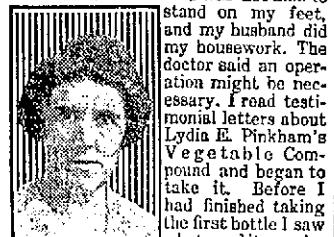

"Echoes from Northfield" were then given by members who attended the conferences. The delegates were introduced by Nathaniel Trull, president of the Northfield club, and brief and interesting talks on the work of the conferences followed.

The rally was ended with benediction.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Says Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Made Her Well and Strong

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonials about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BURCHILL, Glens Falls, N. Y.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Allments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free, upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information that every woman should have.

SALVATION ARMY TO HOLD BUNDLE DAY

Thursday, Sept. 27, will be set aside for Bundle day to be conducted by the Salvation Army branch in this city, for the purpose of collecting clothing and other necessary articles for the suffering Japanese. That country is visited by cold weather early in December and it is the plan of the local branch to have warm garments sent over to the people as soon as possible. As it is obvious that only certain articles of clothing would be of use in Japan, a list of suitable and necessary articles are as follows: Blankets, underwear for men, women and children, suits for men, shoes and stockings of all sizes and socks, cloth, wraps, cloaks, needles and thread, tape, braid, buttons, pins, face towels and sheeting, soap and all kinds of children's clothes. Bundles containing any or all of these different articles should be sent postpaid or by prepaid express to Adjt. Charles Abbott, Salvation Army, 105 Appleton street, Lowell, Mass. All bundles will be sent by Commander Abbott to the army's district headquarters in Boston from which place they will be sent direct to Japan. The President Jefferson, the first steamship to arrive in Tokyo after the disaster, contained a cargo of articles which was given to the Salvation Army to distribute to the sufferers. Miss C. H. Kendall of Maine, who was

In Tokyo in 1921, sent a check to the Salvation Army relief worker in Japan to aid the stricken people, commending the efficiency and power of the army in Tokyo.

SEWING MACHINE FOR MEXICO
CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mex., Sept. 25.—A carload of sewing machines has arrived here from El Paso, Texas, consigned to Mennonites at Bustillos. Other machines are to be sent to the Mennonites at Santa Clara. The Mennonites, it is said, have found a need for sewing machines, and intend to make their own clothing in order to avoid paying high prices in Mexican stores. This plan, it is said, will also save the import duty on finished materials imported from other countries.

We'll keep our pledge

Buy now!

This is my last week on this old range. I'm going to try a "State."

WHY are so many women buying Crawford this week? Because we have agreed to sell them on special terms during "14 Crawford Days"—on terms which make it sheer negligence not to own a Crawford.

Today is a third Crawford Day! Come and pick out the Crawford you have needed so long. Buy it on terms which you couldn't hope to get a week ago and you won't be able to get after October 6.

Ask to see the State Crawford with its white porcelain splasher. It's the newest Crawford model. The oven is controlled by a single damper. You honestly wouldn't believe that a range could be so good looking!

N. Y. GIANTS' LEAD REDUCED TO THREE GAMES IN NAT. LEAGUE RACE

CINCINNATI REDS KEEP IN FIGHT FOR PENNANT BY BEATING GIANTS

Rivals Meet Again Today at Cincinnati
—Yanks Trim Tigers 12 to 4—Heilmann and Ruth Each Get Two Hits in Three Times at Bat—Red Sox Drop Double-Header—Rueher Needs One More Victory to Collect Bonus

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Giants lost to Cincinnati yesterday, 5 to 3, and dropped to a lead of only three games in the National League race for the pennant. They are now three up, with seven to go, although one of these games, with St. Louis, will not be played unless so ordered by the president of the league.

The Yankees ripped off a series of nine runs in one long string, defeating the Tigers, 12 to 4. Harry Heilmann and Babe Ruth, who are struggling for the batting average lead, came out even in the day's play, each setting two hits in three times at bat.

The Browns won two games from the Red Sox in Boston, 5 to 1 and 4 to 2, while the Cardinals were losing twice to the Robins in St. Louis, 8 to 2 and 7 to 3. Dutch Rueher pitched his 13th victory in the second game against the Cardinals and needs but two more to collect a $1000 bonus.

The Pirates broke even with the Phillies in Pittsburgh, losing the first game 4 to 2 and winning the second 4 to 3. In the second game there was one out when the winning run was scored in the last frame.

The Cubs trounced the Braves in Chicago in a tight game, 8 to 7. The runs were almost evenly matched. In the fourth inning, each team took three; in the fifth the Cubs took three and the Braves two, and in the sixth they each took two.

Booker and Hartnett each circled. In Washington the White Sox defeated the Senators, 1 to 0.

BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT

Second Day's Play in Professional Championship Tourney at Pelham, N. Y.

PELHAM, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The second day's play in the professional golfers' association, championship tournament starts today, with all the favorites still in the field. None of the headliners had the slightest difficulty yesterday in disposing of their opponents.

Gene Sarazen, Briarcliffe, N. Y., dropped his open title to Bobby Jones at Inwood, defeated Lloyd Gulickson, Columbus, Ohio, 8 up and 7 to go. Jim Barnes, the home pro, swamped George Bernbach, East Providence, R. I., 12 and 11. Bobby Cruikshank, Westfield, N. J., defeated Willie Joseph, Oorotuck, Pa., 2 and 1. Walter Hagen, New York, collected a 4 and 3 victory from George Griffin, Clearfield, Pa.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR FOOTBALL TEAM

Over 40 candidates, the largest number in the history of the school, are working out under Coach Ball on the Textile campus for position on the football team. With the first game of the season, that with Tufts at Medford next Saturday, starting the men in the field, the coach put the candidates through a stiff scrimmage yesterday. The squad was divided into four eleven and real signal drills, punting, tackling and scrimmaging featuring the practice session.

The squad will probably remain intact until after the Tufts game at least. All the candidates seem to be trying hard to gain a place on the outfit over produced at Textile. Strenuous workouts will be in order for the remainder of the week.

THEY'LL LEAD COLUMBIA

PENNANT NO. 4'S IN SIGHT FOR THEM

VILLA SCORES EASY WIN OVER THOMAS

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Before one of the largest gatherings of fans that ever saw a boxing bout in Mechanic's building, Pancho Villa, the world's flyweight champion, defeated Tony Thomas of New Bedford in the feature contest of 10 rounds at the Armory A. A. show last night.

The cunning little brown-skinned champion was ever master of his less-experienced opponent. Not one round could he be credited to the New Bedford entry. Only a few times, however, did Villa show the ability to hit from every angle, which has made him popular with followers of the game. He was not given much of a chance. Villa devoted a great deal of his time to fighting his way out and off the ropes, into which his heavier opponent pushed him.

In the fourth, eighth and last rounds the little Filipino showed the large crowd just why he sports the flyweight crown. In those three stanzas he cut with both hands. On several occasions Villa claimed he was hit low. Twice he complained to the referee in the seventh round in the eighth and ninth time in the last round, but every time he continued gamely.

Before the main fight started Thomas was presented a handsome cup by the friends from New Bedford, who numbered close to 1000.

After the brief presentation speech the weights of the handliners were announced. Thomas weighed 112 pounds for Villa.

From the start Thomas appeared to be quite nervous and wary of his lighter opponent. In the first round he was hit by the cause of his late fight.

In the first round Villa played a watching game, waiting for a chance to lead, and out of a blow were struck by either fighter.

Much of the same condition prevailed in the second and third rounds.

In the fourth, however, Villa let loose, hitting Thomas around the ring with rights and lefts to make the going uncomfortable for Thomas.

The seventh was the next frame to bring out real action.

In this round Thomas flashed a mita, it being one of the few times he showed the willingness to fight, and it was while they were in-fighting that Villa clinched and held on.

It did not stop the Filipino, for, stunned by the apparent blow, he lay on after Thomas to win the round by a good margin.

In the eighth round, the remaining rounds were only repetitions of the seven preceding frames, with Villa always having the margin.

TRIPLE PLAY WINS FAME OVER THOMAS

Umpire Billy Evans Describes Unusual Feat of George Burns of Red Sox

BY BILLY EVANS

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—To Geo. Burns of the Boston Red Sox goes the credit of pulling off one of the most unusual feats in baseball, an unassisted triple play. It was my good fortune to be the umpire in the game, rendering the decisions that made the play legal.

Burns, in making the unassisted triple play against Cleveland, showed that he possesses a keen baseball instinct. To my way of thinking, the triple play as executed by Burns stands out as one of the most unusual of plays, since he was required to dash to second to complete the triple killing.

After an exceptionally busy season Burns laid off this summer and only a few weeks ago resumed active training. He looks forward to the banner year of his career and hopes to get away to a flying start on next Thursday night.

Adams, who will oppose Murphy next Thursday, comes out of the west with a fine reputation. He has had but one bout in the east, meeting and defeating Frankie Ryan in Boston several days ago. Those who saw the bout declare the Chicago lad looks like a good prospect.

Eddie Black, manager of Abe Friedman and a host of others sees possibilities in Adams and has already made him a member of his stable.

MURPHY HOPES TO START DRIVE FOR TITLE

Billy Murphy, Lowell's classy featherweight title contender, will fire the opening gun of his 1923 campaign on Thursday night when he makes his first appearance of the season against Steve Adams of Chicago in the main event of the Mooly club card at the Crescent rink.

Murphy created a sensation in pugilistic ranks last season when he won decisions over such notable performers as Al Shubert, Young Manly, Newport Johnny Brown, etc. His work against these classy battlers caused his manager, Allen MacLean of Boston, to announce that the Lowell boy looked like one of the best prospects for the championship in the country.

After an exceptionally busy season Burns laid off this summer and only a few weeks ago resumed active training. He looks forward to the banner year of his career and hopes to get away to a flying start on next Thursday night.

MAH-JONGG NOT GAME OF CHANCE

MAXILLA, Sept. 25.—Mah-Jongg, the great Chinese game of dominoes, is not a game of chance. A competent court of the land has ruled thus, and it is so ordered.

The above decision was rendered in a case against Ted Tang, Lee Loy, So Chee and Kuoong Chong, all Chinese, arrested on the charge of gambling. The case came before Judge Manuel V. Moran, who based his decision on the case of the United States v. Lousin. In his decision, however, Judge Moran regrets the fact that local authorities have not approved any means of regulating the game, as he believes that Mah-Jongg is a game in which fortunes may be won and lost.

Judge Moran makes a lengthy analysis of the game in which he states that the element of luck plays an important part in the winning of the game, but that it is not a game of chance. He concludes that the element of luck is limited, and as the game advances this element is more and more reduced by the proficiency of the player.

His conclusion that in Mah-Jongg fortune may be won or lost is based on a story in which it is related that four wealthy Chinese once played the game, wagering a grain of rice for the win. The player who played East Wind, the story runs, put over a master stroke by virtue of which his three opponents and their descendants were reduced to poverty and to cultivate 1,000 hectares (2,500 acres) of land planted to rice in order to pay what East Wind had won.

ZEV MAY MEET PAPYRUS FOR HORSE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE WORLD

PAPYRUS, WINNER OF THE DERBY, GETS NEW SHOES JUST BEFORE SAILING IN REGAL STATE ON THE AQUATANIA TO MEET AN AMERICAN THREE-EIGHT-OLD AT BELMONT PARK, N. Y., FOR THE HORSE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE WORLD

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The selection of the American three-year-old to race Papyrus, English Derby winner, in the $100,000 international contest at Belmont park, Oct. 20, may not be made before the end of the week.

Under the terms of agreement with Ben Irish, owner of the English thoroughbred, the Jockey club, under whose auspices the race will be held, has until two weeks before the contest to pick the American representative. The Jockey club also has the privilege of naming an alternate.

Zev, Kentucky Derby victor and star of the Harbinger stable and My Own, of Adairville, Ky., are among the standouts as the two leading candidates with the odds favoring the selection of Zev, which has had a more impressive record for the season.

GROUSE SHOOTING IS AGAIN POPULAR

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Grouse shooting has resumed a prominence as a social function that it held before the war. During the conflict the men who could shoot were far too busy at much grimmer business, for the most part, to find time for shooting birds. But this year shooting is more popular than ever before.

On the opening day of the season the rush for the Scotch moors was so great that 30 trains, fully laden, left London for the land of the heather. And it was not a cheap crowd that filled them. Grouse shooting is the most expensive sport to be had in the United Kingdom. Unless a man he fairly well endowed with this world's goods, he cannot hope to do much shooting on the moors.

A popular host who rents one of the best stocked grouse moors in Scotland, and likes his guests to have a good time regardless of expense, estimates that every grouse brought down by his party costs him five dollars. It would be far cheaper to buy the birds in the open market.

Grouse shooting has gone up since the war. It costs at least double what it did in those far off days. And yet there are some Englishmen who maintain that it is not true sport at all, any more than was pigeon shooting. But today no man who values his reputation as a sportsman would engage in pigeon shooting.

It is predicted that the day soon will come when grouse shooting will be regarded as unimportant. And for much the same reason as applied to pigeon shooting. It does not give the bird a fair chance. It makes the killing of the bird easy. In grouse shooting the object is to secure as big a "bag" as possible, and the grouse can hardly be said to have a sporting chance for their lives. The shooter is concealed behind a "butt" with a game-keeper to load his gun for him. A small army of beaters is engaged to drive the birds into the nets. The shooters get no notice that the birds are coming. They have not a chance to dodge him. He sees them before they see him, and they fall an easy victim to his gun.

EDDIE PHILLIPS SIGNS WITH BOSTON BRAVES

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Boston National League scouts, combing the country for available talent, have found that Eddie Phillips, a college star, has been a likely recruit, have added another collegian to the Braves and they have corralled him right here in Boston. Phillips is a college star, a baseball backstop, and one of the greatest ball players turned out by the Eagle team in years.

It took an inducement of considerable size to persuade Phillips to abandon his intention of taking a B. C. degree, but the Braves are evidently determined to strengthen and spend considerable money in so doing. Last winter the Boston management outbid several other clubs to secure Jack Condon, Harvard star, and in persuading Eddie Phillips to enter the major league base, ball Judge Fitch and Christy Mathewson were instrumental.

During the last summer Phillips caught for the Pittsburgh team of the Twilight league and was easily the best backstop in that organization. His brother is captain of the B. C. nine.

Phillips signed a contract with the Braves yesterday. He will not report this fall but will go south with the club next spring.

RALPH WILLARD WITH HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Ralph Willard, star backfield man and punter extraordinary, was out in uniform with the high school football squad at Alumni field yesterday afternoon for the first time this season. For a time Willard's return to school was a matter of conjecture, but he showed up last week and expressed his intention of going out for football. With this announcement, Lowell high's gridiron strength advanced considerably, as the team was lacking a good punter and Willard will fill the bill to perfection.

A. O. H. CARNIVAL COMMITTEE MEETS

A meeting of the carnival committee of the A.O.H. was held in A.O.H. hall last night with a large attendance. Arrangements are rapidly progressing for the carnival which is to be held in the Casino all next week. Special programs of entertainment will be provided each evening and on Saturday afternoon, the best talent in the city having been secured for this feature. Several members of local filibuster organizations visited the hall in the Greenview building yesterday, viewed the grounds, and were to be awarded at the carnival. There will be a meeting of all the societies interested in the affair Thursday night.

TRY A SUN CLASSIFIED AD

Kinks-o the Links

Has a player the right at any time during the playing of a hole to ascertain the number of strokes his opponent has played? Is there any penalty if an opponent gives the wrong information as to the number of strokes he has played?

A player is entitled at any time during the playing of a hole to ask his opponent how many strokes he has played. Very often such knowledge has a considerable influence on the play. If a player gives wrong information as to the number of strokes he has played he shall lose the hole unless he corrects the mistake before his opponent has played another stroke.

Is there any difference with the order of play on the putting green than through the fairway? If a player viewed his ball on the green how can the mistake be rectified?

When both balls are on the putting green, the same custom that prevails in the rest of the game is followed, the one farther from the hole is played first. If a player nearer the hole moves out and plays first, his opponent has the right to recall the stroke, make him replace the ball and wait until his proper turn.

MIXED BOWLING TOURNAMENT OPENS

The first games of the mixed bowling tournament, a new feature, was called in the Crescent alleys on Oct. 1 with the following teams opposing each other. The women members of the various teams hit the pins for good scores. Other stores in the city could follow the example of the Chalfoux clerks and organize teams consisting of men and women. STEVE ADAMS, Chicago, vs. BILLY MURPHY, Lowell
 Three Other Bouts
 Crescent Rink, Thursday Night

COMMITTED SUICIDE BY SHOOTING

Robert B. Houghton, 37, a resident of Billerica Centre, committed suicide by shooting yesterday morning at the home of Arthur Angell, where he occupied an apartment with his wife and two children. Dependency over ill health is believed to have been a contributory cause, although recently he seemed much improved in mind and body and was making preparations for a trip to Boston where he had accepted position as a teacher in the public schools.

Houghton had been a resident of Billerica for 11 years. Previous to the World war he was principal of the "old" grammar school for three years and later was connected with the Boston public school system. During the war he served overseas with the headquarters company of the 26th division. Illness forced him to give up teaching last fall and this summer he worked on a Billerica farm in an effort to regain his health.

Houghton was to have resumed his teaching duties in Boston yesterday and was early in preparation for the trip. It was at 8:30 o'clock that members of his family heard the report of a shot and found he had killed himself. Medical Examiner M. L. Ailing was called and ordered the body taken to Lowell to the rooms of Undertaker W. Lebert Blake.

He leaves his wife, Helen M. Houghton; one son, Robert Jr., one daughter, May C. Houghton; his mother, Mrs. Emma B. Houghton of North Andover; three sisters, Mrs. John W. McCormick

FORD RUNS 57 MILES ON GALLON OF GASOLINE

A new automatic and self-regulating device has been invented by John A. Stransky, fourth street, Pukwana, So. Dakota, with which automobiles have made from 40 to 57 miles on a gallon of gasoline. It removes all carbon and prevents spark plug trouble and over-heating. It can be installed by anyone in five minutes. Mr. Stransky wants points and is willing to send a sample of his own risk. Write him today—dy.

MARY GARDEN HOME

Noted Singer, Coming to
Auditorium Next Monday,
Returns From Europe

Mary Garden, who is to sing in the Memorial Auditorium next Monday evening, is due to arrive in New York late today and the following account of her departure from Cherbourg last week, as printed in the Chicago Daily News, will be of interest to the Lowell people who plan to hear her sing:

"Mary Garden, with at least thirteen trunks of new gowns to wear on her American concert tour, sailed this afternoon from Cherbourg on the Olympic for America. She is due to arrive in New York next Tuesday. The famous singer will start her transatlantic concert tour of forty-seven cities October 1, appearing first at Lowell, Mass. She will arrive in Chicago about the middle of December for her appearance with the Chicago Civic Opera. This year's tour, according to Howard E. Potter, Mrs. Garden's personal representative, is the most extensive she has undertaken.

"Miss Garden will be assisted on her tour by Gitta Casini, cellist, and Georges Lauweryn, pianist, premier chef d'orchestre du Theatre Royal de la Monnaie, Brussels, and delopera de la Comedie de Paris. The two will meet the singer in New York and accompany her on her concert tour.

What Will Her Fables Be?
"What new fables will feature Mary's return to these shores? Sentimentalists who will meet her ship are already beginning to wonder. One year it was her cane with the hound-head handle. Another year it was the 'town of the thousand mirrors.' There was the time Mary arrived with her Titian tresses bobbed and the time she bubbled with enthusiasm over Gode.

"Will the temperamental diva, after her summer spent at her villa at Monte Carlo, working and resting, talk freely to the press, or will she display the temper that marked her arrival one year, when she did not hesitate to use her walking stick to get through the crowd that impeded her progress toward her motor?

"Either state of mind would be equally Godeque, critics say.

New Gowns by Trunkfuls
"At any rate, there are trunkfuls of new clothes, purchased in Paris, especially for the American concert tour, and more of 'em than ever, because there are more converts booked this year than before.

"Miss Garden will spend the week that precedes the opening of her tour in New York, possibly with her mother, who is in that city.

"Announcement of what the singer's opera roles will be this year has not yet been made by the Opera association, but it is known she will revive 'Cio-Cio-San.'

There is a big advance sale of seats for the Garden concert. Tickets may be obtained at the Victoria department in Chalfont's.

WAS STRUCK AND INJURED BY AUTO

Miss Esther Thorne of 219 Hale street sustained painful injuries to head and body last evening when she was struck by an automobile on the Lowell-Lawrence boulevard at a point near Kenwood. The young woman was given first aid and then rushed to St. John's hospital, where it was stated that her condition is not serious. This accident occurred shortly before 10 o'clock while Miss Thorne was waiting for an electric car. The driver of the car was Joseph F. Carter of 31 Middlesex street, North Andover, who was later placed under arrest by Officer Joseph Canale of Dracut and booked at the police station on a charge of operating a motor vehicle so as to endanger the lives of the public.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE

"The Tidal Wave" swept itself into favor last night when presented by the Lutteringer players at the Lowell Opera House. A play that truly touches the heartstrings, it readily proved popular. The story is one of an old New England family in a Maine seaport town where men are raised to go down to the sea in ships. The love of two brothers for one girl and the fight which at the older brother in making his way clear provide the start of the plot.

The play opens with a scene in the old family home at Bayport, Maine. The widowed mother of two upstanding sons, herself once the sweetheart of Captain Peabody, hears from the captain he has decided to offer her youngest son the billet of mate on the "Flying Cloud," pride of Bayport's fleet, and of which vessel he is himself captain. It develops that his daughter Ruth (Miss Corinne) asked him to give the younger brother Dave the berth. He had long before decided that the choice of mate lay between Dave and his elder brother, Joe. Vic. Browne played the part of Dave and Lloyd Sabine was brother Joe.

Mrs. Merrick is portrayed by Edna boys, is overjoyed at the news. Her young son is at the time in Portland with a catch of fish. Joe overhears the news and creates a scene after Capt. Peabody leaves. He tells his mother his own brother is standing in his way preventing him from getting the two things he wants most in the world, Ruth and the mate's billet on the Flying Cloud. With diabolical cunning he gets his younger brother out of his way and achieves his ends.

Mrs. Merrick is shown a Lowell stage and won for her an even warmer spot than before in the hearts of the usual first-night patrons with whom she has always been popular. This week she has a part for which she is remarkably well adapted and she makes the most of it.

The second scene, which has the best scenic effect of the play and is well worth seeing, is laid in the South Sea Islands. Here Joe Merrick, mate to the Flying Cloud, meets his brother Dave. The latter is a beachcomber, 'accum of the earth,' and is not recognized by the brother. Capt. Peabody and his daughter Ruth, now Mrs. Joe Merrick, are also on hand, the Flying Cloud loading coals at the island for the trip back to the states.

Mrs. Corinne finds herself torn between the affections of her husband and the love for a man whom she believes dead. Dave finally makes himself known to his brother without letting Ruth become aware of his identity. In a struggle in the coals warehouse the elder brother is killed. He meets death from a poison dart hurled

BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Executive Board of Lowell Council Holds First Meeting of Season

The first meeting of the season of the executive board, Lowell Council Boy Scouts of America, was held in the council rooms yesterday noon at 12.15, with President Dr. J. H. Lambert in the chair. Several business matters were discussed, the foremost being the planning of a financial campaign and the mapping out of a "Leader's Training course."

It was voted to call in the national financial director, Arthur A. Schuck, to handle the financial drive, about the middle of October.

A report of the work as progressing now showed that seven new troops are to be formed in addition to the 11 already organized. The city is to be divided into seven districts and a deputy scoutmaster will be named to supervise the work in each district.

A leader's training course has been outlined to be given on six consecutive Friday evenings. The first lesson will be given on the evening of October 25, in Liberty hall. This and all consecutive meetings are opened to the public free of charge.

In the opening session, Congressman John Jacob Rogers will address the meeting on the "Need of Scouting."

Mr. James J. Storow, Boston banker, former fuel administrator for New England and chairman of the Regional Scout committee of New England, will talk on "What Scouting Is."

Dr. George J. Fisher of New York, deputy chief scout executive, will present "Scouting Organization and Methods."

Dr. John H. Lambert, president of the Lowell council, will open the session with a talk on scout work, locally.

A short scout demonstration will close the first session.

The second session, Friday, November 2, will deal with troop organization and the management of troop units.

November 9, or third session, will treat of the organization and management of the patrol unit. Two or more patrols form a troop.

The fourth session will be held November 16 and will present the subject of scout advancement and show how the different scout tests help the members form their character and grow up as true, staunch citizens.

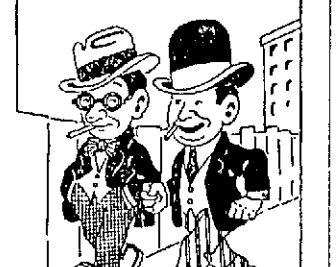

Friday, November 30, will mark the fifth session and will touch upon the subject of hikes and camping.

The sixth and last session will be on December 7 and will present the subject of long period camps and rallies.

Those attending 75 per cent. or more of the sessions will be awarded a certificate by the National Council Boy Scouts of America, showing they have taken the course.

Whether or not all meetings will be held in Liberty hall has not as yet been decided, but it is an assured fact that the opening session will be held there. Announcement as to where the following meetings will be held will be made later.

Those attending the meeting this noon were: President John H. Lambert, M.D., Frank D. Proctor, Hereford N. Elliott, members of the executive board; Charles R. Brigham and Albert E. Thurston, councilmen; Charles F. Langley, treasurer and Edwin J. Melton, scout executive and secretary.

FULL BENCH DISMISSES BILL BROUGHT AGAINST CITY BY CONNERS IN HIGH SCHOOL

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—The bill in equity brought by Dennis E. Connors and other Lowell citizens seeking to restrain an alleged illegal expenditure of money by the city of Lowell in the erection of a high school, was dismissed by the full bench of the state supreme court today. Chief Justice Rugg in announcing the decision, pointed out that the alleged illegal act was substantially completed before the petition was presented and said that a party guilty of unreasonable delay in the enforcement of his rights in an equity suit forfeited his claim to equitable relief.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE MARRIED WITH PISTOLS

Board of Directors Will Endeavor to Secure Lloyd George as Speaker

A meeting of the board of directors of the chamber of commerce was held yesterday with President Edward Fisher in the chair.

Following a luncheon the meeting was called to order. The resignation of Edward W. Gallagher as assistant secretary was read and accepted. No action was taken relative to the resignation of anyone to fill the position left vacant by Mr. Gallagher's resignation.

The board of directors subscribed $50 to the Sullivan reception fund and donated this amount as coming from the chamber. The directors also endorsed the Boy Scout movement.

The proposal of the Boston & Maine railroad to increase rates on commodities tickets 20 per cent. was discussed and a committee was appointed to investigate this matter.

It was voted that the directors endeavor to secure Lloyd George, former prime minister of Great Britain, as a speaker at one of their meetings when he comes to this country this fall.

It was also voted to hold a noonday luncheon on Oct. 17 with Hon. Carroll L. Beedy of Maine the speaker. Mr. Beedy is a U. S. congressman from the Portland district and appeared in Lowell with Gen. Pershing. He proved so popular on that occasion that the directors chose him unanimously.

The directors drew up the following resolutions in regard to the report of the joint New England railroad committee concerning the consolidation of the New England railroads into one body:

Whereas, pursuant to the provisions of the Transportation act of 1920 the Interstate Commerce commission has announced its purpose to hold a hearing in Boston, commencing September 24, 1923, to consider the views of the people of New England with reference to the proposed consolidation of the railroads of New England; and

Whereas, the governors of the New England states have publicly requested that all organizations express in this commission their views and the views of their members;

Resolved, that the board of directors of the Lowell Chamber of Commerce hereby approve of the report of the joint New England Railroad committee insofar as it relates to the proposed consolidation of the New England railroads and believe that the best interests of New England would be served through a consolidation of the New England railroads themselves rather than with the trunk lines.

Voted, that the above resolutions be adopted, and that a copy be sent to the Massachusetts State Chamber of Commerce, and that this organization be authorized to present the same to the Interstate Commerce commission at the hearing in Boston.

MATRIMONIAL

Vachon-Cote

The wedding of Mr. Stanislaus Vachon, a World War veteran, and Miss Alice Cote took place yesterday morning at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8 o'clock at Notre Dame de Lourdes church, the officiating clergyman being Rev. J. A. G. O.L.L. The bride wore a blue traveling suit with hat to match and carried bridal roses. The witnesses were Messrs. Henri and Joseph Cote. During the mass appropriate hymns were sung by the Notre Dame de Lourdes sodality choir. Miss Bella Lavigne presiding at the organ. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride and later the couple left on an extended honeymoon trip to Pawtucket, R. I. and New York. Upon their return they will make their home at 1 Branch place.

Lajeunesse-Larue

A pretty wedding took place yesterday morning at St. Jeanne d'Arc church when Mr. Wilfrid Lajeunesse and Miss Isabelle Larue, two well known young people of this city, were united in the bonds of matrimony. The ceremony was performed at a nuptial mass celebrated at 8 o'clock by Rev. Edouard G.O.L.L. At the offertory Mrs. Antoinette Boudreau sang an "Ave Maria," while after elevation Miss Stella Latour rendered an "O Salutaris." Mr. Paul Gagnon rendered a violin selection at the close of the mass. Miss Antoinette Dion presided at the organ. The bride was attired in white satin with wreath and veil and carried bridal roses. She was given away by her father, Mr. Grégoire Larue, while the groom was attended by his father, Mr. Benjamin Lajeunesse. At the close of the mass a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 35 Gershon avenue, and at noon the happy couple left on an extended honeymoon trip to New York. After Oct. 1 they will be at home to their friends at 7 Albion street. Attending the wedding festivities were numerous guests from out of town including Mr. and Mrs. D. Pett and son, Armand of Manchester, N. H., Mrs. Alice Larue of Newville, Que., and Mrs. Joseph Tremblay of Mechanic, Que.

CHILD FELL FOUR STORIES

SARANAC LAKE, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Betty, the three-year-old daughter of Mr. H. H. Black of Sidney, Ohio, fell from a fourth story window of a hotel to a cement sidewalk today. Examination at a hospital disclosed that her injuries were confined to bruises.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Conspiracy charges in the suit of German dyspeptics to the United Fruit Company, Inc., were made in a brief filed today by the department of justice in the federal court at Wilmington, Del., in the government's suit to set aside the sale of the patents.

FULL BENCH OF SUPREME COURT ORDERS RESTORATION OF NESMITH FUND

BOSTON, Sept. 24.—The full bench of the state supreme court today handed down an opinion favorable to the attorney general in his information against the city of Lowell and ordered that the city restore the full principle of the $25,000 trust fund bequeathed to the city in 1870 by Thomas Nesmith for charitable purposes. The court rules that the fund, which had been added to the general funds of the city, must be kept separate and administered according to the terms of the will.

Nesmith Fund Case

The Nesmith fund has been in the courts for more than a year as a result of suit brought by Fisher Nesmith to have the fund rehabilitated. It disappeared several years ago, having been swallowed up in the expenditure of general funds, the exact purpose for which it was used not now being known.

The city expressed no desire to continue to administer this fund in trust and questioned the legality of the city government of 1870 in accepting it as a trust fund, but by the ruling of the supreme court, it not only must be restored but maintained as a separate fund and administered according to the terms of the will.

SAYS 90 PER CENT OF MEMBERS OF OKLAHOMA NATIONAL GUARD ARE MEMBERS OF K. K. K.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 24.—(By the Associated Press.)—A statement declaring that 90 per cent of the members of the Oklahoma National Guard are members of the K. K. K. and that "all that would be necessary to stop martial law in Oklahoma would be for N. Q. Jewett, grand dragon of the Oklahoma realm of the Klan, to call out Klan members of the guard," was issued here today by Dr. G. S. Long, representative from Tulsa county in the state legislature.

Dr. Long, an admitted member of the Klan, made it plain, however, that such action would not be taken by leaders of the organization.

The Klan oath is a rededication of a man's loyalty to the constitution of Oklahoma, the constitution of the United States, the government of Oklahoma and the government of the United States," he asserted, "and so long as Governor Walton exercises his authority as governor of Oklahoma, Klan members of the national guard will remain loyal to the orders of their commander-in-chief."

AMERICAN LUMBER TO BE SENT TO JAPAN

WASHINGTON, Sept. 24.—Enormous quantities of American lumber are to be used in the restoration of Japanese buildings destroyed by the earthquakes and fires. The Far Eastern division of the commerce department, estimating today that nearly 500,000 homes were destroyed, pointed out that 60 per cent of all lumber used in Japan is shipped from the United States.

Plans for the Yokohama wharves and having blocks for new streets, also will be required from America, it was predicted.

Jack Daw's Adventures. Chapter 13

"Why," replied Goldie Locks, "he's making gold leaf to be used on the signs in the candy store windows. He pounds the gold out flat and then men, up above the ground, stick it on windows in letters that spell candy." Jack, of course, remembered seeing such candy signs.

And, while he was watching the old man work, he heard little ringing sounds nearby. "That sounds like a bell," he exclaimed. "A bell?" laughed Goldie Locks. "Oh, no! That's only the little children of Golden Gorge playing quits with gold rings." And at that moment a man went by with a long pole which was loaded down with gold rings.

"Where is he going?" asked Jack. "To the quit field," replied Goldie Locks. "Come along and we will watch the children play." So Jack followed her and shortly they came upon a group of tiny folks laughing and taking turns at trying to ring a stick with gold rings. (Continued.)

ADVENTURE'S OF THE TWINS

Olive Roberts Barton

WOBBLY WILD CALF'S PHRENIAC

WOBBLY WAS WHIM PERING WAKELY

Misses White-Face Wild Cow had lost her baby and she moaned so hard her voice came down from the mountain meadows like rolls of thunder. It came down the mountains, Misses Wild Cow's voice did, until Nancy and Nick and Mister Gallap heard it and stopped their ponies where they were racing over the plain to see who could go the fastest.

"My goodness!" said Mister Gallap. "Something dreadful must be wrong to make the old lady yell so. The last I saw her she was eating grass as quietly as a spring lamb up there in her mountain meadow." With a wobbly Wild Calf beside her. Come, we'll have to hurry as fast as we can to see what the matter is." And Mister Gallap turned his pony in its tracks and shot off toward the mountains like a comet, with the twins trailing after him like a tail.

They climbed the narrow road up and up till at last they saw Misses Cow standing near a high rocky cliff, her nose stuck up in the air.

"What's up?" called Mister Gallap loudly. "For goodness sake, do quit like a tail."

QUITS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Rev. G. Herbert Ekins Resigns as Assistant Superintendent of League

Calls it "A Propaganda Organization of Teetotaling Fanatics"

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 25.—Because he is opposed to the Anti-Saloon League "as a propaganda organization of teetotaling fanatics," the Rev. G. Herbert Ekins has resigned as assistant state superintendent of the league.

In a published statement today, the Rev. Mr. Ekins frankly admitted that he differs from many men in the Anti-Saloon League and that he hasn't any confidence "that America will stand permanent against light wines and beer."

He said that because he is English, he has been "heretical" enough to stand up in meetings of the Anti-Saloon League and say "it will take more than your propaganda to convince me that there is no virtue in a bottle of beer."

"If I choose to let grapejuice ferment in my cellar, no man has a right to come into my house and tell me that I mustn't do it," he declared.

Rev. Mr. Ekins said that the league "that harm may come to prohibition from its friends" and expresses the opinion that the country would have been better off had the prohibition act stopped with the prohibition of saloons and distilled liquors.

Y. D. ARTILLERY REUNION AT BOXFORD CAMP

The Veteran associations of the 101st F. A., 102nd F. A. and 101st Ammunition train will hold a joint reunion at the Boxford camp ground on Columbus Day, October 12th. Final competition between batteries of the present 101st F. A. and 101st Am. Tr. Mass. N. G. for the 101st F. A. trophy will be held. Details regarding transportation, camp-hike, etc., will be furnished to the several regimental and battery associations.

The following excerpts are from a circular letter sent out by Capt. Lawrence of the association, a copy of which has been received by the local organization:

The Regimental association will arrange for details of the reunion as follows: feeding the men and providing suitable entertainment, and will make such financial guarantees as are necessary in connection therewith. We are not overburdened with funds, having largely contributed to the success of the Regimental reunion in 1921, so each man attending must pay for his own food, and furnish his own transportation. The Regimental association will, however, reimburse the Battery associations for any expense in connection with sending out notices to their members.

When Do We Eat?—Some time between noon and one o'clock, mess will be served. Plenty of good chow. Come and get it. Cost will be reasonable, the expense per person depending somewhat on the selection of the food and number of toppings.

Dress—Every day, folks, clothes with extra large hip pockets.

It is hoped that local members of the organization will plan to attend the reunion, which promises to be a very important, interesting and enjoyable affair.

MILK CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

"Notwithstanding the unusual drought of the past summer, Lowell this year has had less samples of milk below standard than for several years past," said Milk Inspector Melvin Master, after three violators of the pure milk laws had been convicted and fined in the district court this morning. Mr. Melvin's remarks were prompted by the excuse given by one of the defendants, that the continual dry period of the last few months was responsible in a large measure for imperfection in his milk. "Last year Lowell was rated as second class in the matter of pure milk," continued the inspector, "and we expect to enter the first division this year if the dealers co-operate in standardizing their supplies. In the majority of cases brought before the district court to date, convictions have resulted in remedying the situation, but dealers invariably wait until they get into difficulty before adjusting unsatisfactory conditions. I am satisfied, however, that they have this year a better than they have had for some time."

Of the defendants before the court this morning, Omer Bergeron was fined $50 for having milk below standard. Assistant Inspector John Coughlin testified that he had taken several samples of milk from Bergeron's wagon and analysis showed the product to contain sediments.

Martin Shiel was found guilty of three violations. He was fined $50 for having milk in cans not marked "skimmed"; for not having his name and license on his vehicle, and for having dirt in his milk. He was found guilty and the charges proved on file.

A fine of $10 was imposed on file A. Blaisdell for below standard quality. The inspectors testified that they had notified defendant four times before summoning him to court. Two other milk cases were continued.

HELD IN $1500

Man Sent Insulting Letter to Commander Owsley

PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 25.—Emil Dick of Auburn, superintendent of the Little Androscoggin Water Power company was arraigned in federal court yesterday on a secret indictment, charging that he sent through the mails to Alvin M. Owsley, commander of the American Legion, a letter containing improper language.

He was held in $1500 bail for trial. Dick, who is 64 years of age and has been in the country 41 years, is alleged by postoffice inspectors to have signed an affidavit that he wrote the letter, which referred to "Commander Owsley's address" and closed with complimentary expressions.

LOWELL LIONS CLUB WELL ORGANIZED

A new organization locally, known as the Lions club, has been organized in this city during the past month through the combined efforts of several local business men and George H. Wood of Nahant, an organizer for Lions International. The Lowell club already has a membership of 25.

Weekly meetings of the club are held in Cole's Inn on Wednesday at noon and talks on local subjects of interest by men well known in business and civic circles follow the business sessions.

At the present time the club has not a president and secretary, the former position being filled by Charles B. Bartlett of Adams & Company, and the latter by J. Victor Carey of the firm of Simpson & Howard. Until such time as the full charter membership of the club is reached, 40 members being necessary for a charter, these two officers will carry on the work, assisted by the organizer.

The Lions International is not a new organization. For the past five or six years it has thrived in the western and middle western states and in Canada. California has 16 clubs and Chicago alone has 14. Organization in the eastern states followed the organization on a firm basis in the west. Massachusetts now has 10 clubs.

The purpose of the organization is to promote civic and commercial causes and to aid in a just cause wherever aid is necessary. The local organization has not as yet taken over any one cause for its special support but this will likely follow when the club is chartered. For the present time the efforts of the club are being extended to the acquisition of new members.

Membership in the club is restricted to one representative from each business classification in the city. The representative must, in all cases, be a member of the firm represented. By restricting the membership in this way the club will have a fairly small but very representative membership.

In many respects the Lions International is similar to the Rotary International and to the Kiwanis club, but, according to the local officers, it is not intended to run in competition to any other organization.

WILL NOT COME WITHOUT EXTRADITION PAPERS

Harold Coulton, formerly of this city, arrested in Rochester, N. Y., yesterday, on charges of non-support and refusal to come to Lowell for trial without extradition papers being served, according to word received from Inspector John J. Walsh of the local police department, who went to Rochester yesterday for the purpose of bringing Coulton back to Lowell. Defendant is alleged to have stolen an automobile belonging to Leslie Crawford of 158 School street, Dancett. The necessary papers were served this afternoon and Coulton will be arraigned in district court here tomorrow.

MUSICAL TREAT AT MERRIMACK PARK

One of the biggest and best musical treats ever presented to people of this vicinity is in store for those who go to Merrimack park Wednesday and Thursday evenings where Paul Whiteman's Levithan orchestra will play. The orchestra is one of the finest teams in America and the management of Merrimack park has made a lion strike in engaging it for a two nights' engagement. Merrimack park is the only place hereabouts where the orchestra will play as they return to the big steamship after Friday's Worcester engagement. Greater Lowell people will also be able to hear Whiteman's Levithan team at prices lower than in any other city where they appear during the week's tour. Considerably higher prices than those asked by the Merrimack park management are being sought in other cities.

The orchestra which will enjoy a four days' leave from the giant vessel Levithan, sails away Saturday. The band will appear in full regulation ship uniforms thus adding to the novelty and dress of this engagement. Selected by the Paul Whiteman organization for the United States shipping board's biggest ship the office took special pride in the band and the office does not hesitate to recommend them to the most critical concert and dance loving public.

LOWELL ROTARIANS AT FALL CONCLAVE

Dr. Herbert E. Davis, president, and Leroy Berchert and Alvin H. Weaver are representing the Lowell Rotary club at the fall conclave of Rotary clubs of northeastern New England, now being held at Poland Springs, Me. They are expected to return to Lowell on Thursday.

With ten or a dozen members of the Ad club attending the convention of New England advertising clubs at Portland and with the Rotarians at Poland Springs, it is Lowell week in the down east state.

MATRIMONIAL

Dr. Frederick L. Cheney, Jr., and Miss Leta Davis were married yesterday. The ceremony being performed at the residence of St. Paul's M. E. church, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Charles Stewart Otto. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Davis and later the couple left on an automobile homeward trip through the White mountains. They will make their home at Monmouth, Me.

RESTING COMFORTABLY

Miss M. Mabel Cassidy, who was struck by an automobile in Kenwood last Saturday night while waiting for a street car, was reported this morning at St. John's hospital as resting comfortably. Miss Cassidy, a teacher in the local high school, was injured principally about the head and face when hit by a machine of Connecticut registration. The driver of the machine failed to report the accident to the police station and his identity is unknown.

Belgian Balloon Seen Over Norway — French Entry Landed in Poland

BRUSSELS, Sept. 25 (by the Associated Press).—The Belgian balloon Belgium, competing in the James Gordon Bennett cup race, is reported to have been seen over Norway last evening, while the French entry, Picardy, piloted by Beinaime and Bavaire, is said to have landed in Poland.

Only one of the five carrier pigeons which Pilot Veenstra had aboard the Belgian balloon, Leopold, has come back, and this is taken as a good sign. "The British balloon Margaret, which fell into the sea near Saagen, Denmark, will be disqualified in conformity with the rule forbidding the contestants to alight on the sea. Pilots Allen and Berry, in the Margaret's car, were saved.

At 4 o'clock this morning, only the Swiss balloon, Helvetia, and the Spanish entry, Espheria, had not been heard from. The bodies of Lieuts. Robert S. Olmstead and John W. Sheppard, the two American army officers who were killed in the wreck of the balloon S-P, have been given into the possession of the American ambassador at The Hague.

Military honors will be accorded to the victims of the accident. The funerals will be held either Wednesday or Thursday.

Another Accident

BRUSSELS, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press).—A telephone message from Amsterdam confirms reports of another accident in the James Gordon Bennett international balloon race. Major Paulin, pilot of the British balloon Sanshee III, and his aide, Captain Dunville, were badly injured on their heads and legs, in making a difficult landing at Eersel, Holland, Sunday evening. The basket of the balloon caught on the roof of a building throwing the occupants to the ground.

LOOMFIXERS WILL MEET MONDAY NIGHT

A meeting of the Loomfixers' union will be held next Monday night in Trades and Labor hall, Central street, and all members of the organization are requested to be present. The meeting is being called for the purpose of discussing a matter of great importance to the loomfixers of Lowell, a matter that can only be settled by the organization.

This particular matter, the nature of which was not made public, was discussed at the regular meeting of the union held last evening, but inasmuch as the attendance was not very large, no action was taken. It was stated this morning at textile headquarters that the question to be discussed and settled by the loomfixers will prove of great benefit to both the loomfixers and the textile manufacturers. It is hoped a large attendance will be on hand Monday night.

was called as a witness to tell that her son was "a good boy" and that despite his little brushes with the law and his inability to hold a steady job, he had never been in serious trouble. Peters' father also testified.

It was during argument over the admission as evidence of two letters written by Peters to his parents shortly before he was killed that O'Neill charged Ward's story of blackmail was false. The court ruled that the letters could not be admitted as evidence.

O'Neill said the prosecution intended to show that "Clarence Peters was not the kind to blackmail or kill a man."

"He didn't carry a gun," said O'Neill. "We'll prove that Ward's story of killing this man in self-defense was a pure fabrication. We'll prove that Ward's story of this blackmail plot was just framed as a means of getting money out of his wealthy father."

When Ward gave himself up to Westchester county officials three days following his declaration that he knew the "inside" of the Ward case, was read to the jury.

George S. Ward, according to this affidavit, was victimized by his son, who was used in a plot with "Rosa" and "Rogers," the much sought blackmailers. Since that day exact information as to what the circumstances of the blackmail plot were, what circumstances laid Ward open to blackmail, or whether or not it was Ward or some other member of the family that was being blackmailed, have been lacking.

The only definite legal hint as to what it could have been was made public last week when an affidavit made 10 weeks after the killing by James Cunningham, race track follower, who was arrested as a material witness following his declaration that he knew the "inside" of the Ward case, was read to the jury.

MEETING OF ARMISTICE BALL COMMITTEE

The Armistice ball committee of Lowell post, 37, American Legion, met last night at headquarters at the Memorial Auditorium and discussed further plans for the event to be held on the eve of November 11. Owing to the absence of Alvin H. Weaver, chairman of the general committee, many matters were laid over until Friday night when the next meeting of the committee will be held. A committee on invitations was appointed, however, with James H. Conway, chairman.

"Least Governed Are the Best Governed"

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 25.—Congratulating the affiliated exchange clubs on their unified effort during the past year to put a check on excessive law-making, Roy L. Lange, of Birmingham, Ala., national president, addressing the national convention here today said that though the results had been notable the surface had only been scratched. He said that "the apathy of our citizenship must be overcome. They must be aroused to know that our legislative halls cannot long remain mad-houses of paternalism and regulation, a bedlam of careless law-givers. There must be a harking back to the principle that the least governed are the best governed."

Woman Head of Trade Union Movement

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The trade union movement in England may have a woman for president during the coming year. Miss Margaret G. Bonfield, the well known leader among women workers, is regarded as the likely choice from among the three candidates for the chairmanship of the general council of the trades union congress which takes place tomorrow. If chosen Miss Bonfield will be the first woman president.

Turkey To Be Declared a Republic

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—The question of the form and name of the new Turkish state which must be settled before Turkey is able to resume full diplomatic relations with the rest of the world is absorbing attention here and in Angora. It is virtually certain that Turkey will be declared a republic, the head of the government being either a president or a chief of state as in Poland. The first occupant of the executive office is expected to be Mustafa Kemal Pasha, who in a recent interview said that Turkey was already a republic except in name and constitution and might soon become even more democratic.

ROME, Sept. 25.—The newspaper Messaggero, on the basis of numerous bits of information gleaned about the foreign ministry to the effect that the inter-allied mission at Janina has accomplished nothing, places on the Greek government the responsibility for the lack of satisfactory conclusions. It argues that the Greeks did not do everything within their power to arrest those responsible for the murder of Gen. Tellini and his suite and further contends that inasmuch as the perpetrators of the crime have not been arrested, Italy is entitled to the 50,000,000 lire indemnity.

CAPT. GEORGE B. PALMER LT. COMMANDER HUNTER CALLED

Head of the Lowell Liquor Squad Asks to Be Transferred

Commanding Officer of U. S. S. Delphy to Take Stand at Naval Inquiry

Lt. Blodgett Said He and Hunter Responsible for Fatal Decision

SAN DIEGO, Cal., Sept. 25 (by the Associated Press).—Lieut. Commander Donald T. Hunter, commanding officer of the U. S. S. Delphy, which led destroyer squadron No. 11 on the rocks off Hondo, Cal., Sept. 8, was ready to take the stand at the opening of today's session of the naval court of inquiry investigating the disaster, which cost seven ships and the lives of 22 enlisted men.

According to the testimony of Lieut. Laurence P. Blodgett, navigation officer of the Delphy, he and Lieut. Commander Hunter together made the fatal decision to turn eastward at 9 o'clock on the night of the wreck, the latter actually issuing the order for a change of course.

Captain Edward H. Watson, chief of the ill-fated 11th squadron, told the court, however, that he had made the decision to turn eastward, despite radio warnings that they were too far north, and that the lieutenant commander had issued the order to change course at 9 o'clock in accordance with his instructions, for which he assumed full responsibility.

After Captain Watson had made his declaration of responsibility from the witness stand, however, commanding highly the officers and men who faced death with him in the disaster, and taking all the blame for the decision on himself, it appeared from questions addressed to him by Rear Admiral William V. Pratt, presiding member of the investigating body, that the court was not satisfied to rest with Captain Watson's frank acknowledgment of responsibility.

What course the examination of Lieut. Commander Hunter would take today, therefore, was expected to be determined by conditions entirely outside of Captain Watson's frank admissions that he, himself, had decided the fatal change of course, that he never yet ordered soundings taken in all his 14 months as chief of the 11th squadron; that he attached little weight to radio signals warning him he was too far north to turn into Santa Barbara channel; and that he had not taken the pains to verify the propeller revolutions count on which the distance covered by his squadron was estimated.

But the elder Ward was not so easily victimized. He did not pay, but "started an investigation," the affidavit read.

George S. Ward, according to this affidavit, was victimized by his son, who was used in a plot with "Rosa" and "Rogers," the much sought blackmailers. State Rests in Ward Murder Trial--
Motion for Dismissal of First Degree Indictment is Denied

The audience at the trial of Walter S. Ward, millionaire baker's son, for the murder of Clarence Peters, ex-sailor, is as fashionable as any to be found at a first night in the theatre. Matrons and flappers of White Plains, N. Y., and neighboring residence colonies attend in great numbers. Here you see spectators in line waiting for the "show" to begin.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., Sept. 25.—Supreme Court Justice Wagner today denied a motion made by Isaac N. Mills, chief defense counsel in the trial of Walter S. Ward for the murder of Clarence Peters, for dismissal of the first degree murder indictment against the son of the millionaire Brooklyn baker.

The motion, the third to be made by Mills and denied by Justice Wagner, was put before the court after Attorney General Sherman had rested the state's case. In order to hear arguments on it, regular court proceedings in the trial had been adjourned until tomorrow morning.

Justice Wagner denied motions to strike out the testimony of Sheriff George J. Warner regarding a talk at his home on the evening of May 1, testimony regarding the gift of two guns by Chief of Police Frank Cody of New Rochelle to Ward, and evidence concerning the broken glass in Ward's automobile.

Mills declared the evidence so far submitted was insufficient to warrant the jury returning an adverse verdict. He said there was not a connecting circumstance in all the circumstantial evidence offered by the state and that the only question to be determined was what had happened on the night of May 15, 1922. He then moved for dismissal of the indictment insofar as it related to first degree murder on the ground that the evidence did not warrant submission of such a matter to the jury.

"In perspective of the utter failure of the people's case, there is not the slightest word to show premeditation or deliberation," Mills declared.

Justice Wagner then denied this motion.

Two thrills came yesterday, one when Deryl Curtis Ward, wife of the accused, took the stand and told of her husband's return home on the night of the shooting. The other was when Mrs. Inez Peters, mother of the slain ex-sailor,

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Assistant District Attorney Hastings in Tombs court today declared an official of the National City bank was being sought for thousands of dollars worth of bonds alleged to have been stolen from the Southern and Western Insurance Co. of Cincinnati, Nov. 26, 1922.

The declaration was made at the arraignment of Clayton B. Merwin who was arrested yesterday, charged with criminally receiving stolen property. Merwin, whose arrest followed that of William J. McAvoy and Robert A. Franks, Jr., son of the treasurer of the Carnegie Foundation, was held in $10,000 bail. The case was adjourned to October 5, when the Franks case also will be heard. The specific charge against Merwin was that he, acting in concert with others on or about Sept. 7, criminally received 14 Miami Hotel bonds valued at $14,000, and eight May Building Co. bonds valued at $8000 stolen from the insurance company. Assistant District Attorney Hastings refused to identify the bank official but said he was not a "big man" in the institution.

(Special to The Sun)
PORTLAND, Me., Sept. 25.—Edward J. Cooney, president of the Lowell Ad Club, while presiding at today's session of the convention of the New England advertising clubs, being held in this city today and tomorrow, offered to the convention a proposition to petition the governor of each New England state to appoint a representative who would meet in official session to determine ways and means to show the rest of the country just what New England offers in the way of industrial supremacy and as a vacation land.

In assuming the duties of presiding officer at today's session, Mr. Cooney said:

"I feel honored to be called upon to act as presiding officer of today's session of the New England Advertising Clubs' annual convention. While I am the president of the youngest advertising club in New England, the Lowell Advertising club, I am a charter member of one of the oldest, The Town Officers of Providence. HEARING ON SACO-LOWELL SHOPS
PETITION AGAINST MOULDERS'
UNION RESUMED TODAY

The strike of moulders at the Saco-Lowell shops, which has been in effect since April 30 of this year, was not called as a protest against wages or working conditions, but the issue was "Between Franklin St., Boston, and Cincinnati," meaning the Boston office of the Saco-Lowell company and the International Moulders' union headquarters, according to a statement alleged to have been made by a Mr. Pendergast and a Mr. Murphy, officers of the union, to Harry Saxon, foreman in the Saco-Lowell shop foundry.

Mr. Saxon offered this testimony at the resumption of the hearing in the Gorham street court house this morning before Attorney Fred S. Harvey, sitting as a master, on the petition brought by the Saco-Lowell shops against the Moulders' union's claim to restrain the union from interfering with employees of the plant.

NOT READY TO DISCUSS
NESMITH FUND

Until he has opportunity to study the supreme court decision by which the city is ordered to rehabilitate the Nesmith fund to its original amount of $25,000 and to continue to administer it as a trust fund for the worthy poor of the city as stipulated in the original will of Thomas Nesmith, City Solicitor Patrick J. Reynolds does not wish to discuss the probable method of procedure which will result in complete restoration of the fund.

The matter was being generally discussed at city hall today, however, and a number of suggestions were made informally as to possible ways and means of restoring it.

In the opinion of James J. Gallagher, president of the city council, the city can borrow the necessary money for the restoration of the fund. Other suggestions were that the money might be secured by direct appropriation and again, that a sinking fund might be established whereby the full amount of the fund would be secured in five years. This last suggestion, of course, would need the approval of the Nesmith heirs.

Returning Pressmen Must Meet Full Terms of Agreement Signed With Berry

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Despite the fact that New York newspaper publishers refused to take back their striking pressmen unless full terms of an agreement signed with the International Printing Pressmen and Assistants' union were met, the combined morning newspapers, issued since the strike began a week ago, were doubled in size today. Each paper had 16 pages and for the first time since the walkout, display advertising appeared to an appreciable extent. Editorials, however, still were absent.

The offer of the pressmen to return to work was conditional. Payment was to be made to the pressmen, and said they would bring their crews back under the working conditions contained in the agreement with the international provided they would not be compelled to recognize George L. Berry, president of the organization. They also said they would not recognize David S. Smith, head of local 10, Pressmen's union No. 25, which had its charter revoked by Mr. Berry, who declared the strike illegal. The publishers, however, refused, telling the men they must recognize the international union and obtain cards from it.

Recruiting of pressmen to take the place of the strikers was said to have met with "heavy response" to the call broadcast by Mr. Berry for pressmen from outside points.

CLOTHING FOR THE DESTITUTE IN JAPAN
The first response to the Salvation Army's appeal for clothing for Japanese relief was from Tewksbury Centre, where the Women's Missionary League of the Congregational church had gathered together quite a number of parcels of clothing and other relief essentials.

Haste is necessary as the Japanese will soon close down upon the stricken refugees who have now but light summer clothes. The Salvation Army headquarters forwarded $124,000 upon receipt of the news of the disaster, but money is not enough. Clothes must be had, and the appeal for bundles of old clothes is being made throughout the whole country this week.

For the benefit of those who are not able to deliver their parcels to the Salvation Army headquarters on Appleton street, Commandant Abbot will send a collector upon receipt of a postal or telephone request.

The whole relief situation may be summed up in the following message which was received recently from Tokyo: "The need for clothing in the devastated region is urgent. Many persons are in a serious condition as a result of exposure."

ORGANIZER REGAN BACK IN LOWELL
Thomas J. Regan of this city, general organizer for the United Textile Workers of America, has returned from a trip to North Adams and Pittsfield where he conducted a special investigation of textile conditions for the organization he represents.

Mr. Regan stated this morning that in North Adams there are four woolen mills and one cotton mill and work in the woolen plants is practically at a standstill. The cotton mill, he said, has just reopened after the regular annual two weeks' vacation and is now operating on a full-time schedule. He stated that the Braytonville mill, a plant located on the outskirts of North Adams which employs over 200 operatives, closed tight. For the past year the plant had been in the hands of a receiver, but three weeks ago all operations were suspended and within a short time the building and contents will be sold to the highest bidder.

In Pittsfield, said Mr. Regan, the three woolen mills are running full while the Pontic mills, another woolen concern, is operating day and night. Pittsfield is the only place in western Massachusetts where the textile industries are running on a full-time schedule.

PLEASANT SURPRISE
Miss Blanche Bisillon, timekeeper at the Saco-Lowell shops, who on Oct. 1 will become the bride of Mr. Emilie Lemire of St. Pierre and Bergeron, was agreeably surprised late yesterday afternoon when, just as she was leaving the office of the company, she was presented a handsome floor lamp as a token of esteem from the part of the employees of the plant. Miss Bisillon was also tendered the best wishes of her associates.

BIRTHDAY PARTY
A most enjoyable birthday party was held Monday evening in honor of Dorothy Plimley, at her home at 307 Concord street. Excellent music was furnished by Panning's orchestra. Numerous games were played after which a buffet lunch was served. The success of the affair is largely due to Miss Esther Duplessis, Miss Susie McCarthy and Miss Mary Connelley.

$100,000 Fire in Woburn Business District
WOBURN, Sept. 25.—Loss estimated at $100,000, was caused early today by fire which destroyed the factory of the Tribble Cordage Co., on Union street and a business building at Union and Main streets. For a time the whole business section in the center of the city was threatened and aid was summoned from nearby towns. The business building contained several stores, with tenements on the upper floors.

City of Amoy on Verge of General Strike
AMOY, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) Held by Sun Yat Sen troops and besieged by the north China forces of Gen. Chen Chiang-Ming, the city of Amoy is on the verge of a general strike as a protest against the landing of Japanese sailors and marines Sunday. If the strike becomes a reality it will mean the complete stoppage of all business here.

To Stamp Goods "Made in Ireland"
DUBLIN, Sept. 25.—In consequence of representations by the United States customs authorities who point out that the American tariff now requires imports to be marked in English, the Free State government has notified Irish exporters to cease stamping goods "Deanta in Mírin" and substitute the English equivalent "Made in Ireland."

TO AID HOMELESS QUAKE SUFFERERS
TOKYO, Sept. 25 (by the Associated Press).—An urgent imperial ordinance announced today provides for the immediate appropriation of 100,000,000 yen to relieve the pressing necessities of thousands of homeless earthquake sufferers. Out of this fund building materials also are to be purchased for the construction of temporary shelters.

The privy council has decided that 300,000,000 yen will be expended in foreign countries for the purchase of supplies. It is said an extraordinary session of the diet probably will be held next month.

Marital law has been extended one month in the earthquake area and the police force has been increased by 3000.

The misery extant was today exemplified in Tokyo and Yokohama when the autumn influx brought in cold and rain. Throughout the vast devastated stretches of the two cities thousands of sufferers shivered in subject were huddled together in their meagre kennels.

According to official figures, there are 1,700,000 actual living earthquake sufferers in Tokyo alone. More than 500,000 already have left for the interior.

It is estimated that 47,000 bales of raw silk were destroyed in Yokohama.

WILL MAKE CHANGE IN CALENDAR SUNDAY
The Greek Orthodox church of the East, with which the Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox church of this city is affiliated, will drop the Julian calendar and adopt the Gregorian calendar next Sunday, Sept. 30. This will be in accordance with a vote taken at a meeting of the Holy Synod of Greece held a few months ago at Constantinople. The adoption of the Gregorian calendar will only affect the feasts of Christmas and Easter and a few minor feasts of the church. In business circles, however, the change will make use of the Gregorian calendar.

In the year 1058 of Rome Julius Caesar brought about a reform in the Roman calendar, and the new calendar was named the Julian calendar. Pope Gregory XIII, in 1582, instituted the Gregorian calendar, which was adopted by most countries of Europe and the Christian people all over the world excepting the Russians, Greeks and Turks.

MUNICIPAL COUNCIL MEETING TONIGHT
Effort will be made to make tonight's meeting of the city council as brief as possible as an in-attendance of the city council is to be given at the Auditorium by Arthur C. Shurtliff, city planning expert.

The only matter of particular interest scheduled for discussion is an order from the office of the city solicitor, the passage of which will give the Saco-Lowell shops permission to erect a bridge over Dutton street to connect the present plant with the new building.

endanger the lives and safety of the public, Joseph P. Cotter was forced to recognize in the sum of $100 when he asked for a continuance, the court increasing the bail with the remark, he couldn't understand the action of the district commissioners in dealing so lightly with such a serious offense. The case was continued until Oct. 5.

Joseph M. Shamas was fined $10 for operating an automobile without a license. He was arrested in Bridge street last night by Officer Owen Conway, who took him to the police station and then allowed him time to go home and get a license which he claimed to have. He didn't return, but showed up in court this morning with the necessary certificate. A charge of driving without rear light showing was placed on file.

George J. Skalkens, charged with maintaining a liquor nuisance, was continued until Oct. 5, bonds being fixed at $300. Continuances were granted also to Adam Nastowicz for being drunk and operating while under the influence, and to Roseanne Landry for assault and battery on Sarah E. Lamothe.

lodges in Lawrence and Haverhill will conduct the installation ceremony. The order at present has 300 members in this country and has established a lodge among people of Italian birth.

The program of institution will be featured by the installation of the officers of Lowell lodge, headed by Angelo DiDonato, president.

The committee in charge of all preliminary arrangements which waited on President DiDonato, chairman, Michel Roberto, Donato Marzullo and Antonio Palletta, treasurer of the new lodge.

The parade will form at 1:30 p. m. and will get under way at 2 o'clock, to be followed by the installation exercises immediately after dismissal, which probably will be about 3 o'clock.

SULLIVAN BROS. BUY DURKIN PRINTING CO.
Sullivan Brothers, printers, of 223 Central street, who since entering the local commercial printing field five years ago, have enlarged their plant five times are to again expand as the result of the purchase of the business and equipment of the Durkin Printing company of Market street.

The passing of the Durkin business to the Sullivan brothers makes the third firm that has been absorbed by the Central street printers, and the added facilities will enable them to better handle their rapidly growing business.

The Sullivan plant was founded upon two fundamental principles of successful endeavor—service and satisfaction—and the progress and expansion already enjoyed indicates that their policy has met with popular favor in the local business field.

The transfer of the Durkin equipment of the Sullivan plant will entail no delay and orders placed with both firms will be finished at the time promised in every instance.

was made in a room in the American House here on the evening the strike vote was taken by the union members. He had been summoned to the hotel by Mr. Pendergast, he said, to see if something couldn't be done to avert trouble, but he made it clear to Mr. Pendergast that he did not go in an official capacity, as he had no right to do so.

The witness said that he went to the hotel early in the evening prior to the vote, and he asked if the strike was going to be put into effect. Both Pendergast and Murphy said that it was being put into effect. Mr. Saxon then said he told the union representatives that he had talked with the men and they did not want to strike, that they were satisfied with their wages, their hours and working conditions, which were better than ever. He also asked them if they meant to disregard the long fight that had culminated in conditions perfectly satisfactory to the men, and they replied that they knew conditions were better than they ever had been, but that was not the issue. It was an issue between Franklin street, Boston, and Cincinnati. We are going to insist on a closed shop."

Mr. Saxon said that he has been foreman at the plant since July, 1922, and he first heard strike talk last December, but the first definite knowledge he received that a strike was to be called was about one week before the strike.

LARCENY CHARGED
George P. Blight of Gorham street was arrested this morning by Lieut. Martin Maher for the larceny of $7 pair of shoes, valued at $2 per pair, from the Foster Shoe company. The shoes were found in Blight's room in Gorham street, but he denied that he had stolen them, saying they had been left there by an unknown man. He was booked at the station on charges of breaking and entering and larceny and will be arraigned in district court tomorrow morning.

THE LOWELL SUN
The strike, when some of the men told him about it.

A Mr. Grenier, a union member, told Mr. Saxon that he did not think much of the strike and he did not want to go out. A Mr. Hill also said he felt bad about it, and hoped it would not go through. Witness also quoted several others whose stories were similar.

Shortly before the strike actually went into effect Mr. Saxon asked Mr. Hill if he was going out on strike, and the latter replied he didn't want to, but he was afraid to stay in, and if he did stay in his life would be made miserable for him.

The witness identified a table of statistics, showing that the average hours of work were 50, and that the average pay for the week of April 11 was $30.10, and for the week of May 12, after a voluntary increase had been granted, the average pay was $35.55. This was offered as evidence.

When the hearing was opened Supt. Hansen of the Saco-Lowell foundry was recalled to the stand. Supt. Hansen had offered considerable testimony at a previous hearing.

Supt. Hansen said that the company began feeding and housing men in the plant on June 5, and because of the strike he said that about that time the plant was running 50 per cent below normal. Up to the present time he said that the number of men sleeping in the plant had been as high as 65, but at the present time there were only 13 of the workers sleeping in the plant.

The witness was questioned regarding picketing, and he said that he had noticed pickets in the vicinity of the plant, and that this morning he counted 12 pickets on the lines.

The only other witness heard this morning was William M. Strong, who is connected with the Kilsen foundry, which is controlled by the Saco-Lowell company. He said that the places of the strikers had all been filled and that his plant was now running normal.

Attorney Howard of Qua, Howard & Rogers, counsel for the respondents, did not cross-examine any of the witnesses this morning by agreement with Attorney Wilson, counsel for the petitioners, but cross-examination will be taken up at a future hearing.

The next hearing will be held Oct. 5.

MOST CARS ARE BOUGHT ON WOMEN'S ADVICE
Look over the improvements made on the automobile in the last 25 years and what do you find the most marked trend in its progress?

Base of operation. That includes everything designed to make driving easy for the motorist.

And the individual for whom most changes have been made in the course of this advancement is—woman.

For proof, here is the conclusion of the Cleveland sales manager of a high-class car, who has had experience in automobile sales throughout the various stages of progress. It is that three-fourths of the cars bought nowadays have been sold on the decision of woman.

She's Pleased

And it is in recognition of this important fact that automobile manufacturers have sought more and more to please the woman, even more than the man, in selling their products. Beauty, comfort, ease in driving—all make their appeal to the feminine, while every effort has been made to reduce inconveniences on the road.

Of course, men would not like to feel themselves eliminated from consideration when it comes to beauty, comfort and driving ease of a car. For he is interested in these attributes—but not so much as his wife or sweetheart say auto salesmen. Besides, if they could show the husband that low purring motor, the sturdy chassis and the easily handled controls, they've done enough to sell him. While Mrs. Motorist must be sure she'll ride in comfort and that her car is more beautiful than her neighbor's.

Classes of Buyers

According to this Cleveland manager's observations, the men who buy automobiles may be divided into four classes:

1. Those who say that whatever car suits their wives is satisfactory to them.
2. Those who consult their wives before buying.
3. Those who buy cars without consulting their wives.
4. Unmarried men.

Estimating the number in each group, this salesman concludes about 75 per cent of the men who buy cars do so after having consulted the woman in the case. He puts nearly half the purchasers in the first category before buying.

And those who buy without consider-

U. S. Represented By Three Seaplanes
PORTSMOUTH, England, Sept. 25.—The American reserve seaplane piloted by Lieut. Frank W. Wead will be substituted in the Schneider cup race for seaplanes on Sept. 28 for the plane wrecked yesterday near Portsmouth during a trial flight. The United States will thus be represented by three machines, the original number but the chances of England for retaining the cup are regarded by the experts as greatly increased owing to the fact that the wrecked plane was America's most powerful entry, said to be capable of making 170 miles an hour.

Willard Favors R. R. Consolidation
BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Daniel Willard, president of the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, strongly favored a consolidation of all New England railroads, including the Boston & Albany, the Central Vermont and the New England lines of the Grand Trunk and the Canadian Pacific, in speaking today at the continued hearing before members of the Interstate Commerce commission on the subject of consolidation.

Found Exhausted in Boston Street
BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Harry Brown of Bristol, Vt., was found in an exhausted condition on Washington street today and taken to a hospital where it was said he was a nervous wreck. Beyond saying that he had been without food for several days, he gave no account of his experiences. He was hatless and wore part of an army uniform.

Bank Safe Blown Up for Second Time
UNION, Me., Sept. 25.—The safe in the Union branch of the Waldo Trust Co. of Belfast, was blown open during the night for the second time in five weeks. When the discovery was made this morning, it was found that the doors had been locked again or the lock broken, so that it was not possible to open the safe immediately to ascertain the amount of the loss. About $1800 was obtained in the previous robbery five weeks ago last night.

Longshoremen Discuss Wage Offer
NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Longshoremen's unions today discussed the 7 1/2 per cent increase in wages offered them yesterday by ship owners in response to their demands for a 15 per cent raise. They had threatened to walkout here and in other parts from Maine to Virginia unless their demands were fully met. A decision on the compromise offer was expected tonight.

American Merchant Steamers Attacked
PEKING, Sept. 24.—It is reported here that commanders of the foreign patrol flotillas on the upper Yangtze river, are discussing unified operation as a result of recent attacks on American and Japanese merchant steamers. Troops of Kweichow province are declared to have been the worst offenders.

STATE TROOPS ORDERED TO USE ALL FORCE OF ARMS IF NECESSARY TO BAR LEGISLATIVE SESSION

Gov. Walton of Oklahoma Issues Instructions to Adj. Gen. Markham—"Shoot to Kill" Orders if Necessary to Disperse Legislators—Solons Laying Plans to Meet in Defiance of Executive

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press)—State troops, with orders from Governor J. C. Walton to use all force of arms if necessary, are being marshalled here to prevent the impeachment session of the lower house of the Oklahoma legislature called for noon tomorrow.

Determined legislators are gathering, meanwhile, to lay final plans for attempting to meet in defiance of the executive.

Treacherously pledged to his course, Governor Walton, in a letter to Adj. Gen. B. H. Markham, to draw upon all the military forces of the state if necessary to block the proposed assembly.

"Shoot to Kill" Orders

Expressing the hope that no excessive measures would be required, Gov. Walton asserted nevertheless, "shoot to kill" order would be given the troops should such drastic action be necessary to disperse legislators.

With the crisis approaching, the executive commanded all units of the state between the ages of 21 and 45 years, to hold themselves in readiness "to come to the assistance of the sovereign state of Oklahoma" when summoned by the governor or the adjutant general. The "citizen soldiers" were ordered to prepare to bear such arms as they possess or are able to obtain.

The governor's orders declared that the proposed house session would be an unlawful assembly, and that the K. K. K. which organization under his martial law proclamation is declared to be an enemy of the state. Furthermore, he charged the meeting would be "in defiance and violation of the statutes of the state of Oklahoma, now under military law, and also contrary to the constitution and laws of the state." It would be a direct attempt to break the peace, he asserted.

If the legislators attempt to hold the session at any place in the state other

FUNERAL SERVICES FOR MISS GILLESPIE WILL NOT RUN AGAIN FOR THE SCHOOL BOARD

The funeral of Miss Gillespie took place from her home, 54 Columbia ave., this morning at 9 o'clock. The funeral cortege composed of 22 mourners, bearing sorrowing relatives and friends and preceded by a car filled with flowers.

at tributes, wended its way to St. Patrick's church. At the church door the bearers were met by a delegation of the Sanctuary choir boys of which body the deceased was a member. At 10 o'clock a solemn high funeral mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., pastor, assisted by Rev. Joseph Curran, deacon, and Rev. Thomas J. McDonough, sub-deacon. Seated within the sanctuary were Rev. Dennis A. Sullivan, D.C.L., and members of the Sanctuary choir.

The choir, under the direction of Michael Johnson, rendered the Gregorian mass. The soloists during the mass were sustained by Daniel S. O'Brien and Miss Frances Tizhe. At the offertory James Klink sang Leysach's "Pie Jesu" and after the elevation "Pro Communion" rendered "Domine Jesu Christe." As the body was being borne from the church the choir sang "De Profundis," the solo being sustained by Joseph Tizhe.

The others at the home and church and who also acted as honorary bearers were: John Delaney, Elizabeth Herbert, Edward Saunders, Henry Casperly, Frederick Lynch and Andrew Livingston.

The bearers were John Grady, James Bourke, John Donohue, Thomas Scanlon, Edward Appleton and James Keefe.

Assisting at the services were relatives and friends from Lawrence, Boston, Saratoga Springs, Clinton and Worcester.

Burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery, where the committal prayers were read by Rev. John J. McGarry, D.C.L., Rev. Denis Sullivan, O. M. L., and Rev. Joseph Curran. The funeral was in charge of Undertaker William A. Mack.

FUNERALS

PROPHY—The funeral of the late John J. Prophy, for the past 25 years a resident of Lowell and a valued employee of the Gage Ice Co., took place this morning from his home, 28 Walnut street at 9 o'clock. The cortege proceeded to St. Patrick's church where at 9 o'clock a solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated by Rev. Joseph A. Curran, assisted by Rev. Correll J. Cotter of St. Columba's church as deacon and Rev. Thomas J. McDonough as sub-deacon. The church was well filled as the deceased was well and favorably known. The choir under the direction of Mr. Michael J. Johnson rendered the Gregorian chant, the solo in the mass being sustained by Mr. Daniel S. O'Brien and Miss Frances Tizhe. The bearers were Messrs. Daniel Gorman, James L. Gorman, William E. Gorman, Daniel J. Crowley and John Rutledge. There were many floral and spiritual offerings. The burial was in the family lot in St. Patrick's cemetery where the committal prayers were read by Fr. Curran. The funeral was under the direction of Undertakers Jas. F. O'Donnell & Sons.

WILL ATTEND JOINT POSTAL CONVENTION

Postmaster X. A. Delisle and several clerks and carriers of the local post-office will attend the joint postal conference convention for Massachusetts and Rhode Island, which will be held at Faneuil hall, Boston, on Oct. 17. The meeting had been scheduled to be held on Aug. 14, but was postponed to Oct. 17.

First Assistant Postmaster General John H. Bartlett and Third Assistant Postmaster General W. Irving Glover as well as postoffice employees and representatives of chambers of commerce and business men of Massachusetts and Rhode Island will be in attendance. The details of the convention, it is announced, are being worked out and proper notices as to plans will be mailed to postoffices at a later date.

MISS GILLESPIE WAS WELL KNOWN HERE

Word has been received in this city of the sudden death of Miss Isabel Gillespie, pioneer organizer of women workers in New England, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 234 Boylston street, Boston, in the dress-making establishment of which deceased was manager.

Miss Gillespie, who was first vice president of the Massachusetts branch of the American Federation of Labor, was well known in this city, where on various occasions she addressed labor meetings. For several years she devoted her time, efforts and energy to organizing garment workers, textile operatives, laundry workers, clerks, office building cleaners, professors, teachers and office employees, and her work brought her to Lowell on numerous occasions.

Commenting upon the death of Miss Gillespie this morning, General Organizer Thomas J. Ryan of the United Textile Workers of America, who considered her a personal friend, said that her death was a great loss to the cause of labor and to the women workers of Lowell and other New England textile centers have lost a good friend, one who was particularly interested in the welfare of women and children, and one who had always taken an active part in organizing members of the fair sex and children under the banners of textile unions.

MASS NOTICE

MARICHAM—There will be a month's mind mass Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock at St. Peter's church for Thomas E. Maricham.

Edward J. Cooney
Addresses Convention

we build New England Business. It is a broad subject and I will not attempt to discuss in any detail with such a galaxy of fine speakers who are assembled.

"This convention is bringing out the real force behind advertising and publicity. It is showing to the world that all business either directly or indirectly, is dependent upon advertising for its real success. Even those among us who once considered advertising unethical use it in one form or another to increase their financial remuneration.

Before calling on the first speaker I have a proposition which I want this convention to consider and I hope to see some definite action taken along the lines suggested. I would ask this convention to petition each of the New England governors to appoint a representative who would meet in official session to determine ways and means to show the rest of the country and Canada just what New England offers in the way of industrial supremacy and as a vacation land. Maine is already blazing the trail through its state publicity bureau and setting an example that each of the five remaining states should follow.

And what if it would mean if we should advertise the natural beauties of the New England states as the national vacation land—Maine with its wonderful coast resorts and inland lakes; New Hampshire with its beautiful White Mountain range and lakes; Vermont with its wonderful Green Mountains and its deposits of marble; Massachusetts with old Cape Cod and its canal, as well as its shore places; Rhode Island where Narragansett Bay, including Newport and Narragansett Pier have attracted people of means for years, and Connecticut whose shores are so close to New York, the great city of all American cities. Here we have a skeleton for a program, which if adopted, will in just one little particular have made this whole convention worth while."

THE SCHOOL BOARD

J. Eugene Mullin, member of the school committee, whose one-year term expires on January 1 of next year, announced today he will not be a candidate for re-election, but instead will seek election to the city council from ward 4, now represented by Councilor Frederick A. Sadler.

If elected again to the school committee, Mr. Mullin would serve for a term of three years, but in announcing his plans today he stated he preferred service in the city council, if fortunate enough to be elected from his ward.

BARRY'S MARKET HAS THIRD ANNIVERSARY

W. A. Barry, manager of Barry's market at Bridge and French streets, is receiving congratulations this week on the third anniversary of the establishment of his popular market.

In speaking of the success which has come to the market, Mr. Barry says that when it was first opened the decisions were made that only the best grades of meats and provisions should be carried and these at reasonable prices, that money should be refunded whenever a customer was dissatisfied and that the principle of square dealing should be the keynote of all transactions.

Mr. Barry feels that the market has been conducted along lines that have appealed to the public, and as proof of this he cites the facts that the store has been enlarged and a new delivery truck added to care for increased business.

A special anniversary sale is being held all this week at the market.

TABERNACLE FEAST USHERED IN BY JEWS

The opening services of the Synagogue, the Feast of the Tabernacles, were held last evening in the 3 local synagogues and will continue this morning. The holiday will be observed for eight days, the first and last days being the most important and on these days services are held in the houses of worship.

The last day of the holiday is known as Simchat Torah, "Joy of the Torah." On this day the reading of "Torah" is finished and immediately begun for another year.

QUESTIONS THE RIGHT OF LOWER COURT JUDGES TO SIT IN SUPERIOR COURT

The right of district court judges to sit temporarily on the superior court of Boston, shall, at the written request, as well as the right of Chief justice of the supreme court, sit in the superior court at such appointments, was questioned by the trial of disposition, with or without jury, in any part of the commonwealth, of any violation of a by-law, order, ordinance, rule or regulation made by a city or town or public officer, of any violation of the liquor law, or of any provision of section 44, of chapter 272 of the General Laws, or of chapters 90 or 273 of the General Laws, and during the continuance of such request shall have and exercise all the powers and duties which a justice of the superior court has and may exercise in the trial and disposition of such cases; provided, that no justice so sitting shall act in a case in which he has either sat or held an inquest in the district court or otherwise has an interest."

This is of interest in this city because of the fact that Judge J. J. Mahoney of the Lawrence district court, who is at present sitting on the superior court bench, caused the fall term of superior court in this city and sat here for three days.

In the motions filed yesterday the attorneys contend that the proceedings before petit judges on the superior court bench are irregular and void and that alleged verdicts returned by juries are of no force and effect. The attorneys further claimed that the appointments should have been made by the governor.

The statute in question provides that "A justice of a district court, ex-

MEETING OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH

A routine meeting of the board of health was held at 4 p. m., yesterday, with Dr. Francis R. Mahony, chairman, presiding.

The matter of snow removal from the road leading to the isolation hospital was discussed with Harry Doherty, superintendent of streets. The latter suggested the board engage a farmer living nearby to plow out the road. Chairman Mahoney felt the job was one for the street department, but the matter was dropped without definite action. After granting one or two licenses for the collection of garbage the board adjourned at 4:30 o'clock.

WANTS WORLD TO KNOW ABOUT HIS CASE

Mr. Chas. B. Brewster of Collinsville, near Lowell, Mass., relates:

"There were times when I thought that it would be better for me to die. I felt tired and worn out. I had no appetite for food, and ate with fear of the pains and suffering that I always endured afterwards from indigestion and constipation that bloated my stomach, burned up my insides and made me helpless.

"I had terrible pains in my back and my insufferable condition wore down my strength until I was but a shadow of my former self. I grew thin and pale with my cheeks hollow and rings under my eyes.

"My liver was sluggish and at times I would have dizzy spells when I felt faint and would feel like a drunken person. I took many different kinds of medicine without a sign of improvement in my condition.

"At last I found the one remedy that my system needed, that was Dreco. This wonderful remedy quickly put me back in good condition. It drove out all traces of my pains and suffering. I have no more stomach trouble, my liver seems to be working fine, and I feel a hundred per cent. better. All my thanks to this wonderful remedy that I hope every one suffering as I did will be benefited by it."—Adv.

This Little World

NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—Uneducating a parrot is as hard as educating him, according to the city editor of a Chicago newspaper who happened to own one.

This parrot, called Rhummy and not Polly, was allowed to strut about the house in pretty complete freedom. To prevent him from getting lost, he was taught:

"My name is Rhummy Washburne. I live at 5442 Wayne avenue."

The family moved from that address several years ago. But Rhummy refuses to learn a new number or forget the old.

A wolf, full grown, wild and ferocious, was killed the other day at the edge of Chicago. Wolf hunting probably is better here than within the limits of any other American city. Wolves, supposedly, steal rides on freight cars at frontier sidings and are brought into the yards in Chicago. "Wolf, wolf!" isn't an obsolete cry.

The theory that the smallest houses shelter the largest families is exemplified in a shop facing the County building in the heart of the Loop. It has a scant five feet frontage, perhaps the smallest in the city, and the depth is nothing to boast of. But the occupant, the proprietor of a theatre ticket brokerage business, has sub-leased space to a magazine vendor. Both are flourishing.

If you give a panhandler a dime, you receive a "Thank you," but if you save a life you get nothing. Such is the conclusion of a life guard, Oliver Vinnesko, who put in the summer bathing season on patrol at the Main street beach, Evanston. "I dragged forty persons out of the water this season, and only two thanked me," he says. "The grateful pair were two German girls who had to get an interpreter to express their sentiments."

A man "who possesses sufficient character to refuse tips," is advertised for by a large Loop movie theatre. If he qualifies, he will be given an admiral's uniform and a living wage and stationed on the sidewalk to say hail and farewell to patrons who ride in automobiles. Footmen at cafes and hotels customarily receive tips as they open doors for patrons. The company operating the movie theatre, however, has built a reputation for attentive service on a non-tipping basis. If the footman accepts a gratuity, he will be ousted from the sidewalk into the street.

DRINKING WATER

This is by no means an attempt to solve the prohibition question. It is the advocacy of H<sub>2</sub>O as a drink pure and simple, without any other question being taken into consideration.

The person who thinks that water is a glorious thing when a fellow wants a swim is all right, but please bear in mind that water is just as good internally as externally.

The Japanese have a rule which requires the soldiers in their army to drink at least two quarts of water each day. Statistics show that the Japanese army uses more water and less medicine than any other. Maybe that's the reason.

Persons who go to spas or watering places to drink the water receive great benefits. This is accounted for, in a large part, simply because they drink more water than they do at home and as a result receive a decided tonic and health renewal.

Water is an absolute necessity for the body and we must get it in some form or another. The purer the better for our health. Naturally then we ask the question, Why, when and how much should we drink?

The reason for taking a sufficient amount of good drinking water every day is obvious. The body is constantly giving off moisture, in some form, during the whole 24 hours. Sometimes more during the night than in the day time. In the secretion of urine, the loss of moisture in the breath, by sweat during the working period and also often at night, the loss is always going on and must be renewed.

drinking water. However, there are certain times when it is more healthful than at others.

RADIO CONCERT CONTEST

Great Nation-Wide Contest
to be Held Monday,
Oct. 15

What purpose is to be the biggest nation-wide contest ever held will occur on Monday evening, October 15th, when twenty-nine U. S. postal hands situated in all the principal cities in the United States will hold a radio concert contest. This was decided at the convention of the National Letter Carriers Association held last week at Providence when Henry Johnson, the motion picture producer and the Film Booking Office of America offered a cash prize of five hundred dollars and a beautiful silver cup to the best mail man hand in America.

With the decision to hold the contest the radio was immediately accepted as the best means of reaching the people for their decision. In the United States there are twenty-nine large postal hands scattered from the Atlantic to the Pacific Coast. The plan calls for the contests to be held on Monday evening October 15 simultaneous country all over the country.

PART OF MUSCLE SHOALS PLANT IS SOLD

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press)—Henry Ford's much controverted offer to buy Muscle Shoals was wholly upset yesterday when the government sold to the Alabama Power Co. the Gorgas steam plant—a part of the property—at a price of approximately $3,500,000. This development forces a revised offer from Mr. Ford if he wishes to bid for the remainder of the project. He previously had informed congress that unless the Gorgas plant were included in the sale his bid did not hold.

Political observers who have professed to see some connection between Mr. Ford's offer for Muscle Shoals and the presidential boom which bears the manufacturers' name, predicted yesterday that the next development would be reverberations in the coming session of congress, which possibly might develop into something hearing a relation to the coming presidential election.

WAS GRADUALLY LOSING STRENGTH

Mrs. Lemire Checked the Decline and Tells Others How She Recovered Her Health

A constant loss of weight is a serious symptom and should never be neglected. When in company with it there is thin blood, nervousness, loss of appetite and ambition and a disordered digestion there is need of tonic treatment for the condition is one of debility. The blood must be built up before health can be restored.

Mrs. William Lemire of No. 31 Iowa street, Lowell, Mass., suffered from nervous debility for a number of years. She says: "I had a terrible pressing, down pain in the top of my head, like a weight on it. I had a sour stomach all the time and gas spells which would choke me. My complexion was sallow, I had no desire to eat and was losing strength gradually."

"After reading about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in the paper I gave them a trial. After the second box I noticed that I was quite a lot better. My nerves were more normal and I did not feel as if I would fly to pieces. Soon the pressing pain in my head went away, my stomach symptoms were relieved and I found that I slept better. I am glad to tell others what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are a body-building tonic. They increase the power of the blood to carry new life and energy to every part of the system. If there is no organic trouble this is almost sure to result in benefit that the patient quickly notices in increased appetite, better digestion, sound, refreshing sleep and good health.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or direct from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., on receipt of price, 60 cents per box. Send for the free booklet, "Building Up the Blood."—Adv.

Progress and Expansion

Based Upon Service, is the Story Of SULLIVAN BROTHERS' PRINTERY

JOSEPH E. SULLIVAN

A Splendid Record of Achievement

Starting in the printing business Feb. 9, 1918, in a small room in the old B. & M. Station we founded our business upon two fundamental principles of successful endeavor—SERVICE and SATISFACTION. A customer for the first time has always been a permanent, satisfied customer, otherwise no expansion would have been possible, and we would not have found it necessary to enlarge our printing facilities five times within such a brief period.

Success and progress are not founded upon chance. If the first job from the standpoint of quality and price did not please we would have no permanent customers on our books today. When a firm or individual continues a business relation month after month with us, it is for no other reason than that SERVICE and SATISFACTION are assured.

DURKIN PRINTING CO. of Market St. Purchased by Sullivan Bros.

The purchase of the entire equipment and good will of the Durkin Printing Co. is the latest advance made by us and provides increased facilities for the handling of a rapidly growing business. Durkin's equipment has been recognized as up-to-date and of sufficient variety to meet the most exacting demands. The customers of the Durkin Printing Co. will find the same care and attention to detail afforded them at Sullivan Bros. Printery as they formerly enjoyed, and their patronage is respectfully solicited. With enlarged facilities, greater floor space, up-to-date equipment, we solicit the patronage of everyone in need of printing—reasonable prices—high-grade work—prompt service.

Including this recent acquisition we have seven job presses and a Miller automatic-fed job press, a large cylinder press, a Kelly press ordered and enroute. (The Kelly press is the greatest step forward in the printing world since Mergenthaler invented the linotype.) In our composing room we have a model 14 linotype and the best assortment of hand type in the city. We are, thereby, enabled to give you 24-HOUR SERVICE—just order your job and 24 hours later it will be delivered.

convention campaign. Some time ago the war department notified Mr. Ford that the department of justice and the judge advocate general of the army had held valid its contract, with the power company, which required the government to either move the plant from the power company's land or sell it to the company. Yesterday was the last, under several extensions of time, in which the government could make a decision. Ford's engineers in Detroit wired the war department a $3,500,000 to Alabama Power Co., the request for another extension, which Gorgas Steam plant—a part of the power company declined to grant, Muscle Shoals property.

and Secretary Weeks came to the decision that under the circumstances it was more advantageous to the government to sell than move.

The actual price paid was $3,472,487.35, a sum agreed on in appraisals by the ordinance division of the war department and experts of the federal power commission. The war time construction cost $4,750,000.

Federal government sells for about $3,500,000 to Alabama Power Co., the request for another extension, which Gorgas Steam plant—a part of the power company declined to grant, Muscle Shoals property.

Women Appreciate It

YOU will be delighted with the wonderful lustre your curtains and all household fabrics have after being starched with Linit, the remarkable new starch discovery.

Linit penetrates the fabric, prolongs its life, and gives a soft, cool, pliable finish that makes even the most ordinary cotton goods look and feel like expensive linen.

THIS remarkable starch is made by an improved process that keeps it fluid after it cools.

After Linit is thoroughly dissolved, according to directions, and ready for use, you will notice it is THIN and FREE-RUNNING LIKE WATER—with a "milky" appearance. Be sure to use Linit according to directions, and unlike other starches, you will not find Linit stiff or jelly-like. This is one reason why Linit goes much further than the old-fashioned kind of starches and is easy to iron with.

Aged Man Dies While Playing Golf

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The death of A. R. Smith, secretary of Dover college, who passed away while playing golf, has revived the discussion of the age at which golfers should retire. Mr. Smith was 65 and was the 12th English golfer past middle life to die on the links this year. Some British physicians contend that 50 is the danger mark at which devotees of the game should put by their clubs. Those who hold this view say that the arteries have become rigid at this age and that club swinging is likely to be fatal.

Salem Man Discovers Relief for Stomach Trouble

Four Bottles of O'Brien's Thwarted Case of Years' Standing

George E. Morrison, 11 Pope St., Salem, Mass., contributed the following letter—another one from among the thousands who have been benefited by that time-tested stomach remedy, O'Brien's for Dyspepsia.

"It gives me great pleasure to write these few lines. I have suffered for a great many years with stomach trouble and have tried many doctors in this section; also one specialist without results.

"I was advised to try O'Brien's by a friend, and the first bottle helped me so much that I took three bottles more, and am now completely recovered.

"I hope this may reach everyone who is suffering from Stomach Trouble."

Whatever stomach ailment you are troubled with—Dyspepsia, indigestion, Colic, Heartburn, Gastritis, Ulcerated Stomach, Flatulence, Nausea, or whatever—O'Brien's is sure to give relief. If it doesn't, and you have used it consistently after meals and before bed-time according to directions, you can get your money back from the druggist from whom you purchased.

We guarantee it, without question or quibbling, for O'Brien's for Dyspepsia is a time-tested preparation compounded after the prescription of a Massachusetts Doctor since 1895.

Even though yours may only be a slight case, take it in time. Stop later sufferings in the bud. What helps a severe case will surely benefit a mild one. O'Brien's deserves a place on every medicine shelf for use in sudden attacks.

Today is none too soon, get your bottle of O'Brien's now—Adv.

Working Hours Seem Shorter When You Feel Full of "Pep"

In the middle of the afternoon lots of people feel tired, "headachy" and can't work. Yet, it isn't the work they do so much as the run-down condition of their nerves, stomach and blood.

Build yourself up, and you'll do twice the work in half the time. Win back your strength, energy and "pep." Dr. Thacher's Liver and Blood Syrup has proved to countless numbers of people in this state that it increases the appetite, stimulates digestion, tones the blood pumping through the veins.

Take a delicious tablespoonful after meals and see what a difference it makes in the way you eat, sleep and work. It is sold with the understanding that your money will be returned if for any reason you are not completely satisfied. Get it in Green's drug store, Frye & Crawford Drug Co., A. W. ## COMMANDER TAKES ALL BLAME FOR DISASTER

SAN DIEGO, Calif., Sept. 25 (By the Associated Press).—A tale of the Honda disaster, told by the destroyer squadron commander, who two weeks ago saw seven of his ships impaled on rock near Point Arguello and 27 of his men go down to their death, took up yesterday's session of the naval court of inquiry, investigating the wreck.

Capt. Edward H. Watson, chief of the 11th squadron, was the commander who told the story, and in it he took upon himself full responsibility for the catastrophe. He asked that none of the blame be allowed to fall on his "able and loyal subordinates."

That the court was not entirely satisfied with Capt. Watson's testimony taking upon himself all of the responsibility, however, began to be evident late yesterday when Admiral Wm. V. Pratt, presiding member of the investigating body, asked him to state whether he had ever objected to his division commanders asking independently for radio compass bearings with which to check their squadron commander's navigation, or to whether he had ever objected to their taking soundings for the purpose of making sure that the squadron flagship was right in its dead reckoning. To these questions Capt. Watson answered that he had not ever objected to such independent soundings or requests for bearings and that he did not object to his division commanders checking his navigation for errors or reporting such errors to him if they discovered them.

In carrying out his announced desire to make clear that he accepted full responsibility for the fatal change of course that hurled his ships on the rocks, Capt. Watson hesitated in his answers only when they appeared likely to implicate one of his subordinates.

He said that he himself had made the decision to turn east at 9 o'clock on the night of Sept. 8, five minutes before his squadron crashed.

He admitted that he steered his course by dead reckoning only, paying little regard to radio compass bearings which just prior to the wreck showed his ships were too far north to swing eastward into Santa Barbara channel.

But of the officers and men who faced death with him off Honda, he said he only had words of commendation and testimony concerning bravery and loyalty to offer. He denied emphatically that liquor was in any way responsible for the disaster.

This denial came in response to a question from his counsel, Capt. T. T. Craven, who explained that it was customary in disasters such as this one for certain critics to charge that the use of alcohol was responsible.

MEMORIAL AUDITORIUM TRUSTEES MEET

At a meeting of the trustees of the Memorial Auditorium last night Albert Steiner of Steiner & Sons Co., was granted the use of the Auditorium on Wednesday evening, Oct. 31, for the presentation of the Sistine chapel choir of Rome, the most famous ecclesiastical singing organization in the world. The choir recently has arrived in this country for a concert tour and Lowell is fortunate indeed to be given an opportunity to hear it.

The trustees held a brief conference with members of the citizens' committee appointed to co-operate with them in the matter of proper tablets and memorials for Trophy hall and there was some discussion over the amount of work of this nature the trustees will be able to afford right away. Plans will be purchased as rapidly as possible and the matter of tablets to contain the names of heroes who died in battle will be decided upon shortly when the entire committee has a meeting.

Four consecutive Sunday evenings will see popular priced concerts by a band, instrumental and vocal soloists from Boston. These will be Oct. 28, Nov. 4, 11, 18. They will be under the auspices of John J. Quigley of Boston and will fill a long-felt want in Lowell for a Sunday evening concert of first grade, without the element of cheapness that many times characterizes these entertainments. The prices will range from 25 cents to $1.

The Y. M. C. I. was granted the date of Feb. 23 for a concert and dance and the Organized Reserves have engaged Liberty hall for a meeting on Oct. 4.

NO GROUND FOR ALARM

There seems to be a feeling in the public mind that something very unusual in the line of curtailment or business depression is about to happen. Some people are always in this state of mind and occasionally the disease spreads until it affects a large proportion of the community.

At the present time there is no justification for any such assumption. There is nothing in the economic situation to support it. The price of steel has been quite as firm for the past few weeks as at any time during the past year, and this is taken as an indication of a stabilizing of prices in other commodities.

The textile industry has perhaps as many difficulties to contend with as any other, with the exception of the shoe business and yet, nearly all the factories are working at normal capacity. The fall business is just beginning to get well under way, and there is no real indication of an interruption and no cause for taking a pessimistic view of the situation.

It is true, that many disconcerting problems are awaiting settlement, such for example as the railroad question, the matter of getting our merchant marine in operation, and the problem of questions are of such serious moment as to justify any feeling of alarm. There are always problems of this kind awaiting settlement and they will all receive attention in due time.

In the meantime business will proceed normally as usual, provided the people do not give way to a feeling of pessimism that will cause them to shrink before imaginary evils and thus produce the very results that they wish most of all to avoid.

Business has nothing to fear under the direction of men of courage and resourcefulness. The Federal Reserve system stands as a safeguard against financial stringency and depression; and while it is well always to spend money wisely, there is nothing to justify a policy of hoarding under which the people refuse to spend their money freely for the things they need. The vast banks deposits of the country and the heavy payrolls passed out weekly to millions of employers, afford ample assurance of the stability of business not only in the near future, but in the years to come.

A CABINET TIP TO FARMERS

The distressed condition of the wheat farmers has at last attracted the attention of the republican administration cabinet. As usual with republican cabinets no conclusion was reached.

The report of the cabinet meeting, however, is interesting as an illustration of how the "best minds" of the administration discussed the matter at issue. The outstanding feature of the discussion seems to have been that the farmers should raise less wheat, and produce other crops for which there is a big demand. Just what those crops are is not stated. Presumably, in view of the popularity of the reigning topical song, one of them would be bananas. Other crops that would obviously suggest themselves in the wheat belt are oranges, pineapples, lemons, guavas, grape fruit and alligator pears.

The cabinet decided that the cotton industry was O. K., except where the boll weevil had administered a K. O., so that perhaps some of the agriculturists of the wheat belt might plant a part of their acreage in Sea Island long staple cotton.

The cabinet seemed to be of the opinion that the livestock industry was looking up because wage earners in a few protected industries were eating more meat; but even this rose had a thorn, for they figured out the more meat that was eaten the less cereal would be consumed, so that the discussion went back to where it started, that the solution of the wheat-growers' problem was to raise less wheat.

This idea is not altogether new. It originated, we believe, with Mr. Lew Dockstader of Dockstader's Ministrels, who, in making public the rules to govern a new hotel he was about to start, included the following:

"To prevent guests from taking fruit from the table, there will be no fruit."

It does not seem to have occurred to the great minds of the cabinet that if the extortionate prices of the things the farmers have to buy were lowered by reducing the tariff rates, thereby increasing the purchasing power of agricultural products, that the condition of the agriculturists generally, including the wheat farmer, would be greatly improved, for in the last analysis the farmer is more interested in the purchasing power of his products than he is in the current prices.

Most of the things the farmer has to buy, however, are produced under an excessive tariff that affords a monopoly to the producers which is known as a special privilege; and this is a special feature of the policies of the reactionary element in the republican party. It is not fair to the farmers nor to the general consuming public. When the cabinet discussed the farmers' condition and proposed a remedy, it failed to suggest the removal of the cause which would be a reduction in tariff rates where they are now excessive.

N. Y. PRESSMEN'S STRIKE

It was really pitiful to see the apology for a newspaper issued the past week by the combined New York morning papers, which in all condensed as it was, into eight pages. That represented the combined efforts of the eight New York papers, the titles of which were arranged in order at the top of the front page as follows: New York American, New York Herald, New York Tribune, The World, Daily News, New York Times, Staats Zeitung and Il Progresso Italiano.

All this was the result of the pressmen's strike which practically put the New York papers out of business for nearly a week and caused incalculable loss not only to the papers but also to the merchants and general business interests of the city which depend to a very great extent upon advertising to maintain the normal volume of business. What the merits of the demands made by the pressmen were, we know not; but it is declared that the strike was declared illegal by the international union on the ground that sufficient notice was not given and that it violated the tripartite agreement to arbitrate when the local union, the international and the Publishers could not settle their differences. It was really amusing to find the features of the various papers represented published side by side, although ordinarily some of the papers thus combined are bitter business rivals. There were no editorials, of course, as it would be impossible to publish a composite editorial representing so many papers of widely conflicting views. The fact that they combined at all is but another proof that a sweep of adversity causes men and even newspapers, to forget their hatreds and unite for their common good. Thus it was that we saw all citizens, except the slackers, unite in support of the government during the war; whereas now we see men trying to array class against class and instill hatred of one another where the real interests of all lie in working together for their common good and for the public welfare.

"What size?"

"There's six of us."

"You'll have to get individual boxes. What happened, a race riot?"

"Sey, is this the Lowell Opera House?"

"No, this is George Dealey, the undertaker."

A Thought

On Second Thought

They had had a slight difference of opinion, but he acknowledged his error quite generously by saying: "You are right and I am wrong, as you generally are. Goodbye, dear," and he hurried off to catch his train. "So nice of him to put it like that," she said to herself. And then—well, then she began to think about it.

Told Her Secret

The newly married pair were seated in cosy armchair in front of the fire. "Dearest," said the young bride, "have you any secrets to hide from your wife?" "None, my pet," replied hubby, proudly. "Then I, too, will have no secrets from you," said she in heroic tones. "What have you a secret?" he asked in a startled voice. "Only one," she said firmly and slowly, "and I am going to tell it to you," "Fire on," he muttered hoarsely. "For some weeks I have had a secret longing for a fur coat for a birthday present." She got it.

The Whole Truth

"Do I understand you to say," angrily questioned the judge, "that when you heard a noise you quickly got out of bed, turned on the light and went to the head of the stairs—that a burglar was at the foot of the stairs and you did not see him? Are you blind?" "Judge, must I tell the exact truth?" asked the witness as he mopped his perspiring face and blushed furiously. "Yes, sir, the whole truth and nothing but the truth," barked the judge. "Well," slowly replied the man, "my wife was in front of me."

Had an Interpreter

A man wandered into a New York magistrate's court one day when a legal battle was due between some Turks and some Arabians. The dinky room was filled with partisans jabbering in various dialects while awaiting the arrival of the judge. In vain the stranger tried to get some information. In despair he finally exclaimed: "Does no one in this court speak English?" "We have an interpreter," said an attendant civilly, "if you wish to converse in that language."

Two of a Kind

A certain celebrated doctor hated to pay his bills and got out of doing so whenever he could. One day the doctor employed a workman to mend some pavement just outside his house. Afterward he exclaimed: "Why, you rascal! Do you expect to be paid for such a piece of work? Why, you have spotted my pavement, and then covered it over with earth to hide the bad work!" The workman winked knowingly. "Doctor," he retorted slyly, "mine is not the only bad work the earth hides."

Dressed for the Occasion

Hoffy had spent about an hour in dressing that evening. This was unusual for him. He was not known to have any inspirations to shine as a Beau Brummel. Accordingly his sister was somewhat curious to know what all the fussing and fussing was about. Certainly she was not prepared for the appearance he presented when he came down the stairs. "Why, brother, what does this mean? A plaid tie with a dress suit?" "I think I am about right," placidly responded Hoffy. "I am going to a society party tonight."

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN

The ever present dangers of traffic congestion in business sections were manifested the other day. It was about mid-afternoon. The first alarm had just rung. The street sprinkling car was stopped near John street where it was refilling. An outward bound Pawtucketville car was stopped on the neighboring track and several mechanics were lined up behind both cars. The fire chief came along in his car at a rapid rate apparently not expecting a blockade. It was not until he had reached the spot that he was able to stop and the quick application of his brakes forced his car to slide to the right and then to the left on the wet pavement. He succeeded in stopping but only after much risk both to himself and others. "Strike way for the fire apparatus" should be the slogan whenever a fire alarm rings and for this purpose drivers should know in what direction the department is called so as to get out of the way if necessary and not otherwise.

A local lawyer takes exception to an item published in this column last Saturday in which it was stated that the sale of a valuable parcel of real estate netted the owner only $1.50 after the mortgage and lawyer's fees had been paid. "I am sure there is a mischievous error here," he said, "for as a rule a lawyer's fees are not exorbitant, and it is hardly probable that the prop-

Don't forget that daylight saving time goes into the discard at midnight next Saturday. When you retire Saturday night, put the hands of your watches and clocks back one hour. For example, you go to bed at 11 o'clock, set your clock at 10 and you'll arise on schedule time next Sunday, or if you should go to bed at 1 o'clock the next morning just stop your clock for an hour or turn it backward for that length of time with this admonition:

Backward, turn backward, O Time in your flight!

The following extract is taken from a letter sent by the officer in charge of athletics at the Newport Naval training station to Lt. Commander Gulliver, chief of naval recruiting in the Boston district: "Garry (Paul Red) is a fine football player and is showing up well at practice. We will no doubt get a better line on him when the playing season starts." Lt. Commander Gulliver sent the officer of the local navy recruiting office, C. W. T. R. Frederic with the following P. S.: "Here is some good dope we got from the training station on your man Garry. That's encouraging. 'Red' is a brother of 'Blank' Garry, pitcher in the Twilight League, and is well-known locally in athletics himself."

While the various organizations of the city have united to pay tribute to Lowell's famous swimmer, Henry E. Sullivan, the C. Y. M. L., one of the most popular organizations of its kind in Lowell, is preparing for a celebration of its own for John J. Condon also accompanied the swimmer abroad and encouraged him on his several attempts at the channel conquest. Sullivan and Condon are both champions.

Local football enthusiasts who braved the drizzle of last Sunday afternoon to watch the Ponies and Cadets perform at Alumni field, saw a veteran platoon star on the sidelines in the person of "Bill" Crossland, former high school track and football player, now active in the capacity of coach of the Ponies. Just a few years ago Crossland was wearing the colors of the local high school and later went to a nearby "prep" school. In high school days he distinguished himself as a classmate of the club and the man who was one of the school's best line in the blue jump at its track meets. "Bill" is now in the automobile business.

Since the streets in the downtown section have acquired their distinctive white markings, motorists are becoming more respectful of pedestrians. Pedestrians standing in the space designated by the white lines may well feel that they are in a safety zone. For instance, one might stand on the sidewalk, five minutes of the clock and then make a dash for it and get across to the other side. Now, if one walks across, keeping to the marked spaces, he is sure to get to the other side without much ado. These white lines are a source of safety if observed by motorists and pedestrians alike.

CHARGES FRAUD IN ALIEN PATENTS SALE

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—The sale of enemy-owned patents to the Chemical Foundation, Inc., by the alien property custodian was accomplished through a "combination, scheme and conspiracy," the government charges in a brief filed yesterday in the federal district court at Wilmington, Del., in its suit to set aside the sale.

Former Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer, Francis P. Garvin, former alien property custodian and now president of the Foundation, and others are assailed in the brief, which is signed by Attorney General Daugherty, Henry W. Anderson of Richmond, Va., special assistant to the attorney general, and other government counsel.

The evidence adduced at the trial of the case before Judge Morris at Wilmington some months ago is reviewed and authorities quoted at length to support the major contention of the government, which are:

"That President Wilson could not delegate to Assistant Secretary of State Polk his authority to order a private sale of seized enemy property."

"That President Wilson's order of Feb. 13, 1920, did not attempt to ratify the orders of Mr. Polk authorizing private sale of the property."

"That the sales were invalid because of the conspiracy of substantially all of the prospective purchasers into one organization."

LOWELL MEN AT DISTRICT CONVENTION

Harold Scott, Neil Douglas, Archie Grant, Joseph Hollingsworth and Norman E. Parnum, social secretary of the Y.M.C.A., attended a district convention of the Y's Men's clubs of Massachusetts and Rhode Island at the City club of Boston last evening.

Paul Alexander, president of the International Y's Men's club of the United States and Canada was the principal speaker. Outlining the ideals and aims of the organization, he set on foot a movement to start a number of clubs in New England.

A membership of over 100 young men representing various walks of life similar to the Lions and Rotary clubs, membership in the Y's Men's club is restricted to two members from each trade or profession. These men are primarily younger business men, who some day may be eligible for membership in the Rotary club. The club meets for luncheon regularly and in addition to listening to addresses, organizes itself for service in the assistance of Red Cross, Y.M.C.A., Salvation Army, etc., drives and promotes various activities for boys and younger men.

The men who attended the conference last night returned to Lowell enthusiastic for the formation of a local organization. Steps were taken to secure 15 men so that a charter might be secured.

DRUGGISTS GATHER FOR CONVENTION

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Thousands of druggists from all over the country gathered here yesterday for the opening sessions of the convention of the National Association of Retail Druggists, which has a membership of more than 25,000. The sessions are being held in Mechanics building, where there is a big exhibit of goods sold in drug stores.

There is a complete drug store at one end of the big hall, fitted out with everything that greets the eye of a customer when he enters the modern pharmacy. The convention will continue through five days.

Gov. Cox and Mayor Curley extended the welcome of the state and city to the delegates. Prof. Herman C. Ludwig of the State Health Commission and E. Mark Sullivan, corporation counsel, represented the governor and mayor. They addressed the gathering in Paul Revere hall in the evening.

Berton Braley's Daily Poem DESIRES

A little chance, maybe,
To find in Love a little glow,
In Youth a little glee;
A little time for frivolling
Before the years are shriveling
A spirit glad and free.

Man gets but little here below,
Nor keeps that little long;
A little hour perhaps to know
A little mirth and song,
A little strength for laboring,
A little time for neighboring
With friends among the throng.

And little does he get,
Save, now and then, a little show
To earn, by work and sweat,
A little cash for squandering
On pleasuring or wandering
To ease the heart of fret.

Man, hoping little here below,
Wins even less, it's true,
Most of his little visions go
Quite swiftly up the flue!
Life has a heap of stings to it,
Yet, golly, how man clings to it
Until his time is through!

DOG'S WEAPON IS HIS JAW

The power of a dog's jaw is of the greatest consideration when that dog is used for running down and killing some other animal that fights with its teeth. A dog has little or no strength of the larger features of the bigger bears. There is more power in the smite of a lion, leopard, tiger or bear than there is in the danger of his teeth; that is to say, the lion and the bear use their mighty forelegs and cruel claws as their first line of offense and defense. That is the reason the dog bays the sharp-clawed animal and worries or uses man's dog about breeding dogs that his teeth have such animals as foxes, coyotes, wolves, jackals, etc. The bite of a fox, coyote and jackal has little terror for single coursing dogs such as greyhounds, deer-hounds, Russian hounds, Afghan hounds and the greyhounds of Persia, Arabia and Syria. But all of these dogs are very careful when they run up to a full-grown European or American timber wolf. The strength of the wolf's jaw is such that it will break a domesticated dog's leg, while the power of the jaw of the hyena is said to be capable of cracking the leg bone of a horse. Bearing in mind the fighting powers and methods of certain animals—generally of the predatory kind, and a menace to the flocks and birds, man—even primitive man—must about breeding dogs that would be of service to him, not only as hunters, but as companions and of a fox, coyote and jackal has little

INTERPRETATION OF ARTICLE X

Proposed Resolution Rejected by League Assembly in Plenary Session

Persia Alone Voted Against Resolution — Unanimous Vote Necessary

GENEVA, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) The proposed resolution for the interpretation of Article X of the League of Nations covenant, was rejected by the league assembly in plenary session today. Persia alone voted against the resolution, but a unanimous vote was necessary to obtain the assembly's approval.

The Canadian spokesman favored the resolution and the French representative, Prof. Joseph Barthelmy, in an eloquent address also approved it. The Frenchman remarked that the impression existed among some of the delegates that with Article X thus interpreted, the entrance of the United States into the league might be hastened. If so, he added, it was so much the better.

BERLIN, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) It was officially announced this afternoon that the premiers of the German federated states at their conference with Chancellor Stresemann today, unanimously agreed to abandonment of the passive resistance program, but at the same time, expressed determination firmly to safeguard the unity of the country.

WORLD'S SERIES WILL OPEN ON OCT. 10

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) The 1923 world's series will open in the Yankee stadium, on Wednesday, Oct. 10. It was decided today at a meeting of baseball officials at which Commissioner Landis presided. Col. Jacob Ruppert won the toss of the coin to determine where the series should open. It was determined that if the New York club of the National League wins the pennant in its league that the games will alternate between the Yankee stadium and the Polo grounds.

LOW SCORES AT PELHAM GOLF TOURNAMENT

PELHAM MANOR, N. Y., Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) Exceptionally low scores marked the first half of the second round in the Professional Golfers' association championship.

OKLAHOMA GOVERNOR ISSUES NEWSPAPER

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press)—"The Record" Gov. J. C. Walton's newspaper to "tell the people the truth" appeared here today. The first edition contained four pages of regular size. It carried statements issued by the executive and liberal accounts of testimony taken by military courts in Oklahoma City, and Tulsa.

Across the top of the first page is spread in heavy type the question: "Are you for the American republic, or the Invisible Empire?"

18 REFUGEES BANNED

Without Country After Suffering Untold Hardships and Horrors in Russia

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 25.—After suffering untold hardships and horrors as the result of the Russian revolution, during which they remained loyal to the monarchy; after fleeing Vladivostok when the "Red" army invaders assumed control; after drifting thousands of miles from country to country trying to find a landing place, being battered by the elements, starved and facing plague and disaster at every turn 18 men and three women are being held at Ft. Mifflin here for deportation, making them literally men and women without a country.

Those men and women are part of the 350 Russian refugee party that landed here from Manila last July on the transport Merrill, and the 526 were the remnants of more than 8,000 men, women and children who remained loyal to the late Czar Nicholas of Russia and joined the anti-Soviet government faction. They remained at Vladivostok until the Japanese evacuated the Far Eastern republic, and the "Red" forces assumed control. In order to save their lives, the 3,000 monarchists fled in 15 ships, under command of Admiral George Starik, and started in search of new lands.

The 18 awaiting deportation here have been barred from Japan, China, and the United States, and they state their loyalty to the late Czar makes it impossible for them to return to Russia.

"We are not allowed to land in any country, and if we are sent back to Russia we will be shot," is their constant statement to the U. S. immigration authorities here.

11-DAY BATTLE AGAINST TOWERING SEAS

NOME, Alaska, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press) A story of an 11-day battle against towering seas lashed by a Behring sea gale, was told by members of the United States Geological Survey party from Point Barrow, who have arrived at Teller on the 13-ton schooner Teddy Bear.

The Teddy Bear, commanded by Captain Joe Bernard, was driven from Point Hope, north of Potzebuc sound to St. Lawrence Island, opposite Nome, thence to Sledge Island and thence back through Behring strait to Shishmaref, a distance of 500 miles, before the storm subsided enough for the vessel to proceed on her regular course.

BIDS ON NEW FIREHOUSE FOR THE OAKLANDS

The city building inspector opened bids this afternoon for the construction of the new firehouse in the Oakland.

Daniel H. Walker with a bid of $27,779 was low for the general contract. On the contract for plumbing and gas piping bid of $1400 of John A. Cotter Co. was low, while under the third contract, that for steam heating, J. J. Spillane Co. submitted the lowest bid of $1100.

The total amount involved by the three lowest bids is $29,279, against a stipulation that the job should not exceed in cost $35,000.

Bids on the general contract were received from six local builders as follows: D. H. Walker, $27,779; R. E. Runnels Construction Co., $27,250; Fredrick P. Meloy, $31,450; William J. Penney, $31,755; Burton H. Wilgoin Co., $31,915; H. V. Perreault, $30,734.

Bids for plumbing and gas piping were the following: John A. Cotter & Co., $1400; Thomas E. O'Day & Co., $1550; John H. McElmurry, $1552; J. P. McMahon & Co., $1551; Roche & Co., $1600; Quigley & Harrington, $1665; J. J. Spillane Co., $1765; Charles Manchester, $1884.

Eight proposals were received for steam heating as follows: J. J. Spillane Co., $1100; Jos. P. McElmurry & Co., $1120; John A. Cotter & Co., $1320; Thomas E. O'Day Co., $1318; J. P. McMahon & Co., $1331; Roche & Co., $1345; Charles Manchester, $1550, and Quigley & Harrington, $1651.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIETIES MEET

The Christian Endeavor societies of Lowell and vicinity met at the First Congregational church last evening in the first union rally of the season. The rally was under the direction of the Lowell Northfield club and the evening program consisted of the most part of reports from various delegates who attended the Northfield conference during August.

Supper was served at 6:30 o'clock in the vestry of the church under the supervision of Miss Frances McLeod and Miss Lillian Killpatrick, who were assisted by Mrs. Rome Wood, Mrs. Fred Milne, Charles H. Brigham and Mrs. Albert Livermore.

Following the supper the new members of the Lowell C.E. union were introduced to the delegates as was Rev. John T. Olson, who has recently taken over the pastorate of the Lawrence Street Primitive Methodist church.

Merion C. Fleming, president of the union, made the introductions. At the conclusion of the introduction a number of conferences were held and interesting talks given. A new course in music was inaugurated under the direction of Edwin Wells. Other courses of instruction were started by Mrs. George Sturtevant, Miss Dorothy Morris and Mrs. Marion Rawlinson.

The rally was opened in the church at 8 o'clock by the reading of the church roll, after brief remarks introduced Miss Lillian Killpatrick, president of the C.E.S. of the First Congregational church, who welcomed the visiting delegates. Leonard Wilcox responded to the welcome.

The musical part of the rally was turned over to Edwin Wells, and after a number of Northfield songs and hymns were sung by George Sturtevant, at the request of the president, Mr. Fleming, unfolded and dedicated stars to three of the members of the Northfield club who had openly professed God during the conferences at Northfield.

The prayer service was in charge of Miss Elsie Perrin, secretary of the union, assisted by Miss Hazel Tutthill, soloist.

"Echoes from Northfield" were then given by members who attended the conferences. The delegates were introduced by Nathaniel Trull, president of the Northfield club, and brief and interesting talks on the work of the conferences followed.

The rally was ended with benediction.

CARD OF THANKS
We desire to express our heartfelt thanks to all those who extended sympathy to us in our bereavement and especially to R. E. Butler Relief Corps, 75, and Sons of Veterans Auxiliary, also our appreciation for the many beautiful and floral tributes from friends whose kindness will always be held in grateful remembrance.
MR. AND MRS. JAMES McLELLAN, MARY E. McLELLAN AND DAUGHTER.

LONDON, Sept. 25.—A Reuter despatch from 1836 today says it is rumored there that masses of insurrectionary peasants are surrounding Moscow and Petrograd.

WOMAN SO ILL COULD NOT STAND

Glens Falls, N. Y.—"For over two months I was so sick I was not able to stand on my feet, and my husband did my housework. The doctor said an operation might be necessary. I read testimonial letters about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and began to take it. Before I had finished taking the first bottle I saw what good it was doing me. I am now well and strong, doing all my work for a family of four, all my washing and my sewing, which I think is remarkable, as I had not dared to run my sewing machine, but had done all my sewing by hand. I truly feel that were it not for your medicine I would not be here today as my case seemed very serious."—Mrs. GEORGE W. BURCHFIELD, Glens Falls, N. Y.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Private Text-Book upon "Ailments Peculiar to Women" will be sent you free, upon request. Write to the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Massachusetts. This book contains valuable information that every woman should have.

SALVATION ARMY TO HOLD BUNDLE DAY

Thursday, Sept. 27, will be set aside for bundle day to be conducted by the Salvation Army branch in this city, for the purpose of collecting clothing and other necessary articles for the suffering Japanese. That country is visited by cold weather early in December and it is the plan of the local branch to have warm garments sent over to the people as soon as possible. As it is obvious that only certain articles of clothing would be of use in Japan, a list of suitable and necessary articles are as follows: Blankets, underwear for men, women and children. Army to distribute to the sufferers. Miss C. H. Kendall of Maine, who was all sizes and rocks, cloth, wraps, cloaks, needles and thread, tape, braid, buttons, pins, face towels and sheeting, soap and all kinds of children's clothes. Bundles containing any or all of these different articles should be sent postpaid or by prepaid express to Adj. Charles Abbott, Salvation Army, 105 Appleton street, Lowell, Mass. All bundles will be sent by Commander Abbott to the army's district headquarters in Boston from which place they will be sent direct to Japan.

In Tokyo in 1921, sent a check to the Salvation Army relief worker in Japan to aid the stricken people, commending the efficiency and power of the army in Tokyo.

SEWING MACHINE FOR MEXICO
CHIHUAHUA CITY, Mex., Sept. 25.—A carload of sewing machines has arrived here from El Paso, Texas, consigned to Mennonites at Bustillos. Other machines are to be sent to the Mennonites at Santa Clara. The Mennonites, it is said, have found a need for sewing machines, and intend to make their own clothing in order to avoid paying high prices in Mexican stores. This plan, it is said, will also save the import duty on finished materials imported from other countries.

We'll keep our pledge

Buy now!

This is my last week on this old range. I'm going to try a "State."

WHY are so many women buying Crawford this week? Because we have agreed to sell them on special terms during "14 Crawford Days"—on terms which make it sheer negligence not to own a Crawford.

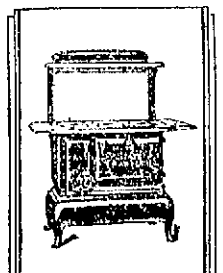

Today is a third Crawford Day! Come and pick out the Crawford you have needed so long. Buy it on terms which you couldn't hope to get a week ago and you won't be able to get after October 6.

Ask to see the State Crawford with its white porcelain splashers. It's the newest Crawford model. The oven is controlled by a single damper. You honestly wouldn't believe that a range could be so good looking!

CINCINNATI REDS KEEP IN FIGHT FOR PENNANT BY BEATING GIANTS

Rivals Meet Again Today at Cincinnati—Yanks Trim Tigers 12 to 4—Heilmann and Ruth Each Get Two Hits in Three Times at Bat—Red Sox Drop Double-Header—Ruehrer Needs One More Victory to Collect Bonus

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The Giants lost to Cincinnati yesterday, 6 to 3, and dropped to a lead of only three games in the National League race for the pennant. They are now three up, with seven to go, although one of these games, with St. Louis, will not be played unless an order by the president of the league.

The Yankees ripped off a series of nine runs in one long string, defeating the Tigers 12 to 4. Babe Ruth, Heilmann and Babe Ruth, who are struggling for the batting average lead, came out even in the day's play, each getting two hits in three times at bat. The Browns won two games from the Red Sox in Boston, 6 to 1 and 4 to 2, while the Cardinals were losing twice to the Robins in St. Louis, 5 to 2 and 7 to 3. Dutch Ruether pitched his 13th victory in the second game against the Cardinals and needs but two more to collect a $1000 bonus.

The Pirates broke even with the Phillies in Pittsburgh, losing the first game 4 to 2 and winning the second 4 to 2. In the second game there was one out when the winning run was scored in the last frame.

The Cubs trimmed the Braves in Chicago in a tight game, 3 to 2. The runs were almost evenly matched. In the fourth inning, each team took three; in the fifth the Cubs took three and the Braves two, and in the sixth they each took two.

Booker and Hartnett each circled. In Washington the White Sox defeated the Senators, 1 to 0.

BIG GOLF TOURNAMENT

Second Day's Play in Professional Championship Tournament at Pelham, N. Y.

PELHAM, N. Y., Sept. 25.—The second day's play in the professional golfers' association championship tournament starts today with all the favorites still in the field. None of the headlines had the slightest difficulty yesterday in disposing of their opponents.

Gene Sarazen, Briardcliffe, N. Y., dropped his open title to Bobby Jones at Inwood, defeated Lloyd Gulickson, Columbus, Ohio, 8 up and 1 to go. Jim Barnes, the home pro, swamped George Dornbach, East Providence, R. I., 12 and 11. Bobby Cruikshank, Westfield, N. J., defeated Willie Leach, Overbrook, Pa., 7 and 1. Walter Hagen, New York, collected a 4 and 3 victory from George Griffin, Clearfield, Pa.

RIFLE TEAM MATCH

CAMP PERRY, Ohio, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press.) Rifle men spent today in their final training for the national rifle team match—the big event on the national rifle championship program, which will be held Wednesday and Thursday, bringing this year's tournament to an end. More than 10 teams of 10 men each are entered.

MANY CANDIDATES FOR FOOTBALL TEAM

Over ten candidates, the largest number in the history of the school, are working out under Coach Ball on the Textile campus for the New England team. The Chaffee team will not be in the league this season. Willis' market taking its place on the schedule.

BOWLERS FORMULATE PLANS FOR SEASON

Representatives of the Mercantile Bowling league met in the Hobson and Lawler shop last evening and formulated plans for the coming season. Jason Ingalls was elected president of the league. Peter Lehman, treasurer and Bernard Durgin, secretary.

The first game of the season will be played on the Crescent alleys on Oct. 1 with the following teams opposing each other: Burbeck's milkmen vs. A. G. Pollard; Turner Centre vs. Adams hardware; Bon Marche vs. Willis' market; Hobson Lawler vs. New England team. The Chaffee team will not be in the league this season. Willis' market taking its place on the schedule.

PENNANT NO. 45 IN SIGHT FOR THEM

VILLA SCORES EASY WIN OVER THOMAS

BOSTON, Sept. 25.—Before one of the largest gatherings of fans that ever saw a boxing bout in Mechanics' building, Pancho Villa, "Champion of the World," defeated George Burns of the Red Sox in a feature contest of 10 rounds at the Armory A. A. show last night.

In the fourth, eighth and last rounds the little Filipino showed the large crowd just why he sports the flyweight crown. In those three stanzas he was on top of the Winding City boy, hitting with both hands. On several occasions Villa claimed he was hit low. Twice he complained to the referee in the seventh, eighth and ninth rounds. In the last round, but every time he continued gamely.

Before the main fight started, Thomas was presented a handsome cup by the friends from New Bedford. Villa, who numbered close to 1000.

After the brief presentation speech the weights of the headliners were announced: 114 lbs. for Thomas and 112 pounds for Villa.

From the start Thomas appeared to be quite nervous and wary of his lighter opponent. Villa, on the other hand, was quite confident and ready to fight. In the first round Villa played a watching game, waiting for a chance to land a blow. In the second round he came forward and landed a series of punches on Thomas.

The seventh was the next frame to bring out real action. Thomas flashed a mite, but he was hit by Villa in the eighth and ninth rounds. In the tenth round, Villa was hit by Thomas, but he was hit by Villa in the eleventh and twelfth rounds.

The crowd was divided into four camps and real signal drills, punting, tackling and scrimmaging featuring the practice session.

The squad will probably remain intact until after the Tufts game at least. All the candidates seem to be trying hard to gain a place on the best outfit ever produced at Textile. Strenuous workouts will be in order for the remainder of the week.

MIXED BOWLING TOURNAMENT OPENS

The first games of the mixed bowling tournament, a new feature, was called by the Crescent alleys last night, with Chaffee clerks furnishing the amusement. The women members of the various teams hit the pins for good scores. Other stores in the city will follow the example of the Chaffee clerks and organize teams consisting of men and women. Last night's scores:

ZEV MAY MEET PAPYRUS FOR HORSE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE WORLD

PAPYRUS, WINNER OF THE DERRY, GETS NEW SHOES JUST BEFORE SAILING IN REAR STATE ON THE AQUATANIA TO MEET AN AMERICAN THREE YEAR-OLD AT BELMONT PARK, N. Y., FOR THE HORSE CHAMPIONSHIP OF THE WORLD

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—The selection of the American three-year-old to race Papyrus, English Derby winner, in the $100,000 international contest at Belmont park, Oct. 20, may not be made before Oct. 6.

Under the terms of agreement with Ben Irish, owner of the English thoroughbred, the Jockey club, under whose auspices the race will be held, has until two weeks before the contest to pick the American representative. The Jockey club also has the privilege of naming an alternate.

Zev, Kentucky Derby victor and star of the Faneuil stable and My Own, of Admiral Cowley's, are strong standouts as the two leading candidates with the odds favoring the selection of Zev, which has had a more impressive record for the season.

GROUSE SHOOTING IS MCGRAW AND JENNINGS AGAIN POPULAR

LONDON, Sept. 25.—Grouse shooting has resumed a prominence as a social function that it held before the war. During the conflict the men who could shoot were far too busy at much grimmer business, for the most part, to find time for shooting birds. But this year shooting is more popular than ever before.

On the opening day of the season the rush for the Scotch moors was so great that 30 trains, fully laden, left London for the land of the heather. And it was not a cheap crowd that filled them. Grouse shooting is the most expensive sport to be had in the United Kingdom. Unless a man be fairly well endowed with this world's goods, he cannot hope to do much shooting on the moors.

A popular host who rents one of the best stocked grouse moors in Scotland, and likes his guests to have a good time regardless of expense, estimates that every grouse brought down by his party costs him five dollars. It would be far cheaper to buy the birds in the open market.

Grouse shooting has gone up since the war. It costs at least double what it did in those far off days. And yet there are some Englishmen who maintain that it is not true sport at all, any more than was pigeon shooting. But today no man who values his reputation as a sportsman would engage in pigeon shooting.

It is predicted that the day soon will come when grouse shooting will be regarded as ungentlemanlike. And for much the same reason as applied to pigeon shooting. It does not give the bird a fair chance. It makes the bird's life a matter of mere seconds. The object is to secure as big a "bag" as possible, and the grouse can hardly be said to have a sporting chance for their lives. The shooter is concealed behind a "butt" with a game-keeper to lead his gun for him. A small army of beaters is engaged to drive the birds onto the "butts." The shooters get notice that the birds are coming. They have not a chance to dodge him. He sees them before they see him, and they fall an easy victim to his gun.

HOLD PHYSICAL EXAMINATIONS AT Y

Nearly 100 boys, members of the Juniors, Cadets, High school and Employed Boys' classes, met Physical Directors C. E. Towne and F. W. Sawyer at the Y.M.C.A., yesterday afternoon and evening for the annual physical examinations. These examinations were given by the physical department prior to the opening of the gymnasium classes, which occurs next week.

Physical Director C. E. Towne states that the records of these examinations shall be kept for comparison with the measurements to be made at the close of the year in May. Several minor physical defects were noted and notices were sent to the parents of these boys calling attention to this and suggesting remedies.

The work of the boys' classes is outlined by Physical Director Towne for the coming winter, including series of exercises especially adapted to growing youth. Care will be taken not to overtax weak muscles and classes will be divided not only according to age, but also according to ability and physical development.

A. O. H. CARNIVAL COMMITTEE MEETS

A meeting of the carnival committee of the A.O.H. was held in A.O.H. hall last night with a large attendance. Appointments are rapidly progressing for the carnival which is to be held in the Kashe at next week. Special programs of entertainment will be provided each evening and on Saturday afternoon, the best talent in the city having been secured for this feature. Several members of local Hibernian organizations visited the hall in the afternoon, building yesterday and viewed the prizes which are to be awarded at the carnival. There will be a meeting of all the societies interested in the affair Thursday night.

TRY A SUN CLASSIFIED AD

RALPH WILLARD WITH HIGH SCHOOL TEAM

Ralph Willard, star backfield man and punter, was out in uniform with the high school football squad at Alumni field yesterday afternoon for the first time this season. For a time Willard's return to school was a matter of conjecture, but he showed up last week and expressed his intention of going out for football. With this announcement, Lowell's gridiron work advanced considerably as the team was lacking a good punter and Willard will fill the bill to perfection.

CANADA'S EXPORTS GROWING

OTTAWA, Sept. 25.—The United States is Canada's best customer. Exports of goods from the Dominion across the international boundary reached a value of $394,246,235 in the twelve months ended July 1, an increase of nearly $100,000,000 over the previous year according to a report issued by the department of trade and commerce. Canada's imports from the United States during the twelve month period, it is shown, registered an increase of $54,315,000, or 17 percent over the previous year.

Kinks o' the Links

Has a player the right at any time during the playing of a hole to ascertain the number of strokes his opponent has played? Is there any penalty if a player gives wrong information as to the number of strokes he has played?

A player is entitled at any time during the playing of a hole to ask his opponent how many strokes he has played. Very often such knowledge has a considerable influence on the play. If a player gives wrong information as to the number of strokes he has played he shall lose the hole unless he corrects the mistake before his opponent has played another stroke.

Is there any difference with the order of play on the putting green than on the fairway? If a player puts out of order on the green how can the mistake be rectified?

When both balls are on the putting green, the same custom that prevails in the rest of the game is followed, the one farther from the hole is played first. If a player nearer the hole should err and play first, his opponent has the right to recall the stroke, make him replace the ball and wait until his proper turn.

COMMITTED SUICIDE BY SHOOTING

Robert B. Houghton, 37, a resident of Billerica Centre, committed suicide by shooting yesterday morning at the home of Arthur Angell, where he occupied an apartment with his wife and two children. Dependency over ill health is believed to have been a contributory cause, although recently he seemed much improved in mind and body and was making preparations for a trip to Boston where he had accepted a position as a teacher in the public schools.

Houghton had been a resident of Billerica for 11 years. Previous to the World war he was principal of the Bellard grammar school for three years and later was connected with the Boston public school system. During the war he served overseas with the headquarters company of the 26th division. Illness forced him to give up his teaching last fall and this summer he worked on a Billerica farm in an effort to regain his health.

Houghton was to have resumed his teaching duties in Boston yesterday and was early in the morning for the trip. It was at 6:30 o'clock that members of his family heard the report of a shot-gun and found he had killed himself. Medical Examiner M. L. Alling was called and ordered the body taken to Lowell to the rooms of undertaker W. Herbert Blake.

He leaves his wife, Helen M. Houghton, and son, Robert B. Jr., one daughter, May C. Houghton, his mother, Mrs. Emma E. Houghton of North Andover, three sisters, Mrs. John W. McCormick

AMUSEMENT NOTES

LOWELL OPERA HOUSE
"The Tidal Wave" swept itself into favor last night when presented by the touring players at the Lowell Opera House. A play that truly touches the heartstrings, it readily proved popular. The story is one of an old New England family in a Maine resort town where men are raised to go down to the sea in ships. The love of two brothers for one girl and the selfish work of the elder brother in making his way clear provide the start of the plot.

The play opens with a scene in the

MARY GARDEN HOME

Noted Singer, Coming to
Auditorium Next Monday,
Returns From Europe

Mary Garden, who is to sing in the Memorial Auditorium next Monday evening, is due to arrive in New York late today and the following account of her departure from Cherbourg last week, as printed in the Chicago Daily News, will be of interest to the Lowell people who plan to hear her sing:

"Mary Garden, with at least thirteen trunks of new gowns to wear on her American concert tour, sailed this afternoon from Cherbourg on the Olympic for America. She is due to arrive in New York next Tuesday. The famous singer will start her trans-continental concert tour of forty-seven cities October 1, appearing first at Lowell, Mass. She will arrive in Chicago about the middle of December for her appearance with the Chicago Civic Opera. This year's tour, according to Howard E. Potter, Miss Garden's personal representative, is the most extensive she has undertaken.

"Miss Garden will be assisted on her tour by Gutta Casini, cellist, and Georges Lauvoryna, pianist, premier chef d'orchestre au Theatre Royal de la Monnaie, Brussels, and de l'Opera de Monte Carlo," said Mr. Potter, who will meet the singer in New York and accompany her on her concert tour.

What Will Her Folks Be?
"What new families will feature Mary's return this year, press representatives who will meet her ship are already beginning to wonder. One year it was her came with the household. Another year it was the 'gown of the thousand mirrors.' There was the time Mary arrived with her father, who she had married and the time she was hobnobbing with enthusiasm over Count.

"Will the temperamental diva, after her summer spent at her villa at Monte Carlo, working and resting, talk freely to the press, or will she display the temper that marked her arrival one year, when she said, hostile to the press, 'I am walking stick to get through the crowd that impeded her progress toward her motor.'"

"Either scale of mind would be equally gardenesque, critics say."

New Gowns by Trunkfuls
"At any rate, there are trunkfuls of new clothes, purchased in Paris, especially for the American concert tour, and more of 'em than ever, because there are more concert booked this year than ever before."

"Miss Garden will spend the week that precedes the opening of her tour in New York, possibly with her mother, who is in that city."

"Announcement of what the singer's opera roles will be this year has not yet been made by the Opera association, but it is known she will revive 'Cleopatra.'"

There is a big advance sale of seats for the Garden concert. Tickets may be obtained at the Victrola department in Chalfoux's.

WAS STRUCK AND INJURED BY AUTO

Miss Esther Thorne of 219 Hale street sustained painful injuries to head and body last evening when she was struck by an automobile on the Lowell-Lawrence boulevard at a point near Kenwood. The young woman was given first aid and then rushed to St. John's hospital, where it was stated that her condition is not serious. The accident occurred shortly before 10 o'clock while Miss Thorne was waiting for an electric car. The driver of the car was Joseph F. Carter of 31 Middlesex street, North Andover, who was later placed under arrest by Officer Joseph Canale of Dracut and hooked at the police station on a charge of operating a motor vehicle so as to endanger the lives of the public.

old family home at Bayport, Maine. The widowed mother of two outstanding sons, herself once the sweetheart of Captain Peabody, hears from the captain he has decided to offer her youngest son the billet of mate on the "Flying Cloud," pride of Bayport's fleet, and of which vessel he is himself captain. It develops that his daughter Ruth (Miss Corinne) asked him to give the younger brother Dave the berth. He had long before decided that the choice of mate lay between Dave and his elder brother, Joe. Mr. Browne played the part of Dave and Lloyd Sargent was brother Joe.

Mrs. Merrick, mother of the two boys, is overjoyed at the news. Her young son is at the time in Portland with a catch of fish. Joe overhears the news and creates a scene after Capt. Peabody leaves. He tells his mother his own brother is standing in his way preventing him from getting the two things he wants most in the world, Ruth and the mate's billet on the Flying Cloud. With diabolical cunning he gets his younger brother out of the way and achieves his ends.

Mrs. Merrick is portrayed by Edna Earl Andrews. Miss Andrews shows a wonderful understanding of what is expected of her in an important character role and gives the part of it to perfection. For several minutes last night she held the emotions of her audience well within her power. Her acting was one of the most finished pieces ever shown on a Lowell stage and won for her an even warmer spot than before in the hearts of the usual first-night patrons with whom she has always been popular. This week she has a part for which she is remarkably well adapted and she makes the most of it.

The second scene, which has the best scenic effect of the play and is well worth seeing, is laid in the South Sea Islands. Here Joe Merrick, mate to the Flying Cloud, meets his brother Dave. The latter is a beachcomber, "scum of the earth," and is not recognized by the brother. Capt. Peabody and his daughter, Ruth, now Mrs. Joe Merrick, are also on hand, the Flying Cloud loading coals at the island for the trip back to the states.

Miss Corinne has herself torn between the affections of her husband and the love for a man whom she believes dead. Dave finally makes himself known to his brother without letting Ruth become aware of his identity. In a struggle in the coals warehouse the elder brother is killed. He meets death from a poison dart hurled by Kala, a native girl who has a great unreciprocated love for Dave. Miss Georgia Nease is Kala. Hidden the past several weeks in even more obscure roles, she surprised her audience last night and had many rapturous comments saying "Who is she?" when she first appeared in the native shrouded costume.

Miss Corinne has her lightest part of the season and handles it with the usual painstaking care that bids close

William Thompson, as Thorpe, Scotch copra trader, is also funny with his rich dialect. ## QUITS ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE

Rev. G. Herbert Ekins Resigns as Assistant Superintendent of League

Calls it "A Propaganda Organization of Teetotaling Fanatics"

HARTFORD, Conn., Sept. 25.—Because he is opposed to the Anti-Saloon League "as a propaganda organization of teetotaling fanatics," the Rev. G. Herbert Ekins has resigned as assistant state superintendent of the league.

In a published statement today, the Rev. Mr. Ekins frankly admitted that he differs from many men in the Anti-Saloon League and that he has no confidence "that America will stand permanent against light wines and beer."

He said that because he is English, he has been "theoretical" enough to stand up in meetings of the Anti-Saloon League and say "it will take more than your propaganda to convince me that there is no virtue in a bottle of Bass."

"If I choose to let grape juice ferment in my cellar, no man has a right to come into my house and tell me that I mustn't do it," he declared.

Rev. Mr. Ekins said that he fears "that harm may come to prohibition from its friends" and expresses the opinion that the country would have been better off had the prohibition act stopped with the prohibition of saloons and distilled liquors.

Y. D. ARTILLERY REUNION AT BOXFORD CAMP

The Veterans associations of the 101st F. A., 102nd F. A. and 103rd Ammunition train will hold a joint reunion at the Boxford camp ground on Columbus Day, October 12th. Final competition between batteries of the present 101st F. A. and 101st Am. Tr. Mass. K. G. for the "Boxford trophy" will be held. Details regarding transportation, camp-bake, etc., will be furnished to the several regimental and battery associations.

The following excerpts are from a circular letter sent out by Capt. Lawrence of the association, a copy of which has been received by the local organization:

The Regimental association will arrange all details of the reunion as regards feeding the men and providing suitable entertainment, and will make such financial guarantees as are necessary in connection therewith. We are not overburdened with funds, having largely contributed to the success of the Regimental reunion in 1921, so each man attending must pay for his own food, and furnish his own transportation. The Regimental association will, however, reimburse the Battery associations for any expense in connection with sending out notices to their members.

When Do We Eat?—Some time between noon and one o'clock, mess will be served. Plenty of good chow. Come and get it. Cost will be reasonable, the expense per person depending somewhat on the nature of the food and number attending.

Dress—Every day, tan-colored clothes with extra large hip pockets.

It is hoped that local members of the organization will plan to attend the reunion, which promises to be a very important, interesting and enjoyable affair.

MILK CASES IN THE DISTRICT COURT

"Notwithstanding the unusual drought of the past summer, Lowell this year has had less sales of milk below standard than for several years past," said Milk Inspector Melvin Mast, after three violations of the pure milk laws had been convicted and fined in the district court this morning. Mr. Mast's remarks were prompted by the excuse given by one of the defendants, that the continual dry period of the last few months was responsible in a large measure for imperfection in his milk. "Last year Lowell was rated as second class in the matter of pure milk," continued the inspector, "and we are expected to enter this division this year if the dealers co-operate in standardizing their supplies. In the majority of cases brought before the district court to date, convictions have resulted in remedying the situation, but dealers invariably wait until they get into difficulty before adjusting unsatisfactory conditions. I am satisfied, however, that conditions this year are better than they have been for some time."

Of the defendants before the court this morning, one Benson was fined $30 for having milk below standard. Assistant Inspector John Coulman testified that he had taken several samples of milk from Benson's wagon and analysis showed the product to contain sediment.

Martin Shaw was found guilty of three violations. He was fined $50 for having milk in cans not marked "skimmed" for not having his name and license on his vehicle, and for having dirt in his milk. He was found guilty and the charges placed on $50.

A fine of $10 was imposed on Fred A. Blaisdell for having milk of inferior quality. The inspector testified that he had notified defendant four times before summoning him to court. Two other milk cases were continued.

HELD IN $1500

Man Sent Insulting Letter to Commander Owsley

FORTLAND, Me., Sept. 25.—Paul Dick of Auburn, superintendent of the Little Androscoggin Water power company was arrested in federal court yesterday on a warrant issued, charging that he sent through the mails to Alvin M. Owsley, commander of the American Legion, a letter containing improper language. He was held in $1500 bail for trial. Dick, who is 64 years of age and has been in the water power business for 25 years, is alleged by postoffice inspectors to have signed an affidavit that he wrote the letter, which referred to Commander Owsley's address as "French propaganda speech," and closed with complimentary expressions.

LOWELL LIONS CLUB WELL ORGANIZED

A new organization locally, known as the Lions Club, has been organized in this city during the past month through the combined efforts of several local business men and George H. Wood of Nahant, an organizer for Lions International. The Lowell club already has a membership of 25.

Weekly meetings of the club are held in Cole's Inn on Wednesday at noon and take the form of an interest by men well known in business and civic circles follow the business sessions.

At the present time the club has a president and secretary, the former position being filled by Charles E. Bartlett of Adams & Company, and the latter by J. Victor Carey of the firm of Simpson & Howard. Under such terms as the full charter membership of the club is reached, 50 members being necessary for a charter, these two officers will carry on the work, assisted by the organizer.

The Lions International is not a new organization. For the past five or six years it has thrived in the western and middle western states and in Canada. California has 46 clubs and Chicago alone has 34. Organizations in the eastern states followed the organization on a firm basis in the west. Massachusetts now has 10 clubs.

The purpose of the organization is to promote civic and commercial causes and to aid in a just cause wherever aid is necessary. The local organization has not yet taken over any one cause for its special support but this will likely follow when the club is chartered. For the present time the efforts of the club are being extended to the acquisition of new members.

Membership in the club is restricted to one representative from each business classification in the city and the representative must, in all cases, be a member of the firm represented. By restricting the membership in this way the club will have a fairly small but very representative membership.

In many respects the Lions International is similar to the Rotary International and to the Kiwanis club but, according to the local officers, it is not intended to run in competition to any other organization.

MUSICAL TREAT AT MERRIMACK PARK

One of the biggest and best musical treats ever presented to people of this vicinity is in store for those who go to Merrimack park Wednesday and Thursday evenings where Paul Whiteman's Levantine orchestra will play. The orchestra is one of the finest teams in America and the management of Merrimack park has made a ten strike in engaging it for a two nights' engagement. Merrimack park is the only place hereabouts where the orchestra will play as they return to the big steamship after Friday's Worcester engagement. Greater Lowell people will also be able to hear Whiteman's Levantine team at prices lower than in any other city where they appear during the week's tour. Considerably higher prices than those asked by the Merrimack park management are being sought in other cities.

The orchestra which will enjoy a four days' leave from the plant vessel Levantine, sails away Saturday. The band will appear in full regulation ship uniforms thus adding to the novelty and dress of this engagement. Selected by the Paul Whiteman organization for the United States shipping line, the band has been selected for an special prize in the land and the office does not hesitate to recommend them to the most critical concert and dance loving public.

The orchestra has been secured for Lowell's music loving public at a great expense. No one realizes the amount of language carried by one of these first grade orchestras. There are many manholes, rubbers and so on, in the orchestra. The office, when this orchestra moves it resembles the breaking camp of a young army. They will give a concert from 8 to 8:40 o'clock and general dancing will follow.

LOWELL ROTARIANS AT FALL CONCLAVE

Dr. Herbert E. Davis, president, and Leroy F. Roberts and Alvin H. Weaver are co-organizing the Lowell Rotary club at the fall convocation of Rotary clubs of northeastern New England, now being held at Poland Springs, Me. They are expected to return to Lowell on Thursday.

With ten or a dozen members of the Ad club attending the convention of New England advertising clubs at Portland and with the Rotarians at Poland Springs, it is Lowell week in the down east state.

MATRIMONIAL

Dr. Frederick L. Cheney, Jr., and Miss Lila Davis were married yesterday at the ceremony being performed at the parsonage of St. Paul's M. E. church, the officiating clergyman being Rev. Charles Stewart Otto. At the close of the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Julia Davis and later the couple left on an automobile home journey through the White mountains. They will make their home at Portsmouth, N.H.

RESTING COMFORTABLY

Mr. M. Mabel Cassidy, who was struck by an automobile in Kenwood last Saturday night while waiting for a trolley car, was reported this morning at St. John's hospital as resting comfortably. Cassidy, a teacher in the local high school, was injured painfully about the head and face when hit by a machine of Connecticut registration. The driver of the machine failed to report the accident to the police station and his identity is unknown.

TWO BALLOONS NOT HEARD FROM

Swiss and Spanish Entries in Bennett Cup Race Are Unaccounted For

BRUSSELS, Sept. 25 (by the Associated Press).—The Belgian balloon Gordon, competing in the James Gordon Bennett cup race, is reported to have been seen over Norway last evening, while the French entry, Picardy, piloted by Heinime and Ravaine, is said to have landed in Poland.

Only one of the five carrier pigeons which Pilot Veenstra had aboard the Belgian Prince, Leopold, has come back, and this is taken as a good sign. The British balloon Margaret, which fell into the sea near Stagen, Denmark, will be disqualified in conformity with the rule forbidding the contestants to alight on the sea. Pilots Allen and Berry, in the Margaret's car, were saved.

At 6 o'clock this morning, only the Swiss balloon Helvetic and the Spanish entry, Esphera, had not been heard from. The bodies of Lieuts. Robert S. Olmstead and John W. Shoptaw, the two American army officers who were killed in the wreck of the balloon S-P, have been given into the possession of the American ambassador at The Hague.

Military honors will be accorded to the victims of the accident. The funerals will be held either Wednesday or Thursday.

Another Accident

BRUSSELS, Sept. 25.—(By the Associated Press).—A telephone message from Amsterdam confirms reports of another accident in the James Gordon Bennett international balloon race. Major Baldwin, piloting the British balloon, Sandee III, and his aide, Captain Purville, were badly injured on their heads and legs, in making a difficult landing at Eersel, Holland, Sunday evening. The basket of the balloon caught on the roof of a building throwing the occupants to the ground.

LOOMFIXERS WILL MEET MONDAY NIGHT

A meeting of the Loomfixers' union will be held next Monday night in Trades and Labor hall, Central street, and all members of the organization are requested to be present. The meeting is being called for the purpose of discussing a matter of great importance to the loomfixers of Lowell, a matter that can only be settled by the organization.

This particular matter, the nature of which was not made public, was discussed at the regular meeting of the union held last evening, but inasmuch as the attendance was not very large, no action was taken. It was stated this morning at textile headquarters that the question to be discussed and settled by the loomfixers will prove of great benefit to both the loomfixers and the textile manufacturers. It is hoped a large attendance will be on hand Monday night.

RECEPTION FUND NEAR $1000 MARK

The Henry Sullivan reception fund is rapidly nearing the thousand dollar mark, a total of $989.30 being received up to 5 o'clock this morning. The subscription list is as follows: Previously acknowledged.....$229.30 Bridge St. Social Club.....10.00 (Number of Contributors).....50.00 Total.....$989.30 The Bridge Street Social club is just newly organized and at its first meeting Sunday night voted to donate to the Henry Sullivan fund.

was called as a witness to tell that her son was "a good boy" and that despite his little brushes with the law and his inability to hold a steady job, he had never been in serious trouble. Peters' father also testified.

It was during argument over the admission as evidence of two letters written by Peters to his parents shortly before he was killed that O'Neill charged Ward's story of blackmail was false. The court ruled that the letters could not be admitted.

O'Neill said the prosecution intended to show that "Clarence Peters was not the kind to blackmail or kill a man." "He didn't carry a gun," said O'Neill. "We'll prove that Ward's story of killing this man in self-defense was a pure fabrication. We'll prove that Ward's story of this blackmail plot was just framed as a means of getting money out of his wealthy father."

When Ward gave himself up to Westchester county officials three days after the body of Peters had been found, he said, in a statement submitted by counsel, that Peters and two others comprised a gang of blackmailers who had been trying to get money from him. Since that day exact information as to what the circumstances of the blackmail plot were, what circumstances laid Ward open to blackmail, or whether or not it was Ward or some other member of the family that was being blackmailed, have been lacking.

The only definite legal hint as to what it could have been was made public last week when an affidavit made 10 weeks after the killing by James Cunningham, race track follower, who was arrested as a material witness following his declaration that he knew the "insider" of the Ward case, was read to the jury.

George S. Ward, according to this affidavit, was victimized by his son, who was used in a plot with "Ross" and "Rogers" the much sought blackmailers. "The son" received letters and telephone messages from these men. Cunningham swore, threatening "murder" and communicated the messages to his father.

But the elder Ward was not so easily victimized. He did not pay, but "started an investigation," the affidavit read.

CAPT. GEORGE B. PALMER LT. COMMANDER HUNTER CALLED

Head of the Lowell Liquor Squad Asks to Be Transferred

Capt. George B. Palmer, head of the Lowell police liquor squad, has requested a transfer to some other branch of the service. Superintendent Thomas R. Atkinson announced today. The chief has the request under consideration but stated he desires more time before announcing a decision.

Capt. Palmer when questioned expressed a desire not to comment upon his request other than to say that he has asked for a change because he believes the rigorous duties which fall in the head of the liquor squad may easier be borne by a younger officer. He pointed out that he has reached the age of 65 years and has been a member of the department for 38 years and does not feel he can stand the unusually long hours demanded by his present job.

"Of course I hope the superintendent will grant my request," he said, "but he knows what is best for the department and I will abide by any decision he may make."

Capt. Palmer went to the head of the liquor squad last year and has been vigorous enforcement of the law and credit to the department at all times. He has not resigned from the force and has no intention to do so.

MEETING OF ARMISTICE BALL COMMITTEE

The Armistice ball committee of Lowell post, St. American Legion, met last night at headquarters at the Memorial Auditorium and discussed further plans for the event to be held on the eve of November 11. Owing to the absence of Alvin H. Weaver, chairman of the general committee, many matters were laid over until Friday night when the next meeting of the committee will be held. A committee on invitations was appointed, however, with James H. Conway, chairman.

"Least Governed Are the Best Governed"

SPRINGFIELD, Sept. 25.—Congratulating the affiliated exchange clubs on their unified effort during the past year to put a check on excessive law-making, Ray L. Lange, of Birmingham, Ala., national president, addressing the national convention here today said that though the results had been notable the surface had only been scratched. He said that "the apathy of our citizenship must be overcome. They must be aroused to know that our legislative halls cannot long remain mud-houses of paternalism and regulation, a bedlam of careless law-givers. There must be a harking back to the principle that the least governed are the best governed."

Woman Head of Trade Union Movement

LONDON, Sept. 25.—The trade union movement in England may have a woman for president during the coming year. Miss Margaret G. Bonfield, the well known leader among women workers, is regarded as the likely choice from among the three candidates for the chairmanship of the general council of the trades union congress which takes place tomorrow. If chosen Miss Bonfield will be the first woman president.

Turkey To Be Declared a Republic

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 25.—The question of the form and name of the new Turkish state which must be settled before Turkey is able to resume full diplomatic relations with the rest of the world is absorbing attention here and in Ankara. It is virtually certain that Turkey will be declared a republic, the head of the government being either a president or a chief of state as in Poland. The first occupant of the executive office is expected to be Mustapha Kemal Pasha, who in a recent interview said that Turkey was already a republic except in name and constitution and might soon become even more democratic.

Pinchot and Mellon in Secret Conference

NEW YORK, Sept. 25.—Governor Gifford Pinchot of Pennsylvania and Secretary of the Treasury Andrew W. Mellon of Pittsburgh were in New York several hours yesterday. The New York World said today reports that the two Pennsylvanians had conferred secretly on the national political situation could not be verified.

Says Italy Entitled to Indemnity

ROME, Sept. 25.—The newspaper Messaggero, on the basis of numerous bits of information gleaned about the foreign ministry to the effect that the inter-allied mission at Jutina has accomplished nothing, places on the Greek government the responsibility for the lack of satisfactory conclusions. It argues that the Greeks did not do everything within their power to arrest those responsible for the murder of Gen. Tellini and his suite and further contends that inasmuch as the perpetrators of the crime have not been arrested, Italy is entitled to the 50,000,000 lire indemnity.
